Preface

FREEMASONRY is an indeterminate subject, presenting an infinite variety of phases and complexities, a comprehensive knowledge of which is beyond the scope of the average reader.

The works of reputable writers upon this subject reflect the opinion of their authors, that the Fraternity of Freemasons is indeed an ancient society, notwithstanding that material evidence to substantiate this theory is lacking.

The introduction to this history has been written with due regard to brevity, at the same time giving a digest of the rather exhaustive works of our best-known authorities without making any statements that might lead to controversial argument.

The history of La Fayette Lodge should be of keen interest to every local Mason, as well as to every citizen of this community, it being closely allied with the history and progress of Zanesville and Muskingum County.

Neither time nor labor has been spared in the endeavor to make this work as complete as possible, and every consistent effort has been put forth in giving an accurate account of the more important events of the Lodge in a concise and impartial manner.

Doubtless some errors will be found, especially in the statistical portion of the book, but this is unavoidable owing to the limited amount of time at our disposal, and the incomplete and illegible condition of the early records.

In writing this history, we have been actuated merely by the desire to be of some small service to the Fraternity, in return for the honors and favors so generously bestowed.

Grateful acknowledgement is hereby made to Bro. William D. Terry for his invaluable assistance in preparing an abstract of the minutes, thereby lightening our burden and curtailing the amount of time required in this production by many months.

A Lodge history is necessarily dry and uninteresting, and for this reason many incidents have been mentioned which are of no historical value, but of more than passing interest to the Craft.

By mere chance, many of our poorest years have been unusually eventful, while others, though prosperous in every way, possess nothing of historical value beyond the ordinary routine.

In order that each Worshipful Master might receive due credit for work actually performed during his term of office, the number of Master Masons raised or affiliated has been computed according to the calendar year, and not the fiscal year, which will account for any discrepancies existing between the number stated in this history and that shown in the annual report to the Grand Lodge.

A CONCISE HISTORY OF

La Fayette Lodge, Free and Accepted Masons

Chapter I

INTRODUCTORY

IN PRESENTING a history of La Fayette Lodge, Free and Accepted Masons, embracing a period of more than a century, and portraying as briefly as expedient the principal events of interest in chronological order, we must revert to that embryonic stage of our development when Zanesville, judging from present-day standards of living, was no more than a prosperous hamlet.

Thousands of articles of daily use, now considered indispensable, were unknown and unheard of at that time; and, although our city ranked third among the municipalities of Ohio in population, wealth, and commercial activities, and for seventeen months had occupied the enviable position of being the State capital, it was destitute of paved streets, gas, electricity, sewers, telephones, railroads, street cars, or, in fact, conveniences of any description.

The treacherous Indian still roamed at will through the primeval forest which encompassed the town, and the only means of locomotion was by stagecoach or on horseback.

The improvement of Zanesville began in 1804, and after an existence of twenty years had a population of about two thousand men, women, and children, with a courthouse, jail, and land office.

As early as 1812 the city boasted of having eleven taverns, eleven stores, and scores of mechanics and professional men.

The most important trades of that early period were the brickmakers, carpenters, brick and stone masons, cabinet makers, smiths of various kinds, clock and watch makers, jewelers, boot and shoe makers, rope makers, boat builders, saddlers, printers, painters, and potters.

This city was also the center of the stage routes: one line running from Wheeling, West Virginia, to Maysville, Kentucky, while another ran coaches at regular intervals between Wheeling and Columbus.

Scattered among the early settlers of Zanesville were a number of Freemasons who, previous to their emigration to what was considered the Far West, had affiliated themselves with one of the few Lodges then established in the colonies. These brethren were the pioneers of Masonry in this section of Ohio, and to them all honor is due in the organization of our local Masonic Bodies.

The induction of the principles of Freemasonry into this community was not attended by uniformed processions, moving to the measured strains of martial music, nor were these principles promulgated by glaring headlines, emblazoned upon the front pages of the newspapers. Our Fraternity was regarded with toleration rather than veneration, and the cardinal virtues of these early Craftsmen were those of silence, secrecy, and circumspection.

In order to possess a comprehensive knowledge of the many difficulties encountered by these Freemasons during the early period of our development, due to the feeling of antipathy which pervaded the entire country, we must digress for a time and revert still farther back to that era of uncertainty immediately preceding the introduction of Speculative into the Operative element of Masonry.

The novice searching for light in Freemasonry is confronted by an intricate maze of perplexing questions concerning the origin and antiquity of our ancient and honorable Society, which renders it very difficult for him to distinguish between the truth and the tradition.

Numberless books have been written upon this subject, many propounding theories of double origin and with unlimited pretensions, to prove to the gullible that Freemasonry has enjoyed an uninterrupted existence from some uncertain period antedating the building of Solomon's Temple, through the Dark Ages and up to the present time. As to the truth of these extravagant assertions we can neither affirm nor deny; but, if we are to accept as authority the writings of such eminent Masonic scholars as Oliver, Preston, Anderson, Desaguliers, Mackey, and Gould, then we must concur in the opinion that little authentic information has been secured relative to the operations of the Craft prior to the sixteenth century.

In enumerating a few of the more plausible of these theories, regardless of their reputed value as such, we might mention the Comacines or Roman Collegia; the Dionesyan Artificers of Tyre, to whom for their cunning and ingenuity is attributed the magnificent beauty of King Solomon's Temple; the Druses of Lebanon; the Druids, who flourished in England during the Dark Ages; the Culdees of Ireland; the Pythagorians of Greece, and the followers of the Egyptian Hermes, known as Hermeticism. These are but a few of the many religious cults or building guilds which inhabited the various countries upon the European continent prior to the ignorant and lawless period of mediæval history known as the Dark Ages.

Many writers connect the building of the pyramids of Egypt with early Freemasonry. We have conclusive proof that these pyramids were erected by various monarchs as tombs, the labor being performed by slaves; and, outside of the vast amount of labor required, little skill or ingenuity would be required for the performance were it not for the intricacies of their interior. Quoting from "The History of Ancient Egypt," by the famous archæologist, George Rawlinson, is the following statement: "No one can possibly examine the interior of the 'Great Pyramid' without being struck with astonishment at the wonderful mechanical skill displayed in its construction. Nothing more perfect mechanically has ever been erected since that time." The early Egyptians were not noted for their skill as builders, which would lead us to believe that this knowledge must have been received from outside sources. The solution to these many vexatious problems is still unsolved. A possible solution might lie in the building guilds that, according to reliable authorities, existed as early as the Persian Dominion. These guilds were composed of all the trades necessary to the construction of a building, the members of which traveled from place to place and from one country to another seeking employment. These guilds were presided over by a Master and Wardens, somewhat similar to the custom of our present Lodges, and the magnificent monasteries, palaces, and public buildings extant in Europe today after an existence of many centuries attest the skill of these guilds in the building art.

England finally became the center of their operations, and in that country they flourished for a time, but in the fifteenth century, during the reign of Charles II, they almost ceased to exist.

The guilds took a new lease on life, however, when the great fire of September, 1666, almost completely destroyed the city of London, and among the many fine buildings in the devastated region were more than fifty cathedrals, the reconstruction of which gave impetus to the building trades throughout the entire kingdom.

London was immediately rebuilt under the skillful hand of that world-renowned architect, Sir Christopher Wren, who was acknowledged Grand Master of the Operative Masons of England.

In the sixteenth century, during the reign of Henry VIII, Puritanism came into vogue, and as a result of this Protestant Reformation the guilds were suppressed by the Crown, and the building of churches was forbidden.

This action brought about the decline of Operative Masonry until, at the close of the century, there were but seven Lodges existing in London, and of this number but two of any consequence.

During the active life of Sir Christopher Wren annual meetings were held by the Grand Lodge, but after he became aged and infirm these meetings ceased for several years. These Operative Lodges conferred the one degree of Entered Apprentice, while the Grand Lodge, which was composed of all active Masons assembled en masse in a general assembly, conferred the remaining degrees of Fellow Craft and Master Mason.

In 1715, the four surviving Lodges of London resolved to take some united action to revive the Craft from the state of lethargy, into which it had fallen, and unite under a new Grand Master, Sir Christopher Wren now being dead and none having been appointed to fill his place.

They, accordingly, met at the Apple Tree tavern, and having put in the chair the oldest Mason (being Master of a Lodge), they constituted themselves a Grand Lodge, pro tempore, and resolved to revive the annual assembly and feast, and select some noble Brother to serve them as Grand Master.

The annual feast and assembly was held June 24, 1717, being the birthday of St. John the Baptist, at the Goose and Gridiron tavern in London, and after a number of names had been proposed and a selection made by a majority of hands, Anthony Thayer, an Operative Mason, was duly elected Grand Master. Some time prior to the date of this revival the few remaining Lodges had endeavored to resuscitate the declining Order by admitting to membership noblemen and gentlemen of prominence, who were ignorant of the art of building but had distinguished themselves as soldiers, sailors, or in the various arts and sciences. These Brethren were known as Accepted Masons, and even at this early date were of sufficient strength to wield a potent influence in shaping the future policies of the Fraternity. It is a noteworthy fact that in the selection of officers at this assembly the Senior Grand Warden was a carpenter, while a soldier was chosen to the office of Junior Grand Warden. This meeting, held at the Goose and Gridiron tavern, is known as "The Revival," and in the course of its deliberations the Grand Lodge decided that the privilege of assembling as Masons, which had hitherto been unlimited, should be vested in certain Lodges or Assemblies of Masons, and that every Lodge to be hereafter convened must be legally authorized by warrant from the Grand Master. At the meeting of this Grand Lodge, June 24, 1721, the Duke of Montagu was elected and proclaimed Grand Master. He immediately requested Rev. James Anderson and Dr. John T. Desaguliers, both men of genius and education, to revise, arrange, and digest the old Gothic constitutions and charges, which task they faithfully executed, and gave to the Craft the ancient Charges and Regulations of Freemasons, so familiar to the Craft to-day.

Following the revival of 1717, other Grand Lodges sprang up in England and Scotland, until at one time there were four rival Grand Lodges all claiming exclusive jurisdiction.

The most important of these rival Grand Lodges were the Ancient (Antient) or Atholl Masons (so called from the Duke of Atholl, who for a number of years was Grand Master), and the Moderns, which title was given by the Ancients to the adherents of the first Grand Lodge, which had been formed at the Goose and Gridiron tavern, and designated themselves as the Grand Lodge, Free Masons, of England.

The Ancients were a number of Irish Masons who established themselves in England and organized the Grand Lodge, Free and Accepted Masons of England, in 1751. From this last Grand Lodge all the existing Lodges in the United States have received their authority and, likewise, their name.

The rivalry between these two Grand Jurisdictions existed for more than a century. The principal contention was in the ritualistic work, the Ancients accusing the Moderns of having introduced innovations which changed the old landmarks of Masonry.

The code of government for the Ancients was embodied in a book of constitutions, entitled, "Ahiman Rezon," written by Laurence Dermott in 1756, while the Moderns adhered strictly to Anderson's Constitutions. This rivalry existed to a moderate degree in the American colonies, some Lodges having received their authority from one, and some from the other of these Grand Lodges. The consolidation of the two Grand Lodges of South Carolina, in 1817, permanently settled the question in this country, all Lodges of Moderns having ceased to exist.

In 1813 the three existing Grand Lodges of England consolidated under the leadership of the Duke of Sussex, who was elected and proclaimed Grand Master.

It is impossible to give the exact date that Speculative Masonry was introduced into the United States, both Massachusetts and Pennsylvania claiming priority.

In 1730, Daniel Cox was appointed Provincial Grand Master of New York, New Jersey, and Pennsylvania, with power to constitute Lodges; but, from reliable authority, we learn that as early as 1720 a Lodge held meetings in King's Chapel, Boston, Massachusetts. Following the introduction of Speculative Masonry into the Operative Lodges of England, they rapidly increased in membership, power, and influence, and many men of wealth and prominence, including the nobility and members of the royal family itself, sought admission to its portals. It was but a matter of time until the Speculative entirely dominated the Operative element of the Fraternity, the whole undergoing a complete transformation. But as the Order increased in wealth and prestige, its enemies assailed it on every side as a disseminator of vicious and pernicious doctrines. It was a time when secret societies of every description, especially the Freemasons, were regarded with distrust and suspicion. In consequence of pretended exposures written by the Abbe Barruel, Samuel Pritchard, Prof. Robison, and others, the Order and rites of Freemasonry were considered contemptible, and crimes and calumnies beyond description were heaped upon its innocent head.

One hundred and eight years had elapsed from the time of "The Revival" until the organization of La Fayette Lodge; yet, we find that Freemasonry was still in an incipient state.

The brilliant achievements of such eminent Freemasons as Washington, Franklin, La Fayette, Revere, Warren, Putnam, and hundreds of others, who participated in the war for independence had added lustre to the Fraternity, and the world at large was beginning to view it with respect, if not with admiration, when disaster almost overtook it in the disappearance of William Morgan.

Morgan was a native of Culpepper County, Virginia, and by trade a stone mason. In 1821, he abandoned his trade, removed to Batavia, New York, and opened a brewery. In a short time the brewery was destroyed by fire, and he was reduced to comparative poverty. He was a Freemason, and after removing to Batavia became a Royal Arch Mason, but, owing to his dissolute habits, was expelled. In 1826, the members of the Craft became highly incensed over the knowledge that Morgan was preparing an exposé on Masonry. Several attempts were made by unknown persons to destroy the shop where the book was being printed, and he was twice imprisoned for debt. He disappeared on September 19, 1826, and was never again seen. It is evident, from the various accounts of this episode, that Morgan was not possessed of sufficient intelligence to write a book of this kind, but was ably assisted by the enemies of the Fraternity, who profited by his disappearance. The disappearance of William Morgan was heralded throughout the length and breadth of the land, and brought upon the Fraternity the most bigotrous persecution. Public feeling became very strong, and many Masons, fearing for their lives and property, renounced their membership. This unfortunate incident proved almost a death blow to the organization throughout the country. The Lodges being small in number, many permanently ceased operations, while the remaining number assembled infrequently, under conditions of utmost secrecy.

Anti-Masonry advanced to such a state of intolerance and hatred that, on September 11, 1830, the United States Anti-Masonic convention, composed of one hundred and eleven delegates from eleven States of the Northern and New England group, assembled in the city of Philadelphia. This convention adopted a platform with the avowed intention of exterminating Freemasonry, and nominated candidates for President and Vice-President. This party was discredited, however, at the following election, receiving but seven electoral votes, being the entire vote of Vermont.

This was the status of the institution a century ago, when that small but intrepid band of Freemasons met at Mason's Hall and laid the preliminary plans for the organization of La Fayette Lodge.

From subsequent events, we can readily see that our early Brethren could hardly have selected a more unpropitious time for the institution of a new Lodge. Amity Lodge was chartered in 1805, and at this time, after an existence of twenty years, had a membership of less than forty, and until four years previous to this time had been destitute of a permanent Lodge room, meeting in taverns and private homes. At that time Zanesville and Springfield (Putnam) were rival towns, and of the two it would seem that Springfield was the more enterprising. Amity Lodge held meetings for several years, both in Zanesville and Springfield, as their early By-laws provided, and it was the duty of the Tyler to notify the Brethren of the time and place of each meeting.

Chapter II

INSTITUTION

AN EXHAUSTIVE research into the few available sources of supply has elicited scant information regarding the circumstances leading up to the institution of our Lodge. A perusal of the minutes of Amity Lodge evinces the fact that a lack of harmony had prevailed in this Lodge for several years prior to this time. A written proposition was presented to that Lodge by certain of its members on November 24, 1820, who agreed to withdraw and form a new Lodge, providing that Amity would recommend them to the Grand Lodge, pay the charter fee, and give them joint ownership in the new Lodge room. In speaking of this audacious request, the record states "that the paper was thrown out of the Lodge," but from reliable information we learn that this paper was still on file a few years ago, with the signatures torn off. Refreshments were very much in favor in the early days, and the principal form of refreshment being whiskey, it was only natural for certain of the Brethren to experience difficulty in governing the appetite. It is said "that Billy Twaddle and his big brown jug were certain signs that the Lodge would meet that night," and seldom failed to bring out a good attendance. On occasions the Brethren imbibed a little too freely, which caused many disputes, some of which led to permanent enmity. Next to the conferring of degrees, the principal order of business was trying one another for unmasonic conduct and, in consequence, the Lodge was divided into two or more factions. The minutes of Amity Lodge for the meeting held April 29, 1825, supplies us with the information that at that meeting a request was read by Bro. George James in which he asked that permission be granted to himself and others to form a new Lodge in Zanesville, and that a recommendation to this effect be made to the Grand Lodge of Ohio, which request was granted by the unanimous vote of the members present. Brother James was never a member of Amity Lodge, nor are any of the subsequent members of La Fayette Lodge mentioned in the meager attendance at this meeting, which renders the result of this ballot very remarkable. It is possible that several meetings were held prior to the receipt of the dispensation, but if so, no record was made of these transactions. The first recorded meeting was held in Masons' Hall, which was the third floor of the old Zanesville Academy, located on Market Street, next to Potter Alley. This old structure was completed in 1821 and is still standing. The first two floors were the property of the county and were used as schoolrooms for many years, while the third floor was the joint property of Amity Lodge and the Chapter Masons.

The minutes state "that the first meeting of La Fayette Lodge was held in Masons' Hall, Wednesday, May 25, 1825, acting under the authority of a dispensation dated May 16, from William M. Irwin, Grand Master of Ohio. The Lodge was opened in the Entered Apprentice degree and the following Brethren were present: Bro. George James, Worshipful Master; Bro. Calvin Conant, Senior Warden; Bro. William Blocksom, Junior Warden; Bro. Leonidas L. Hamline, Senior Deacon; Bro. Isaac Van Horne, Treasurer; Bro. John T. Fracker, Junior Deacon; and Bro. William Twaddle, Steward and Tyler." Brothers Fracker and Twaddle were visitors at this meeting, both being members of Amity Lodge.

The Worshipful Master appointed a committee consisting of Bros. Calvin Conant, Leonidas L. Hamline, and William Blocksom to draft a set of By-laws and report at the following meeting, Friday, June 3, being the appointed day.

Bros. Isaac Van Horne and William Blocksom were appointed to confer with Amity Lodge and Zanesville Chapter regarding the use of their room and paraphernalia, and on May 27 presented the following request to Amity Lodge:

To the Worshipful Master, Wardens, and Brethren of Amity Lodge, No. 5:

Pursuant to appointment by La Fayette Lodge, the undersigned respectfully apply to you in behalf of said La Fayette Lodge: First, for leave to meet at the hall in which you meet. Second, for the use of the furniture, jewels, clothing, etc., for a few months. La Fayette Lodge will probably meet once a month on a day to be agreed upon, so as not to interfere with the meetings of other Lodges. The utmost care will be taken of the Hall and furniture committed to our care. The Tyler of your Lodge, it is presumed, may, without impropriety, be Tyler of La Fayette Lodge, and thus all will be under the care of your Tyler for greater security, exhibiting at once that harmony and cordiality so desirable among Masons. Be pleased to acquaint us, with as little delay as your convenience will admit, what compensation will be required for these privileges, either by the month or year.

OLD ZANESVILLE ACADEMY BUILDING WHERE

I. Van Horne,
William Blocksom.

In response to this request, an agreement was made with Amity Lodge and Zanesville Chapter for the use of their hall, clothing and jewels at an annual rental of twenty-four dollars. During the first eight months, while the Lodge was meeting under dispensation, no provision was made for the office of Secretary, the minutes of the meetings being written and signed by the presiding officer.

The By-laws of the Grand Lodge of Ohio, adopted at the Annual Communication of 1820, provided: that no Warrant or Dispensation for the institution of a new Lodge shall be granted except upon the petition of eight Master Masons, accompanied by a petition from the nearest Lodge vouching for the moral character and Masonic abilities of the petitioners; and they were further required to pay into the treasury of the Grand Lodge the sum of forty dollars. The Charter members of the Lodge were: George James, Calvin Conant, William Blocksom, Leonidas L. Hamline, John Hall, Samuel Herrick, Isaac Van Horne, Gordius A. Hall, and Harry Safford, and of this number two were Past Masters.

In reviewing the lives of these Brethren, who were the founders of La Fayette Lodge, the fact presents itself that they were, without exception, men of exceptional character and unusual attainments and worthy of our respect and admiration.

Pre-eminent in this list of honored names is that of General Van Horne, who can rightfully be called "The Father of Freemasonry in Zanesville."

BRO. ISAAC VAN HORNE

Was born in Bucks County, Pennsylvania, January 13, 1754. He served throughout the Revolutionary War, and was a personal friend of both Washington and La Fayette, and on numerous occasions had sat in Lodge with them. He came to Zanesville in 1805 as receiver of money in the Government Land Office, and at once became one of the most prominent and influential citizens of his day. Previous to his coming to Zanesville, Bro. Van Horne had engaged in farming, served as representative in the Pennsylvania Legislature and in the United States Congress, and was, without doubt, possessed of considerable wealth. Shortly after his arrival here he purchased ten acres of ground, extending from Pine Street to Luck Avenue, planted a large orchard, and erected a two-story building on Pine Street known as the "White House" from its color and conspicuous location. In 1812 he purchased from Alexander McLaughlin, the brick building (still standing) on the north side of Market Street, between Sixth Street and Seventh Street and adjoining the alley. This was the finest building in the city at that time, and became the residence of Bro. Van Horne in 1817, and here he continued to live the remainder of his life. He founded the Muskingum Bank, which was located at the corner of Putnam Avenue and Muskingum Avenue, and during his life was the owner of several hotels and business buildings. Brother Van Horne was a Past Master of Newtown Lodge, No. 57, of Pennsylvania, but on account of the early records of that Lodge having been accidently destroyed by fire, nothing of his Masonic record is known. During the first year of his residence in Zanesville, in company with William Smyth, also of Pennsylvania, and a few other Brethren, he began negotiations with the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania toward securing a Lodge of Freemasons in Zanesville. This action resulted in the organization of Amity Lodge in 1806, in the tavern owned by General Van Horne and conducted by Benoni Pierce. It stood on the northeast corner of Main and Fifth Streets, and the original structure was moved more than a century ago to a place near the southeast corner of Market and Fifth Streets, and was better known as the old "Abbott residence." This building was razed in 1924 to make room for a garage. Brother Van Horne served for two years as Worshipful Master of Amity Lodge, withdrawing his membership on December 8, 1819. He was active in the forming of a Grand Lodge in this State and, after the organization was perfected, was chosen as its first Junior Grand Warden. It is evident from the records of this Lodge that Brother Van Horne had been selected to serve as the first Master of La Fayette, but on account of his advanced age, he declined the honor and served as its Treasurer instead.

He died on February 2, 1834, full of years and greatly honored by all who knew him. His remains were laid to rest in the family lot on the eminence to the north side of Woodlawn Cemetery.

BRO. CALVIN CONANT

Was born in the State of Massachusetts, but the record of his early years is veiled in obscurity. He was among the earliest physicians who settled in Putnam, and was thoroughly experienced in pharmacy, chemistry, and surgery. Medical colleges were very scarce in those days, and Doctor Conant had one or more medical students under his tutelage most of the time. In 1820, salt was obtained in considerable quantities at the Chandler salt wells, near Chandlersville. On a trip from Marietta to Zanesville, Doctor Conant was forced to spend a night at the old Chandler tavern, and in conversation with the landlord he stated that he had heard of the salt rock and desired to obtain a piece of it for analysis.

A quantity of this was forthcoming on the following morning and, after being analyzed, was found to contain particles of silver. A company was immediately incorporated by the doctor and others to develop the territory and Doctor Conant was chosen as its President. During an accident which occurred while drilling a mine, Doctor Conant risked his life to save the lives of his men, and although he succeeded, he received serious injuries which eventually caused his demise.

When or where Doctor Conant received his Masonic degrees is unknown. He affiliated with Amity Lodge, August 18, 1815, and served the following year as its Worshipful Master, withdrawing his membership July 1, 1818.

He again affiliated with Amity Lodge December 15, 1820, and the same evening was elected Worshipful Master, in which capacity he served for two years, and after relinquishing the office he again withdrew from the Lodge, a dimit being granted January 1, 1823. He was one of the charter members of Zanesville Chapter, No. 9, Royal Arch Masons, and served as its first High Priest.

Brother Conant served as Worshipful Master of La Fayette Lodge during the first year under a charter, but owing to his physical condition was unable to attend the meetings with any regularity. He died January 25, 1827, and was buried in the old cemetery on Moxahala Avenue. For eighty-eight years his grave was unmarked, except by a mound eight feet in diameter and four in height. In 1915, a beautiful granite marker was placed over the grave, the expense being equally divided among Amity and La Fayette Lodges and Zanesville Chapter, Royal Arch Masons.

BRO. LEONIDAS L. HAMLINE

Was born at Burlington, Connecticut, in 1797, and came to Zanesville in 1824. He was one of the early attorneys of the city, but after a few years' practice renounced the profession and became a Methodist minister. The life of a minister of the gospel a century or more ago was anything but an easy one. The churches were scattered and the congregations, being small, were consequently in rather straitened circumstances. This necessitated the forming of circuits composed of four or more churches, presided over by one minister. Brother Hamline became a circuit preacher and was forced to ride through the wilderness on horseback in all kinds of weather, preparatory to preaching the Sunday sermon. In 1835 he removed to Cincinnati, where he became editor of The Christian Advocate and The Ladies' Repository.

He was ordained a Bishop of the Methodist Episcopal Church in 1844, and during his career was instrumental in the founding of two universities, one of which, Hamline University, at St. Paul, Minnesota, bears his name. Bishop Hamline made contributions of $25,000 to each of these colleges. Brother Hamline was twice married. His first wife was the only daughter of Jeffrey Price, who settled here in 1802, and was the owner of considerable land east of Underwood Street. This was known as "Price's Hill," and upon the death of his father-in-law became the property of Brother Hamline. It is highly probable that Brother Hamline received his Masonic degrees in Burlington, Connecticut. He was active in the organization of La Fayette Lodge and became its first Senior Deacon.

Owing to the requirements of his profession, he was unable to further participate in its progress, and withdrew his membership on January 15, 1827.

He died at Mt. Pleasant, Iowa, February 22, 1865, and was buried in Rose Hill Cemetery, Chicago, Illinois.

BRO. SAMUEL HERRICK

Was born at Amenia, New York, April 14, 1779. He was among the earliest settlers in Zanesville, and as early as 1805 taught school in a little log schoolhouse on the site of the old Academy on Market Street. He was one of the first three attorneys to practice in Muskingum County, and in 1810 was appointed Prosecuting Attorney of Guernsey County. In 1812, he succeeded Lewis Case as Prosecuting Attorney of Muskingum County, also serving at the same time as United States District Attorney.

During the War of 1812, he served in the army of the United States with the rank of Brigadier-General. At the close of the war he was appointed Prosecuting Attorney of Licking County. He represented this district in Congress from 1817 to 1821, and upon his retirement was appointed by President Jackson as United States Attorney for Ohio, which position he held until 1830. Brother Herrick built the house on the southwest corner of Third Street and Fountain Alley, and resided there for many years. He later purchased a large farm in Wayne Township and, upon his retirement as a lawyer, moved to this farm. At the time of his death he resided at the corner of Orchard and Underwood Streets.

Brother Herrick was initiated an Entered Apprentice in Amity Lodge, May 18, 1810; passed to the degree of Fellow Craft, June 5, 1810; and raised to the degree of Master Mason, June 15, 1810.

At the beginning of the War of 1812 he withdrew his membership, and from that time until the organization of La Fayette Lodge remained unaffiliated.

He died March 1, 1852, and his remains were laid to rest in Greenwood Cemetery.

BRO. WILLIAM BLOCKSOM

Was born at Milton, Delaware, September 17, 1785, and came to Zanesville in his early youth, making most of the journey on foot. After attaining his majority, he followed the trade of carpenter, and later entered the contracting business.

He was Postmaster of Zanesville from May 6, 1834, to April 1, 1840. In 1833, he was appointed by the Legislature as one of the three Associate Judges of Muskingum County, and continued in this capacity until 1840.

He was initiated an Entered Apprentice in Amity Lodge, March 24, 1815; passed to the degree of Fellow Craft, April 11, 1815; and raised to the degree of Master Mason, May 26, 1815. He served as Junior Warden of Amity Lodge in 1818 and 1819, withdrawing his membership, July 15, 1821. He was an active member of La Fayette Lodge at its inception, and served as the first Junior Warden.

He died April 5, 1860, and was buried in Greenwood Cemetery.

BRO. HENRY SAFFORD

Was born April 9, 1787. The place of his birth is unknown, but was probably in Pennsylvania. He came to Zanesville while still a very young man and engaged in the jewelry business. He was the first Postmaster of Putnam, serving from January 30, 1817, to June 19, 1829.

He married Prudence, the daughter of General Isaac Van Horne, and for many years conducted a jewelry store at the corner of Muskingum Avenue and Adams Street. Harry Safford, as he was commonly called, was a zealous church worker, and is often called "The Father of the Sunday Schools." He opened the first Sunday-school ever held in this city, in 1815, on the site of the old academy building, on Market Street, and from this early beginning several of our present churches trace their origin.

Brother Safford received his Masonic degrees before coming to Zanesville. He affiliated with Amity Lodge on November 17, 1820, and continued as a member of that Lodge until the organization of La Fayette Lodge.

He died July 23, 1867, and his remains were laid to rest in Woodlawn Cemetery near the grave of his father-in-law, General Van Horne.

BRO. GEORGE JAMES

Was born October 21, 1800, at Fredericksburg, Virginia. He was the son of Rev. William James, and came to Zanesville at an early age. He was among the earliest attorneys who practiced in this county, and his two-story office building on Fourth Street, in front of the present county jail, is still remembered by the oldest residents of the city.

Brother James did not receive his Masonic degrees in Zanesville, but the place of his former membership is unknown. He was the youngest of the charter members of La Fayette Lodge, being but twenty-five, and although he was selected as the first Worshipful Master, was entirely unfit for the honor. He seems to have been a man of ability and education, but possessed of a hasty and virulent temper.

Brother James occupied the East but three times, and his brief administration was worthy of little merit. In consequence of an altercation between him and Brother Hamline, which occurred in his office, he was tried by his members and suspended from membership during the remainder of the year. The record of the Lodge shows that he was granted a dimit on January 27, 1826, which is one of the many inconsistencies found in the early records. Although the name of Brother James does not again appear in our minutes of La Fayette Lodge, the Proceedings of the Grand Lodge show that he represented this Lodge in 1831, 1832, and 1833. He served one year as Junior Grand Warden and, in the absence of his superiors, presided over the Grand Lodge. The following year he was honored with the office of Deputy Grand Master, but, being absent from the Annual Communication, received no further honors. He affiliated with Zanesville Chapter, No. 9, Royal Arch Masons, November 30, 1824, and at the meeting of the Grand Chapter the following January was elected Grand Royal Arch Captain. He was a charter member of Zanesville Council, No. 12, Royal and Select Master, but never served in any official capacity.

He died July 22, 1872, and was buried in Greenwood Cemetery.

BRO. GORDIUS A. HALL

Was born at Brookfield, Massachusetts, August 17, 1794. The year of his advent in Zanesville is unknown, but it was about 1819. On August 16, 1823, he was united in marriage to Miss Harriet Hampton, the daughter of Colonel James Hampton, who built the old 1809 courthouse.

He was connected with many of the early enterprises of Zanesville, and for many years prior to his death conducted a dry-goods store on Main Street.

Brother Hall was initiated an Entered Apprentice in Amity Lodge, August 23, 1820, passed to the degree of Fellow Craft September 26, 1820, and raised to the degree of Master Mason September 26, 1820, continuing as a member of that Lodge until the organization of La Fayette Lodge, when he became a charter member, and served for a time as its Secretary.

He died August 21, 1873, and was laid to rest in Greenwood Cemetery.

BRO. JOHN HALL

Colonel John Hall was a native of Massachusetts and was born February 7, 1781. The town of his nativity and the place where he received his Masonic degrees are alike unknown. It is presumed that he was a veteran of the War of 1812, and came to Zanesville at the close of hostilities, but this is partly conjecture, and positive information to substantiate this theory is lacking.

He affiliated with Amity Lodge January 20, 1815, and continued a member of that Lodge until the organization of La Fayette. Unlike the other charter members, he continued an active member of La Fayette Lodge from the time of its organization until the time of his death—thirty-seven years later.

He served the Lodge as Senior Deacon in 1826, and again in 1833; was Treasurer, 1830 and 1831; Junior Warden, 1827; Senior Warden, 1828, 1829, 1832, 1836, and 1837; Worshipful Master, 1834 and 1835.

For many years he resided on the south side of Market Street, between Seventh and Underwood Streets.

He died November 29, 1862, at the age of eighty-one, and his remains were laid to rest in Greenwood Cemetery.

The second meeting of the Lodge was held on June 3, and petitions for membership were presented by Rev. George C. Sedgwick and John T. Fracker. A Committee of Vigilance was appointed, consisting of Bro. Leonidas L. Hamline, Bro. William Blocksom, and Bro. Isaac Van Horne.

The duties of this Committee were to investigate the character of each candidate for the degrees or for membership; to take cognizance of the conduct of the members, settle differences among them and, when necessary, to prefer charges.

During this first year, while the Lodge was meeting under dispensation, but two members were admitted to membership.

BRO. CALVIN CONANT

WORSHIPFUL MASTER

La Fayette Lodge is first mentioned in the Proceedings of the Grand Lodge of Ohio, held at Columbus, January 9, 1826, in the following statement: Petitions were handed in from La Fayette Lodge of Zanesville, from Temperance Lodge of Sidney, from La Fayette Lodge of Cincinnati, and La Fayette Lodge of Seneca, praying for charters.

For several years following the organization of the Grand Lodge, it was not the custom of the Grand Master to make an address at the Annual Communication or give any account of his official actions during the recess of the Grand Lodge—at least no record was made of such addresses having been made by the publication of same in the Annual Proceedings. The record of the Grand Lodge is therefore silent regarding the dispensation issued to this Lodge by the Grand Master.

Embodied in the report of the Committee on Charters and Dispensations, made at this meeting, is a resolution to the effect that a charter be granted to Isaac Van Horne and his associates for a Lodge to be called La Fayette Lodge, No. 79, in the town of Zanesville and county of Muskingum.

At this meeting, La Fayette Lodge of Seneca was chartered as No. 77, and La Fayette Lodge of Cincinnati was continued under dispensation for one more year, after which time it received the number 81.

La Fayette Lodge, No. 79, and La Fayette Lodge, No. 81, of Cincinnati, are the only existing Lodges by that name in Ohio, the one at Seneca having ceased operations many years ago. It was a fitting tribute to General La Fayette that these Lodges should have been named in his honor. During 1824 and 1825 he visited the United States by a special invitation from the Government, and during his tour of the country was scheduled to visit Zanesville, but owing to a change in plans was unable to do so. He was a personal friend of General Van Horne and it was no mere coincidence that the Lodge was given his name.

The original charter of La Fayette Lodge was issued by the Grand Lodge under date of January 11, 1826, and, through carelessness or by accident, was lost or destroyed.

A certified copy of this charter was issued by B. F. Smith, Grand Secretary, under date of October 24, 1846. This copy is framed and is still in a fine state of preservation.

TO ALL WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

We, the GRAND LODGE of the Most Ancient and Honorable Society of Free and Accepted Masons of the State of Ohio, convened and assembled in the borough of Columbus, SEND GREETING:

WHEREAS, A petition has been presented to us from George James, Calvin Conant, William Blocksom, L. L. Hamline, John Hall, Samuel Herrick, I. Van Horne, G. A. Hall, and H. Safford, all Free and Accepted MASTER MASONS, stating that they have heretofore assembled together under a Warrant or Dispensation from the Most Worshipful Grand Master. They, therefore, pray for a CHARTER, extending and confirming unto them the rights and privileges of a regularly constituted Lodge of MASTER MASONS; and,

WHEREAS, The aforesaid petitioners, having passed a proper term of probation, and exhibited to this GRAND LODGE satisfactory evidence that they have conducted the business of MASONRY agreeably to the original design; now, therefore,

Be It Known, That we, the GRAND LODGE aforesaid, reposing special trust and confidence in the integrity and well-known attachment of the aforesaid petitioners to the sublime principles of MASONRY, as originally taught; and earnestly believing that the true interest of the Institution will be promoted by granting the prayer of said petitioners, have constituted and appointed, and do, by these presents, constitute and appoint them, the said George James, Calvin Conant, and William Blocksom and their associates a regular and constitutional LODGE OF MASTER MASONS by the name, style, or title of La Fayette Lodge, No. 79.

And we do hereby appoint Bro. George James first Master; Bro. Calvin Conant, first Senior Warden, and Bro. William Blocksom, first Junior Warden, hereby giving and granting unto them and their successors full power and authority to assemble together, on all proper and lawful occasions, as a legal LODGE within the town of Zanesville and State aforesaid, to initiate good men and true, who may apply to be made acquainted with the sublime principles of the several degrees of ENTERED APPRENTICE, FELLOW CRAFT, AND MASTER MASON.

Also, to make choice annually of a MASTER, WARDENS, and such other officers as are necessary to the due organization of a regular LODGE agreeably to ancient usage; to admit members, to collect funds for the relief of poor and distressed Brethren, their widows and orphans; to make By-laws and ordinances for their own government, and to do, and transact all, and singular, such matters and things as are proper and lawful to be done in such an assembly.

And, furthermore, we do hereby declare the rank and precedence of the said La Fayette Lodge in the GRAND LODGE and elsewhere to be from the eleventh day of January, 1826.

And we do hereby require the aforesaid constituted Brethren to attend the GRAND LODGE, at their Annual Communication, by their MASTER and WARDENS, or by their PROXIES duly appointed; also, to keep a fair and regular record of all their proceedings, and to lay them before the GRAND LODGE when required; to be punctual in their annual returns, and in the payment of such sums as may be assessed for the support of the GRAND LODGE.

And, furthermore, we do hereby enjoin it upon the said La Fayette Lodge to conform in all their doings to the Constitution, Laws, and Edicts of the GRAND LODGE; and in failure thereof, this Charter, and the powers herein granted, are to cease, and be of no further validity.

In Testimony Whereof, We, the Grand Master, Deputy Grand Master and Grand Wardens, by virtue of the high power and authority in us vested, have hereunto set our hands, and caused the seal of the GRAND LODGE to be affixed, at Columbus, this eleventh day of January, A. D. 1826.

SAMUEL WHEELER, M.·.W.·.Grand Master;
RICHARD COLLINS, R.·.W.·.Deputy Grand Master;
STEPHEN FALES, R.·.W.·.Senior Grand Warden;
JOHN SATERTHWAITE, R.·.W.·.Junior Grand Warden.

(Seal)

Attest, B. LATHAM, R.·.W.·.Grand Secretary.

The first election of officers was held January 27, and officers chosen at this time were: Bro. Calvin Conant, Worshipful Master; Bro. John T. Fracker, Senior Warden; Bro. Simeon Wright, Junior Warden; Bro. Isaac Van Horne, Treasurer; Bro. John Elbertson, Secretary; Bro. John Hall, Senior Deacon; Bro. John W. Huntington, Junior Deacon, and Bro. William Twaddle, Steward and Tyler.

These officers were installed, April 26, by Bro. Joshua Downer. The records of the Lodge at this time are very incomplete, illegible, and contain many incongruous statements.

During the year a donation of one hundred dollars was made to the Grand Lodge for the purpose of erecting a building for their permanent meeting place, provided it be located in Zanesville.

Fourteen meetings were held during the year.

Bros. Peter Meeker, Asa R. Cassady, and Moses Lehew received the degrees, and John Elbertson, John Huntington, Simeon Wright, Joshua Downer, Joseph A. McConnell, and Solomon Bliss were admitted to membership.

The second election was held on December 15 and resulted in the choice of officers as follows: Bro. George C. Sedgwick, Worshipful Master; Bro. John T. Fracker, Senior Warden; Bro. John Hall, Junior Warden; Bro. Isaac Van Horne, Treasurer; Bro. Gordius A. Hall, Secretary; Bro. Joseph A. McConnell, Senior Deacon; Bro. Asa R. Cassady, Junior Deacon, and Bro. William Twaddle, Steward and Tyler.

These officers were installed on December 28, by Bro. David Spangler as Grand Master, assisted by Bro. Robert Stewart as Deputy Grand Master.

1827

BRO. GEORGE C. SEDGWICK

WORSHIPFUL MASTER

Brother Sedgwick was born in Calvert County, Maryland, November 3, 1785. He was a Baptist minister and, in 1820, left Winchester, Virginia, where he was then located, for a trip through the west. He stopped at Zanesville and finding a layman of the Baptist faith, held a service and delivered a sermon. He was much impressed by the advantages offered in this prosperous village and, after a sojourn through Kentucky and Indiana, returned here and established the First Baptist Church. Services were held for a time in the old courthouse and in private homes, but in 1823 a one-story brick church was erected on Sixth Street, near South Street. The Ohio Baptist State Convention was organized in this church in 1826 and the two succeeding sessions were held there. Brother Sedgwick also edited and published a small Baptist newspaper, and for a time conducted a seminary for girls. On June 29, 1826, he was united in marriage to Miss Eliza H. Dare, in Putnam, the ceremony being performed by his brother, Rev. William Sedgwick, and to this union seven children were born.

Brother Sedgwick was initiated an Entered Apprentice in Amity Lodge, August 6, 1824; passed to the degree of Fellow Craft August 18, 1824, and raised to the degree of Master Mason August 25, 1824. He affiliated with La Fayette Lodge, July 9, 1825, and served as Worshipful Master in 1827, without having previously served as a Warden.

He died August 25, 1864, in the old Dare homestead, on Second Street, and was laid to rest in Greenwood Cemetery.

On January 26, the Lodge performed the last sad rites at the funeral of Bro. Calvin Conant, who was laid to rest in the old cemetery on Moxahala Avenue.

During the year the degrees were conferred upon Bros. David B. Irwin, Elijah Hinman, and Gerardus Wynkoop, and Bro. Jacob Fisher was admitted to membership.

The third election was held September 7 and resulted in the election of Bro. John T. Fracker as Worshipful Master; Bro. John Hall, Senior Warden; Bro. Asa R. Cassady, Junior Warden; Bro. Isaac Van Horne, Treasurer; Bro. Gordius A. Hall, Secretary; Bro. Moses Lehew, Senior Deacon; Bro. Peter Meeker, Junior Deacon, and Bro. William Twaddle, Steward and Tyler.

BRO. JOHN TILESTON FRACKER

WORSHIPFUL MASTER

Brother Fracker was born at Boston, Massachusetts, September 29, 1785. He was one of the earliest machinists in Zanesville. In 1826, in partnership with Bro. William Blocksom, he erected a foundry in Fountain Alley, between Seventh Street and Underwood Street, from which he withdrew in 1833. The firm of John T. Fracker & Son opened a small foundry at the southwest corner of Sixth Street and Locust Alley, for the manufacture of small castings. This business was conducted under various names until 1870.

Brother Fracker received the Masonic degrees before coming to this city. He affiliated with Amity Lodge, June 12, 1818, and served that Lodge as Junior Warden, 1819, and Secretary in 1820. He affiliated with La Fayette Lodge, July 1, 1825, being our first member, and served as Junior Deacon, 1825; Senior Warden, 1826 and 1827; Worshipful Master, 1828-29-30 and 1831.

He died July 23, 1853, and was buried in Woodlawn Cemetery.

On January 3 the officers were installed by Bro. Joshua Downer, assisted by Bro. Robert Richmond. Sixteen Brethren were present on this occasion.

Two members of the Lodge were honored by the Grand Lodge this year. Bro. Joshua Downer served as Deputy Grand Master, pro tem, and Bro. George C. Sedgwick was appointed Grand Chaplain.

In the spring of 1808 the question of removing the capital to Zanesville was thoroughly agitated. and every effort was put forth by the Muskingum delegation in the General Assembly, assisted by John McIntire and other prominent citizens, to bring this about, representing that the county would furnish suitable buildings for the Legislature and State officers. In preparation of this event, the first courthouse was erected in 1809. The seat of government was located in this city from October 1, 1810, to May 1, 1812, the House of Representatives using the first floor of the courthouse, while the second floor was occupied by the Senate. After the removal of the capital to Columbus, the second floor, better known as the "Senate Chamber," was rented to various organizations. This room was used by all of the Masonic Bodies at different times, prior to the erection of the temple at the corner of Fourth and Market Streets.

On January 4, 1828, the Lodge secured the "Senate Chamber" for their future meeting place.

During the year the degrees were conferred upon Bros. Isaac Springer, Zadoc Hall, William B. Cassady, and John G. Hilton. On December 26, the fourth election was held and Bro. John T. Fracker was again elected Worshipful Master. Other officers were: Bro. John Hall, Senior Warden; Bro. Asa R. Cassady, Junior Warden; Bro. Isaac Van Horne, Treasurer; Bro. Isaac Springer, Secretary; Bro. Peter Meeker, Senior Deacon; Bro. Elijah Hinman, Junior Deacon, and Bro. John G. Hilton, Steward and Tyler.

BRO. JOHN TILESTON FRACKER
WORSHIPFUL MASTER

The officers were installed on New Year's Day by Bro. Joshua Downer as the M∴W∴Grand Master, assisted by Bro. Daniel Converse as R∴W∴Deputy Grand Master.

La Fayette Lodge was again honored by the Grand Lodge in the selection of Bro. Joshua Downer as R.·.W.·.Deputy Grand Master, and Bro. John T. Fracker as R.·.W.·.Grand Treasurer.

No degrees were conferred during the year. Fourteen meetings were held, all of which were in the Entered Apprentice degree.

At the fifth election, on December 11, Bro. John T. Fracker was elected Worshipful Master; Bro. Zadoc Hall, Senior Warden; Bro. Peter Meeker, Junior Warden; Bro. John Hall, Treasurer; Bro. Asa R. Cassady, Secretary; Bro. Isaac Springer, Senior Deacon; Bro. Jacob Fisher, Junior Deacon, and Bro. John G. Hilton, Steward and Tyler.

These officers were installed on December 31 by Bro. Dudley W. Rhodes as M.·.W.·.Grand Master, assisted by Bro. Josiah S. Copeland as R.·.W.·.Deputy Grand Master.

BRO. JOHN TILESTON FRACKER

WORSHIPFUL MASTER

The plans of our present public library system were laid in 1830, when a number of our prominent citizens met and organized the Atheneum Reading Society. A contract was let for a two-story building, which was to be erected on a site to the east and immediately adjoining that of the old courthouse. This building was constructed at a cost of $3,500, and its location is now covered by the east wing of the present courthouse. An invitation having been received from John Wilson and Asa R. Cassady, Undertakers, and Charles G. Wilson and William Blocksom, members of the Building Committee, the cornerstone of the Atheneum was laid, April 13, by the Grand Lodge, Free and Accepted Masons of Ohio, with impressive ceremonies. At three o'clock a Lodge of Entered Apprentices was opened by the Grand Lodge of Ohio, composed of the following local Brethren: Bro. David Spangler as M.·.W.·.Grand Master; Bro. Robert Stewart as R.·.W.·.Senior Grand Warden; Bro. Joshua C. Hook as R.·.W.·.Junior Grand Warden; Bro. James Caldwell as R.·.W.·.Grand Treasurer; Bro. Adam Peters as R.·.W.·.

Grand Secretary; Bro. William Berkshire as W. Senior Grand Deacon; Bro. Gerardus Wynkoop as W. Junior Grand Deacon, and Bro. William Twaddle as Grand Steward and Tyler.

The degree of Master Mason was conferred upon six Brethren during this year, and one was admitted to membership.

The sixth election was held December 3, and the officers elected were: Bro. John T. Fracker, Worshipful Master; Bro. Isaac Springer, Senior Warden; Bro. John W. Hilton, Junior Warden; Bro. John Hall, Treasurer; Bro. William Silcott, Secretary; Bro. William Pringle, Senior Deacon; Bro. Hezekiah B. Allison, Junior Deacon, and Bro. Joseph A. McConnell, Steward and Tyler. The Secretary entirely overlooked the installation of these officers, as no mention of it is made in the minutes.

On December 27 the Lodge joined in a Masonic celebration of the festival of St. John the Evangelist by attending divine services at the Associated Reformed Methodist Church. They later dined at the Kirker and Mulvaney Hotel, after which they returned to the Lodge room, where an address was made by Bro. David Spangler.

BRO. JOHN T. FRACKER

WORSHIPFUL MASTER

The Lodge held twenty-three meetings during the year, and were represented in the Grand Lodge by Bro. George James, who was honored with the office of Junior Grand Deacon. During this year the degree of Master Mason was conferred upon four new Brethren and the Entered Apprentice upon three others.

The seventh election was held on December 23, and Bro. Asa R. Cassady was elected Worshipful Master. The other officers were: Bro. John Hall, Senior Warden; Bro. John G. Hilton, Junior Warden; Bro. Gerardus Wynkoop, Treasurer; Bro. William Silcott, Secretary; Bro. John T. Fracker, Senior Deacon; Bro. Hezekiah B. Allison, Junior Deacon, and Bro. William B. Cassady, Steward and Tyler.

These officers were installed December 27, but no mention was made of the installing officers.

BRO. ASA R. CASSADY
WORSHIPFUL MASTER

Bro. Cassady was born in Fairfax County, Virginia, near Richmond, about the beginning of the last century. He came to Zanesville while still a lad, and became one of the earliest undertakers in the city, being associated in business with John Wilson. He was particularly noted for his business acumen, and displayed untiring energy in conducting the numerous enterprises in which he was at various times engaged. Besides conducting an undertaking parlor and furniture store, he owned a flour mill on Sixth Street, near Howard, and was interested in many business projects during his life.

He was Postmaster of Zanesville from April 1, 1840, to February 3, 1841; Sheriff of Muskingum County from 1833 to 1837, and Mayor of Zanesville from 1867 to 1869.

Brother Cassady was equally active in Masonic circles and proved very skillful in administering the affairs of the Lodge during the trying years of the anti-Masonic persecution. He was initiated in this Lodge October 20, 1826; passed to the degree of Fellow Craft November 27, 1826, and raised to the degree of Master Mason December 15, 1826.

He served the Lodge as Junior Deacon, 1827; Secretary, 1828 and 1830; Junior Warden, 1828 and 1829; Senior Warden, 1840, and Worshipful Master, 1832, 1833, 1836, and 1837. He later dimitted from the Lodge and affiliated with Lodge of Amity, No. 5, March 26, 1858.

He died September 11, 1872, and was buried in Greenwood Cemetery.

During this year the anti-Masonic feeling which pervaded the New England and eastern States began to make itself felt in Zanesville. Only twelve meetings were held and only two new Brethren were raised.

The eighth election was held December 14, and the officers selected were: Bro. Asa R. Cassady, Worshipful Master; Bro. Joseph A. McConnell, Senior Warden; Bro. William B. Cassady, Junior Warden; Bro. Gerardus Wynkoop, Treasurer; Bro.

William Silcott, Secretary; Bro. John Hall, Senior Deacon; Bro. John Shafer, Junior Deacon, and Bro. Hezekiah B. Allison, Steward and Tyler.

These officers were installed on December 21 by Bro. Dudley W. Rhodes, acting as the M.·.W.·.Grand Master, assisted by Bro. Daniel Converse as R.·.W.·.Deputy Grand Master.

1833

BRO. ASA R. CASSADY

Worshipful Master

No business of importance was transacted during the year. Thirteen meetings were held and three received the Master Mason degree.

The ninth election was held December 9, and Bro. John Hall was elected Worshipful Master. Other officers were: Bro. Joseph A. McConnell, Senior Warden; Bro. Hezekiah B. Allison, Junior Warden; Bro. Gerardus Wynkoop, Treasurer; Bro. William Silcott, Secretary; Bro. Joseph Sharp, Senior Deacon; Bro. William L. Hutchison, Junior Deacon, and Bro. John White, Steward and Tyler.

BRO. JOHN HALL

Worshipful Master

The installation of officers was held January 2, 1834, the ceremonies of installation being performed by Bro. Daniel Converse, assisted by Bro. John Hall.

In response to a report made by the Auditing Committee, February 5, relative to alleged discrepancies in the books of the Secretary and Treasurer, the Senior Warden was authorized to take over the books of the Secretary and record all meetings to date.

No degrees were conferred during the year. Twelve meetings were held and all in the Entered Apprentice degree.

On December 19, the tenth election was held. The newly elected officers consisted of Bro. John Hall, Worshipful Master; Bro. Joseph A. McConnell, Senior Warden; Bro. Hezekiah B. Allison, Junior Warden; Bro. Gerardus Wynkoop, Treasurer; Bro. William Silcott, Secretary; Bro. William Pringle, Senior Deacon; Bro. William L. Hutchison, Junior Deacon, and Bro. John White, Steward and Tyler.

BRO. JOHN HALL

WORSHIPFUL MASTER

The installation was held on New Year's Day, and the officers were installed by Bro. Dudley W. Rhodes, of Amity Lodge, assisted by Bro. Joseph McConnell.

The anti-Masonic fever was at its peak in Zanesville: only six meetings were held during the year and none from May 18 to December 11, when the eleventh election of officers was held. The new officers were: Bro. Asa R. Cassady, Worshipful Master; Bro. John Hall, Senior Warden; Bro. Joseph Sharp, Junior Warden; Bro. Gerardus Wynkoop, Treasurer; Bro. Joseph A. McConnell, Secretary; Bro. William L. Hutchison, Senior Deacon; Bro. William Pringle, Junior Deacon, and Bro. John White, Steward and Tyler.

The officers were installed December 31 by Bro. Daniel Applegate, assisted by Bro. Robert Stewart.

BRO. ASA R. CASSADY

WORSHIPFUL MASTER

During this second administration of Bro. Cassady, the Lodge experienced a very prosperous year despite the feeling of animosity that assailed the Institution on every side.

Early in the spring, the Lodge moved from the "Senate Chamber" to Masons' Hall. Fourteen meetings were held during the year and five Brethren received the Master Mason degree, while the Entered Apprentice and Fellow Craft degrees were conferred upon one other.

The minutes of March 4 mention the fact that the charter had been framed at a cost of one dollar and sixty-eight cents.

No record was made of the election or installation of the officers for 1837, but from subsequent records we learn that the officers were composed of: Bro. Asa R. Cassady, Worshipful Master; Bro. John Hall, Senior Warden; Bro. William B. Cassady, Junior Warden; Bro. Gerardus Wynkoop, Treasurer; Bro. Joseph A. McConnell, Secretary; Bro. Lemuel Page, Senior Deacon; Bro. William Pringle, Junior Deacon, and Bro. Thomas Whitt, Steward and Tyler.

BRO. ASA R. CASSADY

WORSHIPFUL MASTER

The thirteenth year in the history of the Lodge was the most prosperous of any up to this time, and was fittingly celebrated by the addition of thirteen new Master Masons. Foremost in the list are the names of Bro. Cornelius Moore and Bro. Thomas Launder, each of whom later served as Master and wielded a potent influence in the affairs of the Lodge for many years. Bro. Launder was actively identified in the organization of the Lodge at Dresden, and on July 21 was permitted to withdraw his membership for that purpose.

The Lodge held twenty-four meetings during the year and on October 30 secured Masons' Hall for another year at a rental of thirty dollars.

La Fayette Lodge was further honored by the Grand Lodge of Ohio in the selection of Bro. Cornelius Moore as Grand Orator.

One important event which occurred during this year was the revision of the By-laws, of which no record had been made in the minutes up to this time. These early By-laws throw considerable light upon the many peculiar habits and customs then in vogue, and began with the following preamble:

The Grand Architect, whose divine wisdom resolved to form the world, and reduce a wild chaos to a fair, regular, and permanent system, not only traced out the whole plan of the universe, but gave life and being, form and figure, to every part of what had been before a wide, indigested, and immovable heap of matter. Who said, "Let there be light and there was light," the dull, heavy, and terrain parts of matter obeyed the Almighty fiat, and were immediately ranged in form and order. We, therefore, the members of La Fayette Lodge, No. 79, Free and Accepted Masons, held by charter from the Right Worshipful Grand Lodge for the State of Ohio, granted and dated on the eleventh day of January, A. L. 5826, in order to promote the benevolent purposes for which our Society was first founded, to pay homage and adoration to the Divine Being; for the purposes of disseminating Brotherly Love, Relief, and Charity; to point out the precepts and give energy to the practice of morality, religion, and all the social virtues; to preserve the dignity and harmony of this Lodge, and the more firmly maintain inviolate those duties which the bond of affection and Brotherly Love prescribes; in addition to the general rules and "Ancient Landmarks" of Masonry, do make known, and confirm, the following articles as a constitutional code for the government of ourselves and our successors.

Those By-laws were composed of fourteen articles, each of which was subdivided into numerous sections, concluding with Pleyel's Hymn and a form of petition, almost identical with the form now in use.

The stated meetings were held on Friday evenings, succeeding each full moon, and the opening hour was seven o'clock, from March to August inclusive, and six o'clock during the remaining months. The By-laws further provided: that the Lodge should be opened within fifteen minutes after the time specified, if sufficient number of the Brethren were present, and in the absence of the Master and Wardens, the Lodge could be opened by a Past Master or even a Master Mason. At the Annual Communication, which was the one succeeding the full moon in November, officers were elected for the ensuing year. In the election of officers, should there be no majority on the first ballot, the two having the highest number of votes were considered in nomination, and the remainder of the contestants eliminated.

The only qualification requisite for the office of Worshipful Master was the attainment of the degree of Master Mason at least six months previous to the date of election.

The officers could be installed at any time prior to the festival of St. John the Evangelist.

The Master was endowed with practically the same powers and prerogatives as at the present time, except that his decisions could be reversed by two-thirds of the members present. In the list of committees, provided in the By-laws, were those of Vigilance and Charity.

The Vigilance Committee investigated the character of each person petitioning the Lodge, either for degrees or affiliation; acted as a mediator in the adjustment of any differences arising among the Brethren, and, when necessary, preferred charges for misconduct.

The Committee on Charity had equal powers with the Master in making charitable donations, and the minutes of almost every meeting contain one or more names of indigent Masons, or the widows and orphans of Masons, who had received material assistance from the Lodge.

The Secretary received as salary seventy-five cents for each initiation; and for the writing of diplomas he received one dollar for parchment or satin, and fifty cents for paper. His duties were the same then as now, except that the membership was small and the Lodge met less frequently.

The Tyler received as remuneration for his services at each meeting the sum of seventy-five cents; for notifying members and tiling for emergency meetings he received one dollar, and this amount was charged to the person for whose benefit the meeting was called. Until 1887, the duties of Tyler and Steward were performed by the same brother, and among the manifold duties of this dual office were those of keeping all furniture and paraphernalia in good order, cleaning the Lodge room, securing light and fuel, and providing the refreshments on meeting nights. He was the only member of the Lodge that was exempt from dues.

Besides the Stated Communications, which were held monthly, meetings could be called at the pleasure of the Worshipful Master, and any meeting could be adjourned until some future date by a majority vote of the members present.

All petitions for degrees were required to be in writing and recommended by two Master Masons, only one of whom was required to be a member of the Lodge. The By-laws further specified: that a petition for degrees must be accompanied by three dollars, which, if the candidate was accepted, should be considered a part of the initiation fee, but if the candidate was accepted and did not appear to receive the degree within three months thereafter, the three dollars should be forfeited by the Lodge, unless he could show good cause for this failure, when duly notified.

Petitions were required to lie over from one Stated Communication until the next, unless considered by the Lodge to be a case of emergency, or when the candidate was generally known to be a man of virtuous principles, untainted integrity and honor. When such circumstances were combined in the same person, his petition might be considered sooner, provided that three-fourths of the members present agreed thereto. The fee for the degrees was fifteen dollars, divided into three parts—ten dollars for the Entered Apprentice, two dollars for the Fellow Craft, and three dollars for the Master Mason degree.

In balloting upon petitions, three ballots could be taken, provided that the ballot contained one or more negative votes on the two preceding ones.

One section of the By-laws provided: that every Antient Mason applying to become a member of the Lodge must present his petition in writing, and which must lie over until the next stated meeting, and after satisfying the Lodge that he was under no Masonic censure and sustained a good moral character, a ballot would be taken and, if clear, he became a member of the Lodge upon payment of one dollar.

The dues amounted to two dollars a year, payable semi-annually at the meetings immediately preceding the festivals of St. John the Baptist and St. John the Evangelist.

Unaffiliated Masons were permitted free visitation to the Lodge for one time only, and for each subsequent visit were assessed the sum of twelve and one-half cents. These non-contributing Masons, as they were referred to in the early days, were much in evidence and one of the worst evils incident to that period. The popular belief, "that once a Mason always a Mason," prevailed, and the feeble growth of the Lodge for the first forty years can be attributed to this parsimonious custom, which was annually condemned by the Grand Lodge.

At the Grand Communication of 1848, the following resolution was presented by Bro. Cornelius Moore, chairman of the Committee on Jurisprudence: Any Free and Accepted Mason residing within the jurisdiction of this Grand Lodge, and within ten miles of a subordinate Lodge, who shall neglect or refuse to apply to, and if accepted, to become a member of the subordinate Lodge nearest his residence, after residing within its jurisdiction one year, shall be deemed an unworthy Mason, and shall not be entitled to any of the rights or privileges of a Mason, provided that no dues, annual, or for membership, either to a subordinate or for the Grand Lodge, shall be required from a poor and deserving Brother, whom the Lodge shall consider unable to pay such dues without doing injustice to himself or to his family.

The thirteenth election of officers was held November 17, and the following were selected to serve for the ensuing year: Bro. Cornelius Moore, Worshipful Master; Bro. Joseph Sharp, Senior Warden; Bro. William C. Scott, Junior Warden; Bro. Gerardus Wynkoop, Treasurer; Bro. James Cochran, Secretary; Bro. Daniel Hattan, Senior Deacon; Bro. Henry W. Doster, Junior Deacon, and Bro. William Brown, Steward and Tyler.

The first public installation of officers was held on December 1, 1837, the ceremonies on this occasion being performed by Bro. John T. Fracker, assisted by Bro. George L. Shinnick.

BRO. CORNELIUS MOORE

WORSHIPFUL MASTER

Brother Moore was born in Hunterdon County, New Jersey, November 23, 1806. He lived upon his father's farm until he was sixteen, after which time he learned the trade of blacksmith.

Brother Moore came to Zanesville when twenty-six years of age, where he taught school and, after studying law, was admitted to the bar in 1836. From a Masonic standpoint, Brother Moore was without question the greatest and most distinguished Mason that ever received his degrees in La Fayette Lodge. He was a Masonic writer and lecturer of national reputation, and in 1845 located in Cincinnati and began the publication of the Masonic Review. The valiant work of this editor and publisher was continued under adverse circumstances until the Review was considered a textbook on Masonry.

Brother Moore was initiated an Entered Apprentice in La Fayette Lodge March 24, 1837; passed to the degree of Fellow Craft April 18, 1837, and raised to the Master Mason degree May 31, 1837. He was elected Worshipful Master at the following election without having served as a Warden, and served in this capacity during 1838, 1839 and 1840.

He received the degree of Mark Master July 1, 1838, in Zanesville Chapter, No. 9, Royal Arch Masons; having received the Past Master degree November 28, 1837; Most Excellent Master degree April 2, 1838, and Royal Arch June 7, 1838.

He served the Chapter as Principal Sojourner 1839 and 1840; and Secretary, 1841, 1842, and 1843.

Brother Moore was also a member of Reed Commandery, No. 8, Knights Templar, of Dayton; and Ohio Consistory, Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite, at Cincinnati.

He served on many Committees in the Grand Lodge of Ohio, and for a time was chairman of the Committee on Jurisprudence.

He died at Windsor, Canada, June 3, 1883, and was buried in Spring Grove Cemetery, at Cincinnati, Ohio.

The year 1838 was a fairly prosperous one considering the fact that the entire country was in the throes of financial depression, following the panic of the preceding year.

The first seal of the Lodge was made during this year at a cost of seven dollars. This seal is still in existence, but has long since been replaced by a better one.

Twenty-five meetings were held and the degree of Master Mason was conferred upon eight candidates during the year.

Bro. Cornelius Moore was re-elected Grand Orator of the Grand Lodge of Ohio.

On November 2, the fourteenth election was held and Bro. Cornelius Moore was re-elected Worshipful Master. Other officers chosen were: Bro. Joseph Sharp, Senior Warden; Bro. Lemuel Page, Junior Warden; Bro. Gerardus Wynkoop, Treasurer; Bro. James Cochran, Secretary; Bro. Richard I. Peach, Senior Deacon; Bro. James Hattan, Junior Deacon, and Bro. Isaac M. Brown, Steward and Tyler.

On December 7, the Lodge rejected the proposition made by Amity Lodge and Zanesville Chapter, that they pay an annual rental of forty-five dollars for the use of Masons' Hall. Bros. Asa R. Cassady, James Hattan, and Gerardus Wynkoop were appointed a Committee to secure and furnish a new Lodge room.

On December 21, the officers were installed by Bro. John Barney, the Grand Lecturer, assisted by Bro. George L. Shinnick, of Amity Lodge.

BRO. CORNELIUS MOORE

WORSHIPFUL MASTER

On January 4, the Lodge met for the first time in their new Lodge room, which was located on the north side of Main Street, at the corner of Court Alley. The building was the property of Bro. Leonidas L. Hamline, and the Lodge room was secured by the Committee at an annual rental of twenty dollars, payable quarterly in advance.

The Lodge expended two hundred and seventy-six dollars and eighty-five cents for alterations and the installation of new furniture.

On April 22, La Fayette Lodge and Somerset Lodge, No. 76, in conjunction with Amity Lodge, conducted the funeral services of Bro. Andrew Crooks, a member of the latter Lodge. The music for this funeral was furnished by the Zanesville Harmonic Band, composed of seven pieces of brass and string instruments. The cost of this band was six dollars and a half, which was equally divided between Amity and La Fayette Lodges.

On August 30, the Entered Apprentice degree was conferred upon Rev. Amos Bartholomew, pastor of the St. John's Congregational Lutheran Church. Brother Bartholomew received the three symbolic degrees without charge, but, contrary to the rule in such cases, he became a zealous and devoted member of the Craft. He served in various offices in Zanesville Chapter and was its High Priest in 1841, 1842, and again in 1851. He was a charter member of Cyprus Commandery, No. 10, Knights Templar, and was honored with office in the Grand Commandery, Knights Templar, of Ohio.

November 19 is a memorable date in the annals of the Lodge. M∴W∴Bro. William J. Reese, Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Ohio, visited the Lodge and, by virtue of his high powers and prerogatives, conferred the three symbolic degrees upon Bro. George S. Moore.

Twenty-four meetings were held during the year and nine candidates received the degree of Master Mason, and two new members were added by affiliation.

On November 22, the fifteenth election of officers was held and those chosen were: Bro. Cornelius Moore, Worshipful Master; Bro. Asa R. Cassady, Senior Warden; Bro. Daniel Hattan, Junior Warden; Bro. Gerardus Wynkoop, Treasurer; Bro. James Cochran, Secretary; Bro. Amos Bartholomew, Senior Deacon; Bro. Thomas Nevitt, Junior Deacon, and Bro. Isaac M. Brown, Steward and Tyler.

These officers were installed December 6, the ceremonies being performed by Bro. John T. Fracker and Bro. Daniel Converse.

BRO. CORNELIUS MOORE

WORSHIPFUL MASTER

Thirty meetings were held during this year, but little transpired that is worthy of mention.

Both the Secretary and Tyler were guilty of gross carelessness in the performance of the duties for which they received compensation, and in consequence were severely reprimanded by the Worshipful Master.

On October 20, the Lodge assisted in the funeral services of Bro. Dudley W. Rhodes, a member and former Master of Amity Lodge.

Seven received the degree of Master Mason during the calendar year, and on November 13 the sixteenth election of officers was held.

The new officers consisted of Bro. John T. Arthur, Worshipful Master; Bro. Gerardus Wynkoop, Senior Warden; Bro.

Daniel Hattan, Junior Warden; Bro. Asa R. Cassady, Treasurer; Bro. William C. Scott, Secretary; Bro. Richard I. Peach, Senior Deacon; Bro. James Galigher, Junior Deacon, and Bro. John Printz, Steward and Tyler.

At the meeting held December 14 an invitation was extended to M.·.W.·.Bro. William J. Reese, Grand Master, and R.·.W.·.Bro. Michael Z. Kreider, Grand Marshal, to visit the Lodge and install the officers. Ten dollars were donated toward paying their traveling expenses.

The Secretary neglected to make any record of the result of this invitation or the meeting at which the officers were installed.

BRO. JOHN T. ARTHUR
WORSHIPFUL MASTER

Brother Arthur was a native of southern Ohio and was born about 1805. He was an attorney and came to Zanesville in 1830 and began to practice law. He was a man of considerable education and refinement, and one of the earliest advocates of temperance in Zanesville.

On May 28, 1846, as Brigadier-General of the Second Brigade, Fifteenth Division, O. N. G., he left Zanesville for the war with Mexico, participating in some of the fiercest battles of the campaign. Upon his return to this city, at the close of the war, he was appointed collector of the tolls of the Muskingum Improvement. In 1853, he left Zanesville and established himself at Keokuk, Iowa.

Brother Arthur was initiated an Entered Apprentice in La Fayette Lodge July 13, 1838; passed to the degree of Fellow Craft August 10, 1838, and raised to the degree of Master Mason September 7, 1838. He served the Lodge as Worshipful Master 1841 to 1845 inclusive, and again in 1849, without having served as Warden or in any other official capacity.

He was a member of Zanesville Chapter, No. 9, Royal Arch Masons, receiving the degrees of Mark Master and Past Master February 4, 1839, and Most Excellent Master and Royal Arch July 18, 1839. He served as Captain of Host 1841 to 1844 inclusive, and King in 1845.

It is not definitely known where he received the cryptic degrees. He was a charter member of Zanesville Council, No. 12, Royal and Select Masters, and its first Principal Conductor of Work, serving 1844 and 1845.

He received the Orders of Chivalry in Lancaster Commandery, No. 2, Knights Templar, becoming a charter member of Cyprus Commandery, No. 10, Knights Templar. He was the first Generalissimo of this Commandery, serving in 1849.

Although busied with manifold duties in the exercise of his private affairs, he was very active and deservedly popular in the Grand Bodies of Ohio.

He served as Grand Secretary of the Grand Lodge of Ohio in 1845 and 1846, relinquishing the office to enter the service of his country.

He died in February, 1855, at Keokuk, Iowa.

On April 19, suitable resolutions of sympathy were drafted by the Lodge in honor of our late President, William Henry Harrison, who died in office.

Little business of importance was transacted during this year: fifteen meetings were held and two were raised to the degree of Master Mason.

The seventeenth election was held December 3, and Bro. John T. Arthur was re-elected Worshipful Master. The other officers were: Bro. Daniel Hattan, Senior Warden; Bro. John W. Davis, Junior Warden; Bro. James Galigher, Treasurer; Bro. Cornelius Moore, Secretary; Bro. Thomas Launder, Senior Deacon; Bro. William Hunter, Junior Deacon, and Bro. John Printz, Steward and Tyler.

These officers were installed, December 27, by Bro. Amos Bartholomew, assisted by Bro. John Hall.

BRO. JOHN T. ARTHUR
WORSHIPFUL MASTER

On January 18, the M.·.W.·.Grand Master, Bro. William J. Reese, introduced a series of resolutions in the Lodge at Lancaster, of which he was a member, whereby he construed that the great Masonic virtue of temperance meant exactly what it said, and advocated that total abstinence from the use of alcoholic beverages be practiced by every Mason in Ohio. Whiskey being the favorite refreshment of the Lodge, the Brethren were very indignant over this action of the Grand Master. By almost an unanimous vote, it was declared an innovation in Masonry, and the Brethren present refused to even consider it.

On May 3, the question of erecting a building for the use of the Lodge was first agitated, and a Committee was appointed to investigate the project.

This Committee reported that the idea was impractical. considering the meager finances of the Lodge, and recommended that the money of the Lodge be loaned at six per cent interest. A joint meeting of Amity and La Fayette Lodges was held on August 6, in response to a request received from the Grand Master, R.·.W.·.Bro. William J. Reese, who was present and addressed the Brethren regarding the construction of a Grand Lodge hall at Lancaster.

Forty-three meetings were held by the Lodge this year, and a review of the year's work showed fourteen candidates raised and two admitted by affiliation.

The eighteenth election was held November 18, and the officers selected were: Bro. John T. Arthur, Worshipful Master; Bro. Daniel Hattan, Senior Warden; Bro. John W. Davis, Junior Warden; Bro. James Galigher, Treasurer; Bro. J. Y. Hopkins, Secretary; Bro. Thomas Launder, Senior Deacon; Bro. John A. Lemon, Junior Deacon; Bro. James Hattan, Steward and Tyler. At this meeting a resolution was passed to publish the names of all expelled members in the Zanesville newspapers.

The officers were installed on Christmas eve, the ceremonies being performed by Bro. Amos Bartholomew and Bro. Asa R. Cassady.

BRO. JOHN T. ARTHUR

WORSHIPFUL MASTER

In the minutes of May 26 we find the statement, "The Worshipful Master was instructed to secure the portrait of La Fayette, belonging to the Lodge." The meaning of this statement is rather ambiguous, and it is very doubtful that it referred to the lithograph of General La Fayette, now hanging in the ante-room of the Lodge.

Elaborate preparations were made for the celebration of St. John's Day, and eleven meetings were held, from May 2 to June 24.

At the meeting of June 14 all petitions then in the hands of the Secretary were declared to be cases of emergency and immediate action was taken thereon.

June 24, 1843, was a gala day in local Masonic circles, and the natal day of the patron saint of Freemasonry was celebrated with due pomp and ceremony.

The Grand Lodge of Ohio was present and occupied the post of honor in a procession composed of Amity Lodge, La Fayette Lodge, Zanesville Chapter, Royal Arch Masons, and Cyprus Commandery, Knights Templar. The line of march extended over the principal business streets and thence to the Presbyterian Church, where an able address was given by Rev. John N. Moffit. The expenses of the orator were borne by La Fayette Lodge, and one hundred dollars were donated for this purpose.

Thirteen new Master Masons were raised during the year and one admitted by affiliation.

The nineteenth election was held November 10, and the officers for 1844 consisted of Bro. John T. Arthur, Worshipful Master; Bro. Daniel Hattan, Senior Warden; Bro. Thomas Bell, Junior Warden; Bro. Austin Berry, Treasurer; Bro. James Cochran, Secretary; Bro. G. Nelson Cuming, Senior Deacon; Bro. George D. Palmer, Junior Deacon, and Bro. Thomas Launder, Steward and Tyler.

A public installation of these officers was held on Christmas night and each member of the Lodge was permitted to bring two other persons. The installing officers were Bro. John T. Fracker and Bro. Daniel Converse. The principal address of the evening was made by Bro. Cornelius Moore, while the remainder of the program consisted of vocal and instrumental music.

BRO. JOHN T. ARTHUR

Worshipful Master

On January 21, the Lodge conducted the funeral obsequies of Bro. Joseph A. McConnell, formerly Secretary of the Lodge.

On April 5, the Worshipful Master tendered his resignation to the Lodge, but they refused to accept it.

Prior to this time the Masonic Bodies of the city had retained their individuality while marching in processions, and in conducting funerals the expenses, in most cases, being divided. This practice was discontinued in 1844, owing to a disagreement between the two Lodges over the funeral of Bro. James Henderson, of Amity Lodge.

On May 3, a resolution was presented by Bro. Cornelius Moore: that,

Whereas, Misunderstandings have arisen in the past between two Masonic Bodies of Zanesville, relative to the order of conducting funeral ceremonies, which ought not to be among Masons, therefore, for the purpose of averting a reoccurrence of such an unfortunate state of things in the future, be it

Resolved, That the Worshipful Master appoint a Committee to meet with a like Committee from Amity and the Chapter, should they see fit to appoint a Committee, which joint Committee shall prepare for the adoption of their respective Lodges a uniform mode of procedure at Masonic funerals, conducted by either of these Bodies.

Bros. Cornelius Moore, Daniel Hattan, and Austin Berry were appointed to act as this Committee.

Like Committees were appointed by Amity Lodge and Zanesville Chapter, but each Lodge refused to make any concessions regarding the points in question and the conference resulted in failure.

On July 5, the Lodge received a petition from a number of Brethren who resided at Norwich, praying for assistance in establishing a Lodge at that place to be known as Malta Lodge. As they were unable to secure enough members for this purpose, Bros. John G. F. Holston and George D. Palmer, of La Fayette Lodge, permitted the use of their names as charter members of this new Lodge.

At the meeting of the Lodge, held on July 21, the Lodge was called to refreshment and did not resume labor until August 2, twelve days later.

Five new members were raised during the year.

On November 29, the twentieth election was held and Bro. John T. Arthur was elected for the fifth consecutive year as Worshipful Master. Other officers elected were: Bro. Daniel Hattan, Senior Warden; George D. Palmer, Junior Warden; Bro. Austin Berry, Treasurer; Bro. Imri Richards, Secretary; Bro. G. Nelson Cuming, Senior Deacon; Bro. Joseph W. Clayton, Junior Deacon, and Bro. Thomas Launder, Steward and Tyler.

These officers were installed by Bro. Cornelius Moore on December 21. The name of the other installing officer was not mentioned.

On December 27, the Lodge received a certificate for one hundred and eleven dollars, which was the amount that was expended by this Lodge toward building a Grand Lodge hall at Lancaster, including interest, at six per cent, from October.

This was the culmination of the movement that was unsuccessfully agitated in the Grand Lodge of Ohio for almost twenty years, to procure a permanent meeting place. As early as January, 1826, a Committee was selected by the Grand Lodge at their meeting in Columbus to act in conjunction with a like Committee to be appointed by the Grand Chapter, to inquire into the expediency of erecting a Masonic hall, for the use of the Grand Lodge and Grand Chapter.

It is interesting to note that in the report of this Committee, which was made at the Annual Communication of the succeeding year, they stated "that they had received concessions from four cities who were desirous of being the location of the building for the permanent meeting place of the Grand Bodies, viz., Cincinnati, Zanesville, Columbus, and Lancaster.

The communication received from the Masons of Zanesville was as follows:

The Brethren and citizens of Zanesville, provided the Grand Lodge Hall shall be located here, propose to give a site on the public square, and two thousand dollars in money, materials, and labor, toward the erection of the same, and the use of their hall until the Grand Lodge Hall is completed.

After deliberating upon this matter for several years, a convention was finally held in the month of June, 1838, to consider the project.

This convention was composed of representatives from the various Lodges throughout the State and, by a majority vote, it was resolved that it was expedient that a suitable Masonic edifice should be erected in the town of Lancaster, to comport with the character and dignity of the Institution. The plans for this building, which were later accepted, called for a structure, of Doric character, one hundred feet in length, seventy-three feet in width, and fifty feet in height.

The corner-stone was laid by the Grand Lodge of Ohio, October 18, 1841, and La Fayette Lodge was among the list of ten Lodges that participated in the ceremonies.

The elaborate design of this proposed structure and the excessive cost incident thereto was highly impractical, considering the conditions prevailing at the time.

Lodges throughout the State were struggling from the effect of the Morgan excitement, and this, coupled with the financial depression following the panic of 1837, rendered it impossible for them to secure the funds necessary for its completion. This building was never constructed, the entire project being abandoned.

BRO. JOHN T. ARTHUR

WORSHIPFUL MASTER

At the session of the Grand Lodge of Ohio, held on January 10, Bro. John T. Arthur was elected to the office of Grand Secretary.

No business of importance was transacted during the year, and but five candidates were raised to the degree of Master Mason.

The twenty-first election was held on November 21, and the following Brethren were elected to the various offices: Bro. Thomas Launder, Worshipful Master; Bro. John W. Thompson, Senior Warden; Bro. G. Nelson Cuming, Junior Warden; Bro. John A. Blair, Treasurer; Bro. Imri Richards, Secretary; Bro. Abraham P. Gorsuch, Senior Deacon; Bro. George W. Thompson, Junior Deacon, and Bro. William Wright, Steward and Tyler.

These officers were installed December 20, but the installing officers were not recorded.

BRO. THOMAS LAUNDER
WORSHIPFUL MASTER

Brother Launder was born at Chichester, England, May 14, 1817. The family emigrated to America when he was about twelve years of age, and shortly after their arrival located in this city. Brother Launder attended the public school and, after attaining his majority, entered the grocery business. For many years he conducted a grocery at the northwest corner of Main and First Streets, and during leisure hours entertained his friends with his masterful playing upon the cello, being an accomplished musician.

Brother Launder was united in marriage with Miss Lettie Ann Cargill, of this city, and to this union were born eight children—Clarence, Clare, Edward, Arelius, Alice, Charlotte, Julia, and Lettie, the last named having distinguished herself in her mastery of the violin.

Brother Launder was prominent in all the grades of Masonry and was highly proficient in the ritual of the various degrees. He was made a Mason in La Fayette Lodge, receiving the Entered Apprentice degree February 24, 1837; Fellow Craft, March 24, 1837, and Master Mason April 21, 1837.

He was active in the organization of Friendship Lodge, No. 103, at Dresden, Ohio, withdrawing his membership for a time to become a charter member, and was appointed its first Senior Deacon. At the first election, he was chosen Senior Warden. He was directly responsible for the organization of Wakatomica Lodge, No. 108, at West Carlisle, Ohio, and served as its first Worshipful Master. He then withdrew his membership and re-affiliated with La Fayette Lodge.

He served as Senior Deacon, 1842 and 1843; Steward and Tyler, 1844 and 1845, and Worshipful Master, 1846.

He received the degree of Past Master at a convocation of Past Masters, held January 4, 1841. The Mark Master, Most Excellent Master, and Royal Arch degrees were conferred in October, 1843, at Lancaster, by authority of a dispensation issued by the Grand High Priest and without the consent of Zanesville Chapter, with which he affiliated on June 7, 1847.

He served the Chapter as Grand Master of the Third Veil, 1848; Second Veil, 1849, and Captain of Host, 1854, 1855, and 1858.

He was a charter member of Cyprus Commandery, No. 10, Knights Templar, receiving his degrees at Lancaster.

During the early part of his career he was very active in the Grand Lodge of Ohio, and was frequently appointed to instruct Lodges regarding the proper exemplification of the Ritual.

He died January 20, 1900, and was buried in Greenwood Cemetery.

At the session of the Grand Lodge, Bro. John T. Arthur was re-elected to the office of Grand Secretary.

During the year the Lodge voted to retain the membership of Brother Arthur, who as General in command of the Second Brigade, Fifteenth Division of the State Militia, was called to serve in the Mexican War.

On September 5, the funeral services of Bro. J. Nelson Cuming were conducted by the Lodge, R.·.W.·.Bro. M. Z. Kreider, Senior Grand Warden of the Grand Lodge of Ohio, presiding.

The funeral services were conducted at the Episcopal Church, and the music was furnished by the German band.

Brother Cuming was an Attorney and was made a Mason in La Fayette Lodge, receiving all the degrees, June 23, 1843. He served the Lodge as Senior Deacon, 1844 and 1845; and at the time of his death was serving as Junior Warden.

Eight Master Masons were admitted by degrees during the year. Twenty-nine meetings were held, and the Annual Report showed a membership of thirty-seven.

The twenty-second election was held November 6, and the officers selected were: Bro. John W. Thompson, Worshipful Master; Bro. John Redmond, Senior Warden; Bro. Amos P. Josselyn, Junior Warden; Bro. John A. Blair, Treasurer; Bro. Imri Richards, Secretary; Bro. Abraham P. Gorsuch, Senior Deacon; Bro. William Keely, Junior Deacon, and Bro. Thomas Launder, Steward and Tyler.

These officers were installed November 10, but the names of the installing officers were not recorded.

On November 20, the Lodge purchased a sword for the use of the Tyler at a cost of four and one-half dollars.

Considerable dissatisfaction prevailed among the Brethren regarding the Lodge room, and on December 4, a committee was appointed to ascertain the cost of furnishing and maintaining a better one.

BRO. JOHN W. THOMPSON

WORSHIPFUL MASTER

Practically no information has been available regarding the life of this Brother, who at the very beginning of his administration was summoned to the higher Lodge above.

Brother Thompson was initiated an Entered Apprentice in La Fayette Lodge August 30, 1844; passed to the degree of Fellow Craft August 30, 1844, and raised to the degree of Master Mason September 27, 1844.

He served as Senior Warden 1846, was elected Worshipful Master November 6, 1846, and served until his death.

He was a member of Zanesville Chapter, No. 9, Royal Arch Masons, receiving the degrees as follows: Mark Master, November 4, 1844; Past and Most Excellent, December 25, 1844, and Royal Arch, December 26, 1844. He served as Grand Master of the first Veil in 1846.

He received the cryptic degrees in Zanesville Council, No. 12, Royal and Select Master, February 13, 1845, and at the time of his death was serving as Principal Conductor of Work.

Brother Thompson died on March 30, and a Special Communication was held that evening to take the necessary steps for a Masonic funeral.

Nineteen members of La Fayette Lodge and seven members of Amity Lodge were present. Committees were appointed from the joint membership of both Lodges and consisted of the following Brethren: Arrangements: Carson Porter, James A. Blair, Amos P. Josselyn, Abraham P. Gorsuch, and Israel Hoge; Music: Theobald Cappel and William D. Terry; Singers: Daniel Converse, Stephen R. Hosmer, and Amos P. Josselyn; Condolences: Alfred Merrick, George D. Palmer, and Abraham P. Gorsuch.

The funeral was held at ten A. M., Thursday, April 1, the Lodge assembling for this occasion in the hall of Amity Lodge, at Masons' Hall. The procession marched to the home of the deceased, in South Zanesville (Seventh Ward), and from there to the Putnam Presbyterian Church, where the funeral services were conducted. The place of interment is unknown, but was probably Woodlawn or Moxahala Cemeteries, no early records having been kept of either of these burial grounds. The marshals consisted of Bro. Daniel Converse, Bro. William D. Terry, and Bro. Carson Porter, while the following Brethren acted as pallbearers: Stephen R. Hosmer, George L. Shinnick, Adam Peters, Alfred Merrick, William Galigher, Thomas Bell, and William Lillibridge.

In April, the Committee appointed to secure new quarters for the Lodge rented the third floor of the building at the southeast corner of Main and Fifth Streets. This location was secured at an annual rental of sixty dollars, and the cost of repairing and furnishing it amounted to three hundred and twenty-seven dollars, which sum was considerably in excess of the amount in the Treasury at that time. This obstacle was overcome, however, through the never-failing generosity of Bishop Leonidas L. Hamline, who donated a large number of chairs and seventy-five dollars in cash for the use of the Lodge.

On October 19, the Grand Lodge of Ohio assembled in Zanesville, and the meetings were held in the hall of La Fayette Lodge, which at this time was the finest Lodge room in the city.

At this session, La Fayette Lodge was duly honored in the appointment of Bro. Thomas Bell as Senior Grand Deacon, and the appointment of Bro. J. Y. Hopkins, a former member, to the office of Grand Marshal.

A petition, signed by sixteen members of La Fayette Lodge, requesting permission to confer the three symbolic degrees upon Dr. Alfred Ball, the same evening, was presented to the M.·.W.·. Grand Master, William B. Thrall. Permission was granted, and upon the following evening, October 20, a meeting convened in Odd Fellows Hall, at which fifteen members and sixty-two visitors were present. The Grand Master presided, and in the course of his remarks stated his objections to exercising lightly the high prerogative, petitioned for in this case, of making a Mason at sight. He then gave his verbal assent, and the degrees were conferred.

Nine Master Masons were raised during the year, and on November 21 the twenty-third election was held and resulted in the choice of the following officers: Bro. John Redmond, Worshipful Master; Bro. Amos P. Josselyn, Senior Warden; Bro. George D. Palmer, Junior Warden; Bro. James A. Blair, Treasurer; Bro. Imri Richards, Secretary; Bro. J. A. Dutro, Senior Deacon; Bro. Frederick Deiterich, Junior Deacon, and Bro. William Wright, Steward and Tyler.

These officers were installed December 2, the ceremonies being performed by Bro. George L. Shinnick and Bro. Levi Thorn.

BRO. JOHN REDMOND

WORSHIPFUL MASTER

Brother Redmond was the proprietor of a tavern, situated on the south side of West Main Street, between Pine Street and Luck Avenue. Details regarding his early life are lacking, but he is still remembered by some of the oldest residents of Zanesville as a man of excellent character, a jovial disposition, and a friend of everyone.

Although well past the prime of life, Brother Redmond was very active in all the grades of York Rite Masonry, being honored with office in both the Grand and Subordinate Bodies of the Order.

He was initiated an Entered Apprentice in La Fayette Lodge June 4, 1841; passed to the degree of Fellow Craft July 9, 1841, and raised to the degree of Master Mason August 6, 1841. He served as Senior Warden, 1847, and Worshipful Master, 1848, 1850, and 1851.

He was a member of Zanesville Chapter, No. 9, Royal Arch Masons, receiving the degree of Mark Master April 4, 1842; Past Master, May 2, 1842; Most Excellent Master, June 6, 1842, and Royal Arch, July 28, 1842. He served the Chapter as Grand Master of Third Veil, 1845; Captain of Host, 1847; and King, 1848, 1849, and 1850. He received the cryptic degrees in Zanesville Council, No. 12, Royal and Select Masters, March 15, 1844, serving as Deputy Illustrious Master 1846 to 1851 inclusive, and Thrice Illustrious Master, 1858.

He received the chivalric degrees in Cyprus Commandery, No. 10, Knights Templar, including the Illustrious Order of the Red Cross, Knight Templar, and Knight of Malta, January 5, 1849. He served as Junior Warden, 1850; Senior Warden, 1853; Captain General, 1855 and 1856, and Generalissimo, 1851, 1857, and 1858.

In the Grand Commandery, Knights Templar, of Ohio, he served as Grand Sword Bearer, 1851, and was Grand Standard Bearer in 1850. On the morning of March 28, 1859, he was found dead at the west approach to the old Y bridge, on West Main Street. He was laid to rest in Greenwood Cemetery.

On January 20, candidates were required for the first time to be examined in open Lodge, testing their proficiency in the esoteric work.

Thirty meetings were held during the year. Ten Master Masons were raised and two admitted to membership, which brought the total membership up to fifty-two.

On November 2, the twenty-fourth election was held and Bro. John T. Arthur, who had recently returned from the Mexican War, was elected Worshipful Master. Other officers were: Bro. Amos P. Josselyn, Senior Warden; Bro. Robert H. Cotton, Junior Warden; Bro. Richard I. Peach, Treasurer; Bro. Imri Richards, Secretary; Bro. James D. Mitchell, Senior Deacon; Bro. William Wright, Junior Deacon, and Bro. Thomas Launder, Steward and Tyler.

Bro. Amos Bartholomew was appointed Chaplain at this time, being the first person to serve in that capacity.

Following the election, the officers were immediately installed by Bro. Hugh J. Jewett, the name of his assistant having been omitted in the record.

On November 16, in response to a communication from the Grand Master relative to the appointment of a delegate to the meeting at Sidney, to consider the revision and standardization of the Ritual, Bro. Thomas Launder was selected to represent both Amity and La Fayette Lodges at this meeting.

On December 7, permission was granted to Cyprus Commandery, No. 10, Knights Templar, to occupy the hall jointly with La Fayette Lodge at an annual rental of thirty dollars.

BRO. JOHN T. ARTHUR
WORSHIPFUL MASTER

On February 6, the funeral services of Bro. J. A. Dutro, a former officer, were conducted at the Seventh Street Methodist Church; burial in Greenwood Cemetery.

Forty-one meetings were held and sixteen were raised to the degree of Master Mason during this year.

The Lodge was honored at the meeting of the Grand Lodge, in the selection of Bro. Robert H. Cotton as Grand Marshal, and Bro. George D. Palmer as Junior Grand Deacon.

The twenty-fifth election was held November 1, and resulted in the choice of the following officers: Bro. John Redmond, Worshipful Master; Bro. Robert H. Cotton, Senior Warden; Bro. William Barton, Junior Warden; Bro. Jacob Thorn, Treasurer; Bro. Isaac M. Brown, Secretary; Bro. Daniel Hattan, Senior Deacon; Bro. A. C. Romine, Junior Deacon, and Bro. James D. Mitchell, Steward and Tyler.

These officers were installed November 3 by Bro. Hugh J. Jewett, assisted by Bro. Josiah Copeland.

On December 6, the Lodge recommended the institution of a Lodge at Irville, to be known as "Union Lodge."

BRO. JOHN REDMOND

Worshipful Master

Little business of historical value was transacted during this year. Twenty-seven meetings were held. Ten were raised to the degree of Master Mason and two were admitted to membership.

Bro. Robert H. Cotton and Bro. George D. Palmer were reappointed to the offices of Grand Marshal and Junior Grand Deacon, respectively.

The twenty-sixth election was held November 7, and the officers selected were: Bro. John Redmond, Worshipful Master; Bro. Robert H. Cotton, Senior Warden; Bro. Amos P. Josselyn, Junior Warden; Bro. John A. Blair, Treasurer; Bro. William Shaffer, Secretary; Bro. Daniel Hattan, Senior Deacon; Bro. Christopher Goetz, Junior Deacon, and Bro. James D. Mitchell, Steward and Tyler.

These officers were installed December 5, Bro. Robert H. Sedgwick acting as the installing officer.

BRO. JOHN REDMOND

Incorporated in the minutes of July 3 is the following preamble:

Bro. D. W. Rhodes, of Delaware County, has, through Bro. John T. Arthur, presented a sword, in consideration of his great attachment to the tenets of Masonry and the friends of his father, Dr. Dudley W. Rhodes, who stood not only a faithful sentinel upon the outer walls, but zealously and honestly administered at the holy altar.

The Lodge was again honored in the appointment of Bro. George D. Palmer to the office of Junior Grand Deacon, and Bro. Cornelius Moore, a former member, to the office of Grand Steward.

Thirty-three meetings were held this year. Twelve Master Masons were raised and one admitted to membership by dimit.

The twenty-seventh election was held November 7, and resulted in the selection of Bro. Robert H. Sedgwick as Worshipful Master; Bro. William Barton, Senior Warden; Bro. James Mitchell, Junior Warden; Bro. John A. Blair, Treasurer; Bro. William Shaffer, Secretary; Bro. Robert Wallwork, Senior Deacon; Bro. Christopher Goetz, Junior Deacon, and Bro. John Moore, Steward and Tyler.

These officers were installed November 17 by Bro. Hugh J. Jewett.

BRO. ROBERT H. SEDGWICK

WORSHIPFUL MASTER

Brother Sedgwick was a Baptist minister and one of the most zealous Masters that ever presided over the Lodge. He was a son of the Rev. William Sedgwick, and a nephew of Rev. George C. Sedgwick, third Master of the Lodge.

Brother Sedgwick was twice married, his first wife being a Miss Stewart; and to this union were born four children, two sons and two daughters. His second wife was a sister of Samuel S. (Sunset) Cox, and to this union two daughters were born.

Brother Sedgwick affiliated with La Fayette Lodge September 5, 1850, on a dimit from Cambridge Lodge, No. 66, of Cambridge, Ohio, having served as its first Master under the present charter. He served as Master of La Fayette Lodge, 1852, 1853, and 1860.

He received the degree of Past Master in Zanesville Chapter, No. 9, Royal Arch Masons, December 22, 1843, and later became a member of this Chapter, receiving the remaining degrees as follows: Mark Master, January 12, 1852; Most Excellent Master, January 26, 1852, and Royal Arch, March 12, 1852.

He served the Chapter as Grand Master of the Third Veil, 1853, and King in 1858.

He received the chivalric degrees in Cyprus Commandery, No. 10, Knights Templar, as follows: Illustrious Order of the Red Cross, March 17, 1852; Orders of the Temple and Malta, March 31, 1852. He served the Commandery as Prelate for fifteen consecutive years, from 1853 to 1867, inclusive.

In the Grand Commandery, Knights Templar, of Ohio, he served as Grand Prelate for four consecutive years, from 1853 to 1856, inclusive.

He died during the early eighties, and was buried in a ministerial lot in Greenwood Cemetery.

Thirty meetings were held during the year, but little important business was transacted and only five received the Master Mason degree.

At the session of the Grand Lodge, Bro. George D. Palmer was appointed Grand Pursuivant.

The twenty-eighth election was held on November 4, and these officers were immediately installed by Bro. William Shinnick, assisted by Bro. John Redmond.

Those selected were: Bro. Robert H. Sedgwick, Worshipful Master; Bro. Amos P. Josselyn, Senior Warden; Bro. Daniel Hattan, Junior Warden; Bro. John A. Blair, Treasurer; Bro. William Shaffer, Secretary; Bro. Lewis Ferrell, Senior Deacon; Bro. Asa Ridge, Junior Deacon, and Bro. John Moore, Steward and Tyler.

BRO. ROBERT H. SEDGWICK

Worshipful Master

Twenty-three meetings were held this year and six were raised to the degree of Master Mason. The Annual Report to the Grand Lodge showed a membership of fifty-eight.

The twenty-ninth election was held November 3, and Bro. Daniel Hattan was elected Worshipful Master; Bro. John G. F. Holston, Senior Warden; Bro. William Hunter, Junior Warden; Bro. John A. Blair, Treasurer; Bro. William Shaffer, Secretary; Bro. Lewis Moore, Senior Deacon; Bro. Asa Ridge, Junior Deacon; Bro. John Moore, Steward and Tyler.

Immediately after the election, the officers were installed by Bro. Robert H. Sedgwick, assisted by Bro. John Redmond.

BRO. DANIEL HATTAN

WORSHIPFUL MASTER

Brother Hattan was born at Long Green, Maryland, September 30, 1815. He attended school at that place until he was sixteen, when he started west to make his fame and fortune. He arrived in Zanesville, January 9, 1832, and secured employment at Dare's Mill, a five-story brick building, located at the corner of Market and Third Streets. During a hurricane the following spring the entire fifth floor of this structure was blown off, suspending the operations of the mill and incidentally throwing young Hattan out of employment. He then secured employment with a brick mason, and after mastering this trade, became a contractor of considerable importance. In partnership with Bro. William Hall, he secured the contract for the Masonic Hall, on Market Street, which still stands as a monument to his skill as a builder. He served as city Councilman for twelve years; also serving the county as Commissioner and Infirmary Director.

Brother Hattan was made a Mason in La Fayette Lodge, receiving the Entered Apprentice degree March 24, 1837; Fellow Craft, April 18, 1837, and Master Mason, May 31, 1837. He served as Senior Deacon, 1838, 1850, and 1851; Junior Warden, 1840 and 1841; Senior Warden, 1842, 1843, 1844, and 1845; Worshipful Master, 1854, 1857, 1858, 1859, 1865, 1866, 1876, and 1877, serving eight terms over a period of twenty-four years.

He received all his capitular degrees November 21, 1839, in Zanesville Chapter, No. 9, Royal Arch Masons, serving as Royal Arch Captain, 1840, 1841, 1842, 1843, and 1844; and Captain of the Host, 1845.

He received the cryptic degrees in Zanesville Council, No. 12, Royal and Select Masters, March 12, 1868.

He received the chivalric degrees in Cyprus Commandery, No. 10, Knights Templar, April 30, 1849, and served as its Eminent Commander, 1864, 1865, 1869, and 1870.

He died June 30, 1889, and his remains were laid to rest in the family vault in Woodlawn Cemetery.

Trafficking in alcoholic beverages was not considered a Masonic misdemeanor in 1854. On April 6, a resolution was presented by Bro. John G. F. Holston whereby the retailing of ardent spirits would be considered a Masonic offense. This resolution passed by a vote of twelve to three, but at the following meeting the resolution was reconsidered and the former action rescinded by a vote of twenty-two to nine.

Thirty-two meetings were held during this year, and as a result of the year's work twelve received the Master Mason degree and four were admitted to membership. This was the largest gain in membership the Lodge had enjoyed up to this time. The thirtieth election was held November 2, and resulted in the choice of the following officers: Bro. John G. F. Holston, Worshipful Master; Bro. Lewis Moore, Senior Warden; Bro. John W. Davis, Junior Warden; Bro. John A. Blair, Treasurer; Bro. William Shaffer, Secretary; Bro. L. F. C. Owings, Senior Deacon; Bro. John Goldsworthy, Junior Deacon, and Bro. William Barton, Steward and Tyler.

Immediately following the election, the officers were installed by Bro. Daniel Hattan.

BRO. JOHN G. F. HOLSTON

WORSHIPFUL MASTER

Brother Holston was born in Hamburg, Germany, in the year 1809. His father was a physician and the son earnestly desired to embrace the same profession. This desire did not meet with the approbation of his parents, yet, despite their strenuous objections, he remained steadfast in his choice. He ran away at an early age and, after securing passage to England, worked for a time in a chemical factory. But young Holston was of a roving disposition, so he left England and sailed for America, landing in Louisiana, where he resided for a year. He then sailed for the Orient, traveled throughout Asia and the East Indies, and, before returning to this country, visited many foreign countries. Upon his return to America, he landed at Philadelphia, during an epidemic of cholera, and became a nurse in one of the hospitals. He attended a medical college at Cleveland; and upon graduating from this institution, located in Zanesville and began the practice of medicine. In 1857, he located in Washington, D. C., and accepted a professorship in the National Medical College. This position he held at the outbreak of the Civil War, when he became an army surgeon and was promoted to the position of medical director on the staff of General Ulysses S. Grant. At the close of the war he again established himself in Zanesville, where he remained until the inauguration of President Grant, again removing to Washington to become his personal physician and at the same time holding a professorship in the Georgetown Medical College.

Brother Holston received his Masonic degrees before coming to Zanesville. He affiliated with La Fayette Lodge August 12, 1843, and, upon leaving the city, withdrew his membership. He reaffiliated with the Lodge December 23, 1852, serving as Senior Warden, 1854, and Worshipful Master, 1855, 1856, and 1868.

He received the capitular degrees in Zanesville Chapter, No. 9, Royal Arch Masons, receiving the degree of Mark Master March 29, 1841; Past Master, April 5, 1841; Most Excellent Master, August 16, 1841, and Royal Arch, June 23, 1843. He dimitted November 3, 1845, reaffiliated September 1, 1856, and again dimitted July 4, 1859. He served as High Priest of the Chapter in 1858.

It is probable that he received the chivalric degrees while residing in Washington. He affiliated with Cyprus Commandery, No. 10, Knights Templar, May 13, 1851.

Brother Holston ranks high in the list of our most distinguished members, and throughout his busy and momentous life was an active participant in its endeavors and honored and beloved by all who knew him.

He died, May 1, 1874, after a long and painful illness, and his funeral was one of the largest ever conducted in Zanesville. His remains were interred in Woodlawn Cemetery.

Forty-three meetings were held this year and seventeen received the degree of Master Mason.

The thirty-first election was held November 1, and the officers elected were: Bro. John G. F. Holston, Worshipful Master; Bro. John W. Davis, Senior Warden; Bro. Edward B. Duvall, Junior Warden; Bro. Austin Berry, Treasurer; Bro. William Shaffer, Secretary; Bro. Richard Crowther, Senior Deacon; Bro. Charles Albrecht, Junior Deacon, and Bro. William Wright, Steward and Tyler.

These officers were installed on November 15.

On December 6, the Lodge voted in favor of a new Lodge to be located at Duncan Falls.

BRO. JOHN G. F. HOLSTON
WORSHIPFUL MASTER

Considerable dissatisfaction had been manifested by the Brethren for some time, owing to poor accommodations afforded by the city in the way of meeting places. After more than half a century of Masonry in Zanesville, we find Amity Lodge, Zanesville Chapter, and Zanesville Council occupying Masons' Hall on the third floor of the old Academy, and La Fayette Lodge and Cyprus Commandery occupying the third floor of the building at the southeast corner of Main and Fifth Streets. These rooms were both inappropriate for the exemplification of degree work, and as the Masonic Bodies had enjoyed a steady growth in membership, it now became necessary to acquire more commodious quarters. The room occupied by La Fayette Lodge had gradually increased in rent, from an initial cost of thirty dollars per annum to seventy-five dollars. The Lodge was already in possession of a lot at the northwest corner of Market and Fourth Streets, and numerous committees had been appointed by it to investigate the merits of the various propositions which had been submitted, while the Brethren patiently waited in anticipation of the time, that a structure could be erected to house the entire Craft. A proposition was presented August 1 by Bro. Thomas Bell, who stated "that he was contemplating the construction of a two-story frame building, forty by seventy feet, to be used for storage purposes, and, if the Masons so desired, a third story would be added at a cost of three thousand dollars.

The Committees appointed to investigate this latest proposal declared it to be impractical.

The Grand Lodge of Ohio held their Annual Session in this city, convening at Nevitt and Dixon's Hall, on the northwest corner of Main and Seventh Streets, October 21, 1856. On the day following, the Master Mason degree was exemplified for the benefit of the Grand Lodge, and was presided over by M ∴ W ∴ Bro. William Fielding, Grand Master.

La Fayette Lodge was honored at this meeting in the appointment of Bro. Lewis Moore to the office of Grand Steward.

Twenty-four meetings were held this year, but the Master Mason degree was only conferred upon two candidates.

On November 6, the thirty-second election was held and resulted in the choice of Bro. Daniel Hattan as Worshipful Master. The other officers were: Bro. Lewis Moore, Senior Warden; Bro. Imri Richards, Junior Warden; Bro. Austin Berry, Treasurer; Bro. William Shaffer, Secretary; Bro. Archibald M. Huston, Senior Deacon; Bro. James D. Wilbur, Junior Deacon, and Bro. William Wright, Steward and Tyler.

These officers were installed, November 20, by Bro. John G. F. Holston, assisted by Bro. John Redmond.

Chapter III

FIRST MASONIC TEMPLE

1857

BRO. DANIEL HATTAN

Worshipful Master

The building of a Masonic Temple was the principal topic of conversation in Masonic circles these days, and after a long and continued agitation of the question, it appeared to the more optimistic of the Brethren that what had formerly been but a vision was now about to assume a happy reality.

Plans were now going steadily forward, several sites having been offered, and on May 6, Bros. William Galigher, Charles W. Potwin, Mark Lowdan, Thomas Bell, John C. Hazlett, and William Schultz organized the Masonic Hall Association. The following day, articles of incorporation were filed with the Secretary of State, the capital stock being fixed at twenty-five thousand dollars, divided into one thousand shares, with a par value of twenty-five dollars.

The site selected was at the northwest corner of Market and Fourth Street, immediately adjoining the old Academy and upon the lot already owned by La Fayette Lodge.

The contract was awarded to Bro. William Hall and Bro. Daniel Hattan, both members of La Fayette Lodge.

It was decided to appoint two members to represent the Lodge, one to act as trustee and one to serve upon the Building Committee.

The corner-stone was laid July 4, and marks an epoch in Zanesville Masonry. The ceremonies are vividly described in an article written by Bro. James S. Reeves, who acted as Grand Secretary on this occasion, and printed in the Masonic Review as follows:

On the anniversary of our National Independence, A. D. 1857, A. L. 5857, the corner-stone of a new Masonic Temple was laid, with imposing and solemn ceremonies, in the city of Zanesville. At an early hour the cannon pealed from the heights of Putnam, and busy feet began to tread the streets of the city. Every mode of conveyance was put into requisition, and delegation after delegation of the Craft continued to arrive. The railroad trains were plethoric of human freight, and the beautiful steamer, "Charley Bowen," commanded by Sir Knight Dexter, crammed to her full capacity with the Brethren of the Muskingum Valley, arrived in due time. From when the dawn appeared until the sun arose in the East, no cloud appeared to intercept its cheering beam; the air was pure and balmy, and all things conspired to promise a glorious day. And a glorious day it was, for patriotism and philanthropy went hand in hand. By nine o'clock the city was thronged by a multitude of radiant and happy faces. The various Bodies of Freemasons assembled as follows: The Master Masons at Odd Fellows Hall; Royal Arch Masons at Amity Lodge; Knights Templar at La Fayette Lodge. The Grand Lodge of Ohio assembled at Odd Fellows Hall as follows: Meredith D. Brock as Grand Master; S. H. Harbaugh as Deputy Grand Master; M. Gaston as Senior Grand Warden; M. Smalley as Junior Grand Warden; Thomas Bell as Grand Treasurer; James S. Reeves as Grand Secretary; William B. Thrall as Grand Orator; Robert H. Sedgwick, Grand Chaplain; George Webster as Grand Marshal; — Warfield as Grand Senior Deacon; John McNutt as Grand Junior Deacon, and ——— Campbell as Grand Tyler.

The Grand Lodge was opened in Ample Form. At half-past one o'clock precisely, a procession was formed under the direction of Bro. A. C. Ross, Chief Marshal, assisted by Bros. T. C. Hopkins, James D. Sturges, and E. B. Duvall. The Grand Officers and the Architect were then received, and repaired to the spot in procession, the Zanesville band playing a grand march, The joists had been laid for the basement floor of the new hall. and these were securely boarded over for the accommodation of the Craft and other spectators of the exercises. A spacious and comfortable platform was thus formed. On the east side a platform was erected for the accommodation of the Grand Officers, and to the west of it was placed the music. On arriving at the ground the escort halted, and opening right and left, faced inward, and moved to the platform in inverted order, passing under a magnificent arch of evergreen, which had been erected and adorned with appropriate emblems and beautiful flowers. Silence having been proclaimed, an eloquent prayer was offered by Rev. Bro. Robert H. Sedgwick, Grand Chaplain. The Brethren then sang, "Round the Spot, Moriah's Hill," accompanied by the entire orchestra.

The Right Worshipful Meredith D. Brock, as Grand Master, then proclaimed to the Craft the contents about to be placed in the corner-stone, as follows: Different coins of the United States; Zanesville Daily Courier; Zanesville Weekly Gazette; Zanesville Aurora and Weekly Times; Scientific American for July; Freemasons Magazine for July (C. W. Moore); Masonic Review for July (Cornelius Moore); Proceedings of the Grand Lodge of Ohio, from 1808 to 1847, inclusive; By-laws and list of officers of Amity Lodge, No. 5; By-laws and list of officers of La Fayette Lodge, No. 79; also of Zanesville Royal Arch Chapter, No. 9, and Cyprus Encampment, No. 10; a small piece of stone from Solomon's Temple; Constitution, By-laws, and list of officers of the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Ohio. The Right Worshipful Grand Master then left his seat and, accompanied by the Brethren who carried the Square, Level, and Plumb, descended from the platform and approached the corner-stone.

The Right Worshipful Grand Master, assisted by the operative workmen, laid the corner-stone in its bed. The Architect presented a trowel to the Grand Master, who spread cement upon the stone, applied successively the Square, Level, and Plumb in their proper position and pronounced it to be "well formed, true, and trusty."

The gold and silver vessels having been duly presented to the Grand Master, he poured the Corn, Wine, and Oil, which they contained, upon the stone and delivered an impressive prayer. He then struck the stone three times with the mallet, and the public Grand Honors were given.

The various implements of architecture were then delivered to the Architect, and he was intrusted with the superintendence and direction of the work. The Grand Master then reascended the platform and resumed his station, after which an oration was delivered by Past Grand Master William B. Thrall, Grand Orator, replete with history and Masonic truth and beauty, which was listened to by the assembled multitude with the most profound attention. This was followed by a Masonic song, after which the benediction was pronounced by the Grand Chaplain and the procession was again formed and proceeded to Main Street. The Grand Lodge, Knights Templar, Royal Arch Masons, and Master Masons were then conducted to their respective places of meeting by the Marshals and the Grand Lodge closed in Ample Form. Thus closed a bright day in the annals of Masonry.

Five received the degree of Master Mason during the year, and on November 5 the thirty-third election was held, resulting in the election of Bro. Daniel Hattan as Worshipful Master; Bro. Lewis Moore, Senior Warden; Bro. James D. Wilbur, Junior Warden; Bro. Austin Berry, Treasurer; Bro. William Shaffer, Secretary; Bro. Thomas Halpin, Senior Deacon; Bro. John J. Kemmerer, Junior Deacon, and Bro. Theodore Schwabe, Steward and Tyler.

These officers were installed on December 17, with the exception of Bro. Theodore Schwabe, Tyler- and Steward-elect, who refused to be installed owing to charges having been preferred against him, and Bro. William Wright held over.

BRO. DANIEL HATTAN
WORSHIPFUL MASTER

Bro. Theodore Schwabe was acquitted of all charges at the meeting of February 18.

The first meeting in the new Temple was the Stated Communication of La Fayette Lodge, April 1, 1858. Only stated meetings were held during April, May, and June, and not until July 8 was any degree exemplified in the new hall by this Lodge. On that date, the Master Mason degree was conferred upon Bro. Mark C. Bowlby, a Fellow Craft of Lewistown Lodge, No. 203, of Lewistown, Pennsylvania.

Bro. Theodore Schwabe died August 5, and was buried by the Lodge with Masonic honors.

Twenty-seven meetings were held; five were raised to the Master Mason degree, and one admitted to membership.

The thirty-fourth election was held November 4, and Bro. Daniel Hattan was again chosen Worshipful Master. Others elected were: Bro. Thomas C. Hopkins, Senior Warden; Bro. Archibald M. Huston, Junior Warden; Bro. Austin Berry, Treasurer; Bro. William Shaffer, Secretary; Bro. Thomas Halpin, Senior Deacon; Bro. William H. Hattan, Junior Deacon, and Bro. William Wright, Steward and Tyler.

The installation of these officers was held November 18, the ceremonies being performed by Bro. William M. Shinnick and Bro. Imri Richards.

BRO. DANIEL HATTAN
Worshipful Master

The Secretary, up to this time, had received as compensation for his manifold duties the sum of twelve dollars a year. On February 17, the By-laws were amended to increase the salary of the Secretary to one dollar per meeting.

On March 29, the Lodge conducted the funeral ceremonies of Bro. John Redmond, a Past Master of the Lodge.

These were trying times throughout the entire country. The shadow of impending war had already cast its gloom over the city. Fraternal affairs were weighed down by other matters more vital to the community. Twice during the year, the Lodge was compelled to borrow money to meet its liabilities, and the rate of interest had increased to ten per cent.

Only eighteen meetings were held during the year, and but four names were added to the roster.

The report of the Finance Committee showed a deficit of five dollars and forty-two cents.

The thirty-fifth election was held November 3, and Bro. Daniel Hattan was elected Worshipful Master, but refused to serve, and Bro. Robert H. Sedgwick was the second choice of the Brethren. Bro. Lewis Moore was elected Senior Warden; Bro. Samuel Elliott, Junior Warden; Bro. Austin Berry, Treasurer; Bro. William Shaffer, Secretary; Bro. William H. Hattan, Senior Deacon; Bro. Thomas Bassett, Junior Deacon, and Bro. William Wright, Steward and Tyler.

These officers were installed, November 9, by Bro. William M. Shinnick, assisted by Bro. Daniel Hattan.

BRO. ROBERT H. SEDGWICK
Worshipful Master

On April 12, the Lodge conducted the funeral of Bro. Hezekiah Allison, a former officer of the Lodge, but at the time of his death was unaffiliated. He requested a Masonic funeral and, after considerable debate, the Lodge decided to grant this last request.

Considerable business was transacted during this year, but practically nothing of importance taken from a historical standpoint. Ten received the Master Mason degree and one was admitted to membership.

On November 1, the thirty-sixth election was held, resulting in the choice of the following officers: Bro. Imri Richards, Worshipful Master; Bro. John Dixon, Senior Warden; Bro. Archibald M. Huston, Junior Warden; Bro. Austin Berry, Treasurer; Bro. William Shaffer, Secretary; Bro. William H. Hattan, Senior Deacon; Bro. Lewis Moore, Junior Deacon, and Bro. William Wright, Steward and Tyler.

At this meeting the By-laws were revised, changing the annual meeting and election of officers from the stated meeting in November until the stated meeting of December.

These officers were installed, November 15, by Bro. Robert H. Sedgwick, assisted by Bro. J. B. H. Bratshaw.

BRO. IMRI RICHARDS

WORSHIPFUL MASTER

Brother Richards was born at Winchester, Virginia, in 1811, and, like many of his predecessors, came to Zanesville while still a boy. He was a printer by trade, learning the rudiments of the business in the composing room of the Zanesville Gazette, where he was later employed for several years. In partnership with Hon. Edward Ball, he published the Zanesville Courier until January 1, 1853, retiring to become Deputy Auditor of Muskingum County. He had already served as Auditor in 1841, filling the unexpired term of a former Auditor, who died in office. After serving two years as Deputy Auditor, he was elected Auditor, which position he filled at various times until 1872.

Brother Richards was made a Mason in La Fayette Lodge, receiving the degree of Entered Apprentice April 5, 1844; Fellow Craft, May 3, 1844, and Master Mason, June 7, 1844.

He served as Secretary of the Lodge eight years, from 1845 to 1849 inclusive, and from 1865 to 1867 inclusive; and Worshipful Master in 1861.

He was a member of Zanesville Chapter, No. 9, Royal Arch Masons, receiving the Mark Master degree August 8, 1856; Past Master, August 12, 1856; Most Excellent Master, August 20, 1856, and Royal Arch, August 27, 1856; serving as Grand Master of the First Veil, 1861; Scribe, 1860 and 1864, and Secretary, 1865, 1866, 1867, 1868, and 1869.

He received the degrees of Royal and Select Master in Zanesville Council, No. 12, Royal and Select Masters, October 17, 1856, and served as Principal Conductor of Work, 1860 to 1864 inclusive; and Recorder, 1865 to 1869 inclusive.

He received his chivalric degrees in Cyprus Commandery, No. 10, Knights Templar, receiving the Red Cross degree October 15, 1856; Knight Templar and Knight of Malta, December 9, 1856.

He died May 9, 1879, and his funeral was conducted by La Fayette Lodge and Cyprus Commandery; burial in Greenwood Cemetery.

The returns made to the Grand Lodge this year show that the Lodge had a membership of eighty in good standing. The dues of all soldiers in the Civil War were remitted.

Five received the Master Mason degree, and twenty-six meetings were held this year. On December 5, the thirty-seventh election was held, and resulted in the election of Bro. Archibald M. Huston as Worshipful Master; Bro. James Van Winkle, Senior Warden; Bro. Thomas Halpin, Junior Warden; Bro. John P. Ford, Treasurer; Bro. William Shaffer, Secretary; Bro. Howard Culbertson, Senior Deacon; Bro. John E. Evans, Junior Deacon, and William Wright, Steward and Tyler.

The installation was held December 12, the officers being installed by Bro. Imri Richards and Bro. Thomas Webb. During this month the petition of Col. Clement F. Steele, of the Sixty-second Regiment, O. V. I., was received, declared a case of emergency, balloted upon, and one degree conferred the same evening.

BRO. ARCHIBALD MARSHALL HUSTON

Worshipful Master

Brother Huston was born April 10, 1824. The place of his birth is not definitely known, but was probably in this city. During his early life he was engaged in various occupations, including cabinet work and chair making, his place of business being on the west side of Fourth Street, between Market and North Streets. He later engaged in the insurance business, continuing in this for many years. In 1875, he became President of the Union Bank.

He received the Entered Apprentice degree in La Fayette Lodge June 11, 1855; Fellow Craft, June 21, 1855, and Master Mason, July 5, 1855. He served as Senior Deacon, 1857; Junior Warden, 1859 and 1861; Worshipful Master, 1862.

He was a member of Zanesville Chapter, No. 9, Royal Arch Masons, receiving the Mark Master degree August 26, 1867; Past and Most Excellent Masters' degrees, November 11, 1867, and Royal Arch degree, November 18, 1867.

He received the cryptic degrees in Zanesville Council, No. 12, Royal and Select Masters, February 17, 1868. He later withdrew his membership, reaffiliating December 11, 1879. He served the Council as Recorder in 1880, 1881, and 1882.

He received the chivalric degrees in Cyprus Commandery, No. 10, Knights Templar, as follows: Illustrious Order of the Red Cross, April 14, 1868; Knight Templar and Knight of Malta, April 28, 1868.

He served the Commandery as Recorder, 1878 to 1881 inclusive.

He died July 19, 1898, and his remains were laid to rest in Woodlawn Cemetery.

A new Ritual was adopted this year and during the week of June 19, meetings were held each night for the purpose of receiving instruction.

On July 3, Bros. James Hattan and John Hobbs presented the Lodge with an engraving of General La Fayette, which is still in its possession.

Nineteen meetings were held. Seven received the Master Mason degree and two were admitted to membership during this year. The Annual Report of the year shows an increase of eight members, making a total of eighty-eight in good standing.

On December 3, the Lodge conducted the funeral services of its oldest member, Bro. John Hall, a Past Master and charter member, who had held continuous membership for thirty-seven years.

The thirty-eighth election was held December 4, resulting in the election of Bro. John Dixon as Worshipful Master; Bro. James Beardsley, Senior Warden; Bro. William Pringle, Junior Warden; Bro. John P. Ford, Treasurer; Bro. William Shaffer, Secretary; Bro. Joshua Butler, Senior Deacon; Bro. Thomas Bassett, Junior Deacon, and Bro. William Wright, Steward and Tyler.

On December 18, these officers were installed by Bro. Imri Richards, assisted by Bro. Daniel Hattan.

BRO. JOHN DIXON

WORSHIFPUL MASTER

Brother Dixon was one of the early constables of Zanesville, and for a few months during 1866 was Postmaster of Putnam. Nothing is known regarding his life.

He was initiated an Entered Apprentice in this Lodge June 16, 1857; passed to the degree of Fellow Craft June 25, 1857; and raised a Master Mason July 1, 1857.

He served the Lodge as Senior Warden. 1861. and Worshipful Master, 1863 and 1864. He withdrew his membership August 2, 1866.

Eighteen meetings were held in 1863, and four received the Master Mason degree. Eighty-six names comprise the roster of that year. The thirty-ninth election was held November 6, regardless of the fact that the By-laws were revised in 1860, changing the annual election from November to December. At this election Bro. John Dixon was again selected as Worshipful Master; Bro. Thomas Bassett was elected Senior Warden; Bro. James Van Winkle, Junior Warden; Bro. John P. Ford, Treasurer; Bro. William Shaffer, Secretary; Bro. Joshua Butler, Senior Deacon; Bro. John Hobbs, Junior Deacon, and Bro. William Wright, Steward and Tyler.

The installation was held December 17, Bro. Daniel Hattan performing the ceremonies.

BRO. JOHN DIXON

Worshipful Master

On August 11, the Worshipful Master appointed Bro. Imri Richards to fill the unexpired term of Bro. William Shaffer, the efficient Secretary, who was preparing to make his future home in the West.

Twenty-eight meetings were held during the year, and eleven were raised to the degree of Master Mason, but owing to the losses sustained from the war, the annual return showed a loss of one member over the preceding year.

December 8, the fortieth election was held and Bro. Daniel Hattan was again induced to accept the office of Worshipful Master. Bro. Richard Monkhouse was elected Senior Warden; Bro. Joshua Butler, Junior Warden; Bro. John P. Ford, Treasurer; Bro. Imri Richards, Secretary; Bro. D. C. Hall, Senior Deacon; Bro. John Hobbs, Junior Deacon, and Bro. William Wright, Steward and Tyler.

These officers were installed, December 22, by Bro. William M. Shinnick, assisted by Bro. Thomas Webb. The principal speaker for the evening was Bro. John G. F. Holston.

BRO. DANIEL HATTAN

Worshipful Master

Zanesville was plunged into deepest mourning when, on April 15, the news was received that President Abraham Lincoln had been assassinated during the preceding night. The entire community was apprised of the fact by the constant tolling of the bell in the old courthouse tower, and all factories, stores, and business places immediately suspended operations.

A joint meeting of Amity and La Fayette Lodges was called for April 18, and at this meeting fifty-seven Brethren were present, including twenty-six from Amity, twenty-seven from La Fayette, and four members of other Lodges.

The meeting was presided over by Bro. William M. Shinnick, of Amity Lodge, and was called to consider the advisability of these Lodges participating in a public demonstration in honor of the martyred President. After considerable debate, the following resolution was presented by Bro. George W. Thompson, which was adopted:

WHEREAS, The Masonic Bodies of this city are invited to unite with their fellow citizens in the observance of certain funeral obsequies, applicable to the occasion, called for by the death of the Chief Magistrate of the United States; therefore, be it

Resolved, That Amity and La Fayette Lodges, as jointly convened, respectfully decline the invitation of the Committee of the citizens to participate as Lodges in the proposed funeral obsequies.

The ceremonies mentioned upon this occasion were performed on the following day. A procession, consisting of Cyprus Commandery, No. 10, Knights Templar, a number of other organizations, and a large assemblage of citizens, marched over the principal streets of the city and across the Y bridge to West Zanesville, where a platform had been erected on Lee Street, near the Baltimore and Ohio railroad shops, where appropriate services were held. Taken from every standpoint, this was a very busy year. The report of the year shows a membership of one hundred and six, fourteen having received the Master Mason degree, three admitted to membership, while degrees were conferred upon four other candidates.

During the year, the Lodge voted to change the annual meeting back to November, but this action was rescinded at the meeting of the Grand Lodge.

The forty-first election was held December 7, and resulted in the choice of the following officers: Bro. Daniel Hattan, Worshipful Master; Bro. Richard Monkhouse, Senior Warden; Bro. George Cockburn, Junior Warden; Bro. David Drew, Treasurer; Bro. Imri Richards, Secretary; Bro. Josiah Burgess, Senior Deacon; Bro. John Hobbs, Junior Deacon, and Bro. William Wright, Steward and Tyler.

The installation was held December 21, and the officers were installed by Bro. Asa R. Cassady, assisted by Bro. T. A. Reamy. At the conclusion of these ceremonies, a supper was served at "The American House."

BRO. DANIEL HATTAN

WORSHIPFUL MASTER

Practically nothing of interest occurred during this year. Bro. Samuel R. Moore is mentioned in the minutes of May 17 as being a visitor from Urbana Lodge. He became a member of La Fayette Lodge, November 1, 1866.

Twenty-eight meetings were held and eight received the Master Mason degree during the year. The forty-second election was held December 6, and the following were selected to serve for the ensuing year: Bro. Richard Monkhouse, Worshipful Master; Bro. George Cockburn, Senior Warden; Bro. Josiah Burgess, Junior Warden; Bro. David Drew, Treasurer; Bro. Imri Richards, Secretary; Bro. John R. Price, Senior Deacon; Bro. John Brooks, Junior Deacon, and Bro. William Wright, Steward and Tyler.

These officers were installed, December 27, by Bro. James S. Reeves, assisted by Bro. William M. Shinnick. A Masonic address was delivered by Bro. John G. F. Holston.

BRO. RICHARD MONKHOUSE

WORSHIPFUL MASTER

Brother Monkhouse was born in England in 1814, emigrating to America when twenty-six years of age. He was a machinist by trade, and after coming to this country located at New Castle, Delaware, where he secured employment in the locomotive works. In 1852, the H. and F. Blandy Company, machinists of this city, began the manufacture of locomotive engines; being impressed with the New Castle type of engine, imported a number of workmen from the Delaware shops. Brother Monkhouse came to Zanesville at this time, remaining with the Blandy Company until 1857, when he entered the employ of the Central Ohio Railroad Company, in the capacity of master blacksmith, which position he ably filled until the time of his death.

Brother Monkhouse received his Masonic degrees before coming to this city. He affiliated with La Fayette Lodge November 10, 1864, serving as Senior Warden, 1865 and 1866, and Worshipful Master, 1867 and 1869.

He received the capitular degrees in Zanesville Chapter, No. 9, Royal Arch Masons, as follows: Mark Master degree, August 24, 1853; Past Master, September 15, 1853; Most Excellent Master, November 23, 1853, and Royal Arch, November 30, 1853.

He served as Grand Master of the First Veil, 1859; Scribe, 1861, and High Priest, 1862, 1863, 1864, 1865, 1866, and 1867.

He received the cryptic degrees in Zanesville Council, No. 12, Royal and Select Masters, August 31, 1865, serving as Principal Conductor of Work, 1867 to 1871 inclusive; Deputy Illustrious Master, 1872, and Thrice Illustrious Master, 1873 and 1874.

He was a member of Cyprus Commandery, No. 10, Knights Templar, receiving the Illustrious Order of the Red Cross December 17, 1867; degrees of Knight Templar and Knight of Malta January 14, 1868.

He died June 10, 1875, and was buried in Woodlawn Cemetery, the ceremonies being performed by La Fayette Lodge, with Cyprus Commandery acting as escort.

Twenty-nine meetings were held by the Lodge during the year 1867, but the entire year was devoid of anything of historical value. On June 6, the Lodge appropriated two hundred dollars for the refurnishing of the hall. Six were raised to the degree of Master Mason, and three more Brethren became members of the Lodge by affiliation. One hundred and seventeen names were returned in the report made to the Grand Lodge, which was a gain of three over the preceding one.

On December 5, the forty-third election was held, and Bro.

John G. F. Holston was again selected to serve as Worshipful Master. The other officers were: Bro. George Cockburn, Senior Warden; Bro. Josiah Burgess, Junior Warden; Bro. David Drew, Treasurer; Bro. Edgar W. Allen, Secretary; Bro. John W. King, Senior Deacon; Bro. Thomas H. Hunter, Junior Deacon, and Bro. William Wright, Steward and Tyler.

BRO. JOHN G. F. HOLSTON
WORSHIPFUL MASTER

The new officers were installed by Bro. Richard Monkhouse and Bro. James S. Reeves, at a public installation held on January 2, to which all members and their ladies were invited. Addresses were made by the Master-elect, Bro. John G. F. Holston, and by Rev. W. M. Baker.

The Masonic Hall, which had been in use for nine years, had never been dedicated. On February 6, a Committee was appointed to act in conjunction with the other Masonic Bodies, in making the necessary arrangements for the dedication ceremonies.

On March 5, this Committee reported that the plans were complete for the dedication, which was to be held June 24.

The dedication ceremonies were performed on St. John's Day, as planned, by the Grand Lodge of Ohio, with M ∴ W ∴ Bro. Thomas Sparrow presiding. The Grand Lodge was opened at 10.30 A. M., and proceeded to dedicate the Lodge room in the presence of a throng of local and visiting Brethren and their ladies. A procession was then formed by the Craft and paraded to Gant's Grove, where a general good time was enjoyed by all. An address was delivered by Rev. C. E. Felton, of Cleveland.

Thirty-two meetings were held during the year, and the degree of Master Mason was conferred upon eleven candidates, while two more names were added to the roster by affiliation.

In spite of this great gain, the annual returns showed a membership of only one hundred and ten in good standing.

Bro. James S. Reeves was appointed, by the Grand Master, as his special representative to communicate the secret work throughout the State.

The forty-fourth election was held December 3, and Bro. Richard Monkhouse was selected to serve a second term as Worshipful Master. Bro. John Greaves was elected Senior Warden; Bro. John Q. A. Tresize, Junior Warden; Bro. David Drew, Treasurer; Bro. George Cockburn, Secretary; Bro. John W. King, Senior Deacon; Bro. Thomas W. Hunter, Junior Deacon, and Bro. William Wright, Steward and Tyler.

On December 6, the Lodge conducted the funeral services of Bro. Christopher Goetz, a former officer, whose remains were interred in Greenwood Cemetery.

BRO. RICHARD MONKHOUSE
WORSHIPFUL MASTER

The installation of officers was held on January 7, the ceremonies being performed by Bro. William M. Shinnick, of Amity Lodge.

Thirty-two meetings were held during the year. Four were raised to the degree of Master Mason and four more were admitted to membership by dimit. The report of the Auditing Committee shows a balance in the Treasury of eighty-five dollars and twenty-nine cents, while the assets showed eight hundred and twenty-five dollars invested in stock of the Masonic Hall Association, which paid no dividend.

The forty-fifth election was held December 2, and resulted in the election of the following officers: Bro. John Greaves, Worshipful Master; Bro. Lewis Moore, Senior Warden; Bro. John W. King, Junior Warden; Bro. David Drew, Treasurer; Bro. Edgar W. Allen, Secretary; Bro. E. Hunter Moore, Senior Deacon; Bro. Thomas Hunter, Junior Deacon, and Bro. William Wright, Steward and Tyler.

BRO. JOHN GREAVES
WORSHIPFUL MASTER

Brother Greaves was born in England, and although the early years of his life are veiled in obscurity, a careful investigation of the known facts leads us to believe he was well past thirty years of age when he removed to this country with his family and household effects and established himself at Brooklyn, New York, where he was employed for a time in making ship repairs. He was a skilled mechanic of the highest order, and came to Zanesville to take charge of the erection of the artificial gas works of the Zanesville Gas Company, on South Sixth Street, remaining as its superintendent. Before coming to this city he was superintendent of the Cincinnati Gas Company, and erected a plant for the making of gas at Xenia, Ohio. During his residence in this city, he conducted a large retail store on Main Street for the sale of stoves, gas, and plumbing fixtures; owned a plumbing shop on Market Street, and was proprietor of a shop in the rear of the building now occupied by the Zanesville Publishing Company, used for the manufacture of brass and copper castings.

He was a man of considerable education, and often preached from the pulpits of the Baptist Church at Dresden, and the Market Street Baptist Church of this city, being an ardent member of the latter. Before leaving England he was united in marriage to Miss Sarah Wade, and this union was blessed by seven children, three of whom died in infancy. The survivors were David, John, William, and Mary Greaves.

In 1876, he removed to Hot Springs, Arkansas, to superintend the building of a gas works.

Brother Greaves received the degree of Entered Apprentice before coming to Zanesville. He received the degree of Fellow Craft in La Fayette Lodge July 14, 1864, and was raised to the degree of Master Mason March 7, 1865.

He served the Lodge as Senior Deacon, 1877; Senior Warden, 1869, and Worshipful Master, from 1870 to 1875 inclusive. He received the degrees of Mark Master and Past Master in Zanesville Chapter, No. 9, Royal Arch Masons, February 12, 1866; Most Excellent Master, March 5, 1866, and Royal Arch, July 16, 1866.

He served as Grand Master of the Third Veil, 1868 and 1869, and Secretary, 1870, 1871, and 1872.

He passed the Circle of Perfection in Zanesville Council, No. 12, Royal and Select Masters, December 10, 1868, serving as Recorder, 1870, 1871, and 1872.

He was a member of Cyprus Commandery, No. 10, Knights Templar, receiving the Illustrious Order of the Red Cross September 24, 1867; Orders of the Temple and Malta, October 22, 1867. He served as Prelate from 1868 to 1872 inclusive.

He died at Hot Springs, Arkansas, in 1894, and was buried in Woodlawn Cemetery, at Hot Springs.

The officers were installed on January 6, but the names of the installing officers were omitted from the record.

Thirty meetings were held and seven were raised to the degree of Master Mason. The annual return showed a membership in good standing of one hundred and seventeen. The Lodge received a dividend of eighty-six dollars, or a fraction less than ten and one-half per cent, on their stock of the Masonic Hall Association.

The forty-sixth election was held December 1, resulting in the election of Bro. John Greaves as Worshipful Master; Bro. James Van Winkle, Senior Warden; Bro. E. Hunter Moore, Junior Warden; Bro. David Drew, Treasurer; Bro. John Kitching, Secretary; Bro. Thomas Hunter, Senior Deacon; Bro. Jerry Williams, Junior Deacon, and Bro. William Wright, Steward and Tyler.

BRO. JOHN GREAVES

WORSHIPFUL MASTER

The installation of officers was held on January 5, Bro. Richard Monkhouse and Bro. William M. Shinnick performing the ceremonies.

Twenty meetings were held by the Lodge in 1871, and but three were raised to the degree of Master Mason. The membership remained the same as that of the preceding year.

On December 7, the forty-seventh election was held and resulted in the election of Bro. John Greaves as Worshipful Master; Bro. Lewis Moore, Senior Warden; Bro. Samuel Elliott, Junior Warden; Bro. David Drew, Treasurer; Bro. David T. Johnson, Secretary; Bro. James D. Mitchell, Senior Deacon; Bro. Jerry Williams, Junior Deacon; Bro. William Wright, Steward and Tyler.

BRO. JOHN GREAVES

Worshipful Master

The installation of officers was held on January 4, the ceremonies being performed by Bros. William M. Shinnick and Richard Monkhouse.

Twenty-four shares in the Masonic Hall Association were secured during this year, which raised the total number in possession of the Lodge to fifty-seven or one thousand, four hundred and twenty-five dollars.

Ten received the degree of Master Mason and three more were admitted to membership.

The forty-eighth election was held on December 5, and Bro. John Greaves was elected Worshipful Master for the fourth consecutive time. The other officers elected were: Bro. Lewis Moore, Senior Warden; Bro. Charles T. De Velling, Junior Warden; Bro. John P. Ford, Treasurer; Bro. Orlando C. Marsh, Secretary; Bro. James D. Mitchell, Senior Deacon; Bro. James Crozier, Junior Deacon, and Bro. William Wright, Steward and Tyler.

BRO. JOHN GREAVES

Worshipful Master

The installation was held January 2, the officers being installed by Bro. Daniel Hattan.

The Lodge purchased a new altar on August 1, at a cost of sixty-five dollars.

Twenty meetings were held by the Lodge, and the result of the year's work in point of membership consisted of the raising of four Master Masons and the admission of one on dimit.

The report of the Auditing Committee for the year showed that the assets of the Lodge were seventeen hundred and forty-four dollars and sixty cents, less a deficit in the treasury of thirty-one dollars and fifty-seven cents.

The forty-ninth election was held, December 4, resulting in the choice of Bro. John Greaves to the office of Worshipful Master for the fifth consecutive time. Bro. Samuel Elliott was chosen Senior Warden; Bro. Charles C. Wiles, Junior Warden; Bro. John P. Ford, Treasurer; Bro. Orlando C. Marsh, Secretary; Bro. James D. Mitchell, Senior Deacon; Bro. Robert E. Miles, Junior Deacon, and Bro. Lewis Moore, Steward and Tyler.

BRO. JOHN GREAVES

Bro. Daniel Hatton installed the officers on New Year's Day.

On Tuesday, May 5, the Lodge conducted the funeral services of Bro. John G. F. Holston, a Past Master of the Lodge. The services were conducted at the First Presbyterian Church, and a large concourse of sorrowing friends followed the body to its last resting place in Woodlawn Cemetery.

Nineteen meetings were held this year and but four received the degree of Master Mason. The Lodge now boasted a membership of one hundred and twenty-five, which number was never again reached until 1900. The year 1874 marks a gradual decline in the affairs of the Lodge, with a proportionate decrease in membership, which continued until 1887.

The fiftieth election was held December 3, and Bro. John Greaves was elected Worshipful Master for the sixth time. Bro. Samuel Elliott was again chosen Senior Warden; Bro. Charles C. Wiles, Junior Warden; Bro. John P. Ford, Treasurer; Bro. Thomas M. Sloan, Secretary; Bro. Robert H. Morgan, Senior Deacon; Bro. Robert E. Miles, Junior Deacon; Bro. Edmund P. Moorehead, Steward and Tyler.

BRO. JOHN GREAVES

Worshipful Master

The installation of officers was held January 7, the installation ceremonies being performed by Bro. Daniel Hattan. R.·.W.·. Bro. William Cunningham, of Newark, Grand Orator of the Grand Lodge, was present and assisted in the ceremonies.

On June 21, the Lodge conducted the funeral of Bro. Richard Monkhouse, and his remains were laid to rest in Woodlawn Cemetery.

On September 2, Bro. Imri Richards was made a life member and all future dues were remitted.

On September 11, the funeral services of Bro. William Wright were conducted by the Lodge. He was buried in Greenwood Cemetery. Brother Wright had served the Lodge faithfully as Steward and Tyler for nineteen consecutive years.

Only seventeen meetings were held and no degrees were conferred. The Lodge had a membership of one hundred and thirteen—a loss of twelve over the preceding year.

NEGRO MASONRY

At the Annual Communication of the Grand Lodge, held at Columbus, October 19, the troublesome and oft-recurring question of recognizing Negro Masons was brought to the attention of that Grand Body by M.·.W.·.Bro. Asa H. Battin, Grand Master, who devoted considerable time to this subject, in an address which covered three pages of the Proceedings. In the course of this address, Brother Battin said:

"For nearly a century there has existed in this country an organized body of men who are generally known as 'Colored Masons.' They claim to be in possession of the same secrets as us; that their principles and objects are identical with ours; that they derive their authority from legal sources, and are in every sense of the term legal Masons. For many years they have been seeking recognition at the hands of their sister Grand Lodges; and while making but little progress in this country, their claims have been recognized by Grand Lodges in other Jurisdictions. It will be seen that the Colored Masons of America are securing that recognition abroad which is denied them at home; and it seems to me that upon the anniversary of our nation's birth, the time has come when it is not only right but proper, that we should take some definite and decisive action in good faith to ascertain the actual status of these organizations. We are presented in our own State with the anomaly of two Grand Lodges, each with a great number of Subordinate Lodges, all teaching the same great truths, speaking the same language, and yet one not permitted to recognize the other, and all intercourse between the two prohibited. In this great centennial year, whilst liberty and equality are shed abroad through our great nation, is it not right and proper that we, as Masons, shall at least attempt to bring about, by proper means and in a legal manner, a union of these two Grand Lodges in one State? Brethren, this question must be met. I cannot believe that many years will elapse before the great body of Colored Masons will be recognized as a part of the great Masonic family, and accorded their rights as such."

This matter was referred to a special committee of five members, who reported on the matter the following day. The substance of their rather lengthy report was contained in a resolution to the effect that this Grand Lodge would recognize the Colored Grand Lodge provided they change the constitutional title to that of "The African Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons of the State of Ohio." Considerable discussion ensued, pro and con, following the introduction of this resolution, and it was decided to defer the question until the next Annual Communication. The fifty-first election was held by the Lodge, November 4, and resulted in the choice of the following: Bro. Daniel Hattan, Worshipful Master; Bro. Samuel Elliott, Senior Warden; Bro. Robert E. Miles, Junior Warden; Bro. John P. Ford, Treasurer; Bro. Charles C. Wiles, Secretary; Bro. Charles E. Randall, Senior Deacon; Bro. Lewis Moore, Junior Deacon, and Bro. Edmund P. Moorehead, Steward and Tyler.

The installation was held December 16, with Bro. John Greaves as the installing officer.

BRO. DANIEL HATTAN

WORSHIPFUL MASTER

On June 6 all members of the Lodge were notified that the question of recognizing Negro Masonry would come up at the next session of the Grand Lodge for decision. The question was ably discussed, after which a ballot was taken which resulted in three voting in favor of recognition, while forty-two voted against it.

When the Grand Lodge convened on October 17 the resolution of the previous year was read for a final consideration. A heated debate immediately followed its presentation, and every ruse known to parliamentary practice was employed by its enemies to prevent a ballot. It finally resolved itself into a question of order between the Grand Master, M.·.W.·.Bro. Charles A. Woodward and the Deputy Grand Master, R.·.W.·. William M. Cunningham regarding the validity of the entire transaction. Brother Cunningham contended that it was an amendment to Article XV of the Constitution of the Grand Lodge of Ohio, while the Grand Master decided in the negative. A registered vote was taken of the entire assemblage, the names of the accredited representatives being called, each of which expressed himself by a yea or nay vote. The result of this ballot was 329 in support of the Grand Master and 389 in the negative. The real issue did not come to a vote.

Fourteen meetings were held this year and no degrees were conferred.

On December 7, the fifty-second election was held and Bro. Daniel Hattan was elected Worshipful Master; Bro. Samuel Elliott, Senior Warden; Bro. Robert E. Miles, Junior Warden; Bro. John P. Ford, Treasurer; Bro. Charles C. Wiles, Secretary; Bro. John Greaves, Senior Deacon; Thomas H. Hunter, Junior Deacon, and Bro. Amos P. Josselyn, Steward and Tyler.

At this meeting, the Lodge voted to publish a history of the Lodge, and appointed Bro. William Culbertson to write it and submit same to the Lodge for approval, but nothing ever came of it.

BRO. DANIEL HATTAN
WORSHIPFUL MASTER

The officers were installed on January 4 by Bro. E. Hunter Moore, a former officer of the Lodge, now a Past Master of Ahiman Lodge, No. 492, assisted by Bro. O. Westbrook, of Jackson Lodge, No. 85, as Grand Marshal.

On September 6, the Lodge voted to borrow one hundred and twenty-five dollars to pay off its indebtedness.

On November 1, permission was granted to Jackson Lodge, No. 85, to move from Brownsville to Gratiot.

Fifteen meetings were held this year and the degrees were conferred upon one.

The fifty-third election was held on December 6, resulting in the election of Bro. Samuel Elliott as Worshipful Master; Bro. Charles C. Wiles, Senior Warden; Bro. Thomas H. Hunter, Junior Warden; Bro. John P. Ford, Treasurer; Bro. David H. Pitman, Secretary; Bro. Thomas M. Sloan, Senior Deacon; Bro. J. Hinig, Junior Deacon, and Bro. Amos P. Josselyn, Steward and Tyler.

These officers were installed on December 27, by Bro. Daniel Hattan and Bro. William M. Shinnick.

BRO. SAMUEL ELLIOTT

Worshipful Master

Brother Elliott was born at Baltimore, Maryland, December 23, 1821, and came to Zanesville when nineteen years of age. He was a carpenter and wood worker by trade, and after coming to this city secured employment in the engine works of the Griffith and Wedge Company. Although born and reared in a Southern State, he served three years with the Union Army during the Civil War.

Brother Elliott was initiated an Entered Apprentice in La Fayette Lodge September 10, 1855; passed to the degree of Fellow Craft September 20, 1855, and raised to the degree of Master Mason September 24, 1855. He served as Junior Warden in 1860 and again in 1872; Senior Warden, 1874 to 1877 inclusive, and Worshipful Master, 1878, 1879, and 1880.

He was a member of Zanesville Chapter, No. 9, Royal Arch Masons, receiving the Mark Master and Past Master degrees September 18, 1856; Most Excellent Master, October 1, 1856, and Royal Arch November 15, 1856. He served the Chapter as Royal Arch Captain, 1859, 1860, and 1869; Scribe, 1867 and 1870; King, 1871, 1872, 1878, and 1879; High Priest, 1873 to 1876 inclusive. He received the cryptic degrees in Zanesville Council, No. 12, Royal and Select Masters, March 14, 1859, serving as Captain of the Guard, 1874, 1875, and 1876.

He died June 16, 1900, and the funeral services were conducted by La Fayette Lodge; interment in Greenwood Cemetery.

Sixteen meetings were held this year, but the degree of Master Mason was not conferred. Only seventy-seven members were shown in the report made to the Grand Lodge.

On December 5, the fifty-fourth election was held and all the officers were re-elected with the exception of the Junior Deacon. The official list was composed of Bro. Samuel Elliott, Worshipful Master; Bro. Charles C. Wiles, Senior Warden; Bro. Thomas H. Hunter, Junior Warden; Bro. John P. Ford, Treasurer; Bro. David H. Pitman, Secretary; Bro. Thomas M. Sloan, Senior Deacon; Bro. J. S. Bartholomew, Junior Deacon; Bro. Amos P. Josselyn, Steward and Tyler.

BRO. SAMUEL ELLIOTT
Worshipful Master

The installation was held on January 2, and the officers were installed by Bro. Daniel Hattan.

On May 11, the Lodge conducted the funeral ceremonies of Bro. Imri Richards, formerly Master and for many years its Secretary. Interment was made in Greenwood Cemetery.

Eighteen meetings were held during this year, two received the Master Mason degree, and three were admitted to membership.

The fifty-fifth election was held December 4, resulting in the election of Bro. Samuel Elliott as Worshipful Master; Bro. Charles C. Wiles, Senior Warden; Bro. Charles Randall, Junior Warden; Bro. John P. Ford, Treasurer; Bro. David H. Pitman, Secretary; Bro. Thomas M. Sloan, Senior Deacon; Bro. Abraham E. Allman, Junior Deacon, and Bro. Amos P. Josselyn, Steward and Tyler.

BRO. SAMUEL ELLIOTT
Worshipful Master

Conditions began to improve during this year, and twenty-six meetings were held. Eight received the degree of Master Mason and one was admitted to membership. The annual return showed a membership of ninety-five.

On December 2, the fifty-sixth election was held, resulting in the choice of the following officers: Bro. Charles C. Wiles, Worshipful Master; Bro. Lewis Moore, Senior Warden; Bro. Thomas M. Sloan, Junior Warden; Bro. John P. Ford, Treasurer; Bro. Robert F. Irvine, Secretary; Bro. Charles H. Hoopes, Senior Deacon; Bro. Abraham E. Allman, Junior Deacon, and Bro. Amos P. Josselyn, Steward and Tyler.

BRO. CHARLES CARROLL WILES

Worshipful Master

Brother Wiles was born in Zanesville, January 10, 1843. He attended the public schools and the Zanesville High School, and upon his graduation entered Ohio Wesleyan University at Delaware. He had scarcely entered upon his college career when the Civil War broke out and he enlisted as a private in the One Hundred and Twenty-second Regiment, Ohio Volunteer Infantry. He served with the Union Army throughout the war, and was with General Sherman in his celebrated march to the sea. After the war, he returned to this city and opened a dry-goods store on the south side of Main Street, between Third and Fourth Streets. He continued in this business for several years and, after disposing of his business interests, moved to Columbus.

On August 18, 1887, he was united in marriage to Miss Alice Rownd, of Columbus, Ohio, and to this union two sons were born, Henry Rownd Wiles and Bernard Lawson Wiles.

Brother Wiles was initiated an Entered Apprentice in La Fayette Lodge, May 3, 1873; passed to the degree of Fellow Craft June 9, 1873, and raised to the degree of Master Mason July 17, 1873. He served the Lodge as Senior Deacon, 1876 and 1877; Junior Warden, 1874 and 1875; Senior Warden, 1878, 1879, and 1880; Worshipful Master, 1881, 1882, and 1883.

He was a member of Zanesville Chapter, No. 9, Royal Arch Masons, receiving the Mark Master degree September 4, 1877; Past and Most Excellent degrees, October 8, 1877, and Royal Arch, November 3, 1877. He served as Grand Master of the Second Veil, 1880; Royal Arch Captain, 1883; King, 1884, and High Priest, 1885.

He received the chivalric degrees in Cyprus Commandery, No. 10, Knights Templar, as follows: Red Cross, October 28, 1879; Temple and Malta, November 4, 1879.

He served as Junior Warden, 1881; Generalissimo, 1882, 1883, 1884, and 1885.

He died in Columbus, Ohio, September 10, 1902, and his remains were brought to this city and interred in Greenwood Cemetery.

During the summer of 1881, the Masonic Hall Association, acting for the Masonic Bodies, decided to remodel the Lodge rooms, the existing arrangement being impractical for the needs of the Craft in conferring the various degrees. During the time these repairs were being made, the Lodge, Chapter, and Commandery met in the rooms of the Patriotic Order of Sons of America, over the First National Bank. The installation was held January 5, the ceremonies being performed by Bro. Samuel Elliott, assisted by Bro. A. H. Evans, of Hazin Lodge, No. 251.

No degrees were conferred during the year, but two new members were added to the roster by affiliation.

The Secretary failed to record either the annual return or the report of the Auditing Committee in the record book.

The fifty-seventh election was held December 1, and Bro. Charles C. Wiles was re-elected Worshipful Master. Bro. Alfred H. Evans was elected Senior Warden; Bro. Abraham E. Allman, Junior Warden; Bro. John P. Ford, Treasurer; Bro. W. S. Finley, Secretary; Bro. Homer C. Waterman, Senior Deacon; Bro. John Hartmeyer, Junior Deacon, and Bro. Amos P. Josselyn, Steward and Tyler.

BRO. CHARLES CARROLL WILES
WORSHIPFUL MASTER

Meetings were resumed in the Masonic Hall on January 5, when the officers were installed by R.·.W.·.Bro. S. Stacker Williams, of Newark, Deputy Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Ohio.

On October 5, the Lodge voted to purchase a safe in conjunction with Amity Lodge.

Nineteen meetings were held during this year, two received the Master Mason degree, and one was admitted to membership on dimit. The annual return again showed a loss in membership, with a list of eighty-nine Brethren in good standing.

The fifty-eighth election was held December 7, and Bro. Charles C. Wiles was again elected Worshipful Master. The other officers were: Bro. Abraham E. Allman, Senior Warden; Bro. John Hartmeyer, Junior Warden; Bro. John P. Ford, Treasurer; Bro. Homer C. Waterman, Secretary; Bro. Charles H. Hoopes, Senior Deacon; Bro. Thomas Swan, Junior Deacon, and Bro. Amos P. Josselyn, Steward and Tyler.

BRO. CHARLES CARROLL WILES

WORSHIPFUL MASTER

The officers were installed, January 4, by Bro. J. Hope Sutor, of Amity Lodge, assisted by Bro. Samuel Elliott.

In the minutes of the meeting of July 5 the statement is made that a roster of all officers and members of the Lodge since its organization was presented for consideration, but does not state what action, if any, was taken thereon. On December 6, Bro. A. C. Romine was elected to life membership. During this year twenty-two meetings were held, six were raised to the Master Mason degree, and one admitted to membership. The fifty-ninth election was held December 6, and resulted in the election of Bro. Alfred H. Evans Worshipful Master; Bro. John Hartmeyer, Senior Warden; Bro. Thomas Swan, Junior Warden; Bro. John P. Ford, Treasurer; Bro. Homer C. Waterman, Secretary; Bro. Lewis E. Linton, Senior Deacon; Bro. Benjamin F. Urban, Junior Deacon, and Bro. Amos P. Josselyn, Steward and Tyler.

Bro. Alfred H. Evans, the Master-elect, was a former member of Hazen Lodge, No. 251, Morristown, Ohio. He affiliated with La Fayette Lodge February 5, 1881. He was never installed, nor did he ever occupy the East during the term for which he was elected. Decision 386, page 41, of the Code adopted by the Grand Lodge in 1880, provides:

That where the regularly elected officers of a Lodge are duly installed, except the Master, who, by reason of an objection made, declined installation, the Senior Warden then elected and installed succeeds to the duties of Master and acts as such until the following regular election and installation, unless a new Master is sooner elected and installed under a dispensation from the Grand Master.

What reason, if any, was given by Brother Evans for refusing installation is not known, but, as Bro. John Hartmeyer, the Senior Warden, occupied the East during the entire year and performed those duties incumbent upon the office, he must rightfully be considered the Worshipful Master, in fact as well as in deed.

The installation was held on January 3, the installing officer being Bro. Charles C. Wiles, assisted by Bro. Samuel Elliott as Grand Marshal.

Fifteen meetings were held this year and but two candidates received the degree of Master Mason.

The annual return showed a further loss, with eighty-six members in good standing. On December 4, the sixtieth election was held and Bro. John Hartmeyer was elected Worshipful Master; Bro. Thomas Swan, Senior Warden; Bro. Benjamin F. Urban, Junior Warden; Bro. John P. Ford, Treasurer; Bro. Homer C. Waterman, Secretary; Bro. Lewis E. Linton, Senior Deacon; Bro. Arthur J. Sheppard, Junior Deacon, and Bro. Amos P. Josselyn, Steward and Tyler.

BRO. JOHN HARTMEYER

WORSHIPFUL MASTER

Brother Hartmeyer was born in Zanesville, June 23, 1854. He received his education in the public schools of this city and of Springfield Township. The major part of his business career was spent in the sale of meats and groceries in this city. From 1900 to 1910, he served as finance clerk in the local post office.

He was united in marriage to Miss Margaret Ellen Dilts, and to this union two children were born--Essie Hartmeyer and Orrel J. Hartmeyer.

The Masonic career of Brother Hartmeyer is indeed an enviable one. He was initiated an Entered Apprentice in La Fayette Lodge, November 10, 1879; passed to the degree of Fellow Craft December 18, 1879, and raised to the degree of Master Mason February 19, 1880.

He served the Lodge as Junior Deacon, 1882; Junior Warden, 1883; Senior Warden, 1884; Worshipful Master, 1885, and Treasurer, 1904, 1905, and 1906.

He was a member of Zanesville Chapter, No. 9, Royal Arch Masons, receiving the Mark Master degree, March 21, 1881; Past and Most Excellent Masters degrees, April 4, 1881, and Royal Arch April 11, 1881. He served the Chapter as Grand Master of the First Veil, 1882; Grand Master of the Third Veil, 1883; Royal Arch Captain, 1885; Captain of Host, 1887 to 1890 inclusive; Scribe, 1891; High Priest, 1893 to 1898 inclusive, and Treasurer, 1900 to 1906 inclusive. He passed the Circle of Perfection in Zanesville Council, No. 12, Royal and Select Masters, August 14, 1882, serving nine years as Principal Conductor of Work during a period of twenty years, extending from 1885 to 1905; Deputy Master, 1890, and Thrice Illustrious Master, 1891 and 1892.

He was a member of Cyrene Commandery, No. 10, Knights Templar, receiving the Red Cross degree, June 30, 1891, and the Order of the Temple and Knight of Malta, July 28, 1891.

He served the Commandery as Junior Warden, 1892; Senior Warden, 1893 and 1894; Generalissimo, 1898, and Eminent Commander, 1899.

Brother Hartmeyer was one of a small group of Masons who were directly responsible for our present Masonic Temple. He became a director of the Masonic Temple Company at its organization, and continued a valuable member of the Board until the time of his death, during which time he served several terms as its President.

He died August 27, 1925, and was buried in Greenwood Cemetery, the services being in charge of Cyrene Commandery, No. 10, Knights Templar.

The officers were installed on New Year's Day by Bro. Daniel Hattan, assisted by Bro. Samuel Elliott.

On September 1, the Lodge conducted the funeral services of Bro. Amos P. Josselyn, who was serving his ninth year as Steward and Tyler.

Twenty-one meetings were held during the year and three received the Master Mason degree. The annual return showed a loss of one member. On December 3, the sixty-first election was held and the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Bro. Lewis Moore, Worshipful Master; Bro. Abraham E. Allman, Senior Warden; Bro. Leonidas D. Dillon, Junior Warden; Bro. John P. Ford, Treasurer; Bro. David J. Brookover, Secretary; Bro. William H. Bolin, Senior Deacon; Bro. Arthur J. Sheppard, Junior Deacon, and Bro. Jacob Diehl, Steward and Tyler.

BRO. LEWIS MOORE

WORSHIPFUL MASTER

Brother Moore was born at Easton, Pennsylvania, May 10, 1825. His parents came to Zanesville when Lewis was ten years of age, and after receiving a common school education, he learned the cooper trade. After following this trade for ten years, he engaged in the ice business until the outbreak of the Civil War, when he became First Lieutenant in Company A, Sixteenth Regiment, Ohio Volunteer Infantry. On November 8, 1862, during a retreat from General Morgan at Cumberland Gap, he received injuries which necessitated his discharge from the army. Upon his return to Zanesville, he became a collector.

Brother Moore was initiated an Entered Apprentice in La Fayette Lodge, March 20, 1851; passed to the degree of Fellow Craft, April 3, 1851, and raised to the Master Mason degree, May 15, 1851.

He served the Lodge as Tyler, 1874; Junior Deacon, 1861 and 1876; Senior Deacon, 1854; Senior Warden, 1855, 1857, 1858, 1860, 1870, 1872, 1873, and 1881; and Worshipful Master, 1886.

He was a member of Zanesville Chapter, No. 9, Royal Arch Masons, receiving the Mark Master degree, November 6, 1871;

Past Master, November 13, 1871; Most Excellent Master, November 20, 1871, and Royal Arch, November 27, 1871. He served the Chapter as Guard, 1874; Grand Master of the First Veil, 1872, 1873, and 1875; Second Veil, 1881; Royal Arch Captain, 1873; Principal Sojourner, 1876, and High Priest, 1882 and 1883.

He was anointed and set apart to the Order of High Priesthood at Newark, September 20, 1882.

He received the degrees of Royal and Select Masters in Zanesville Council, No. 12, Royal and Select Masters, March 14, 1872, and Super-Excellent Master, March 10, 1881. He served the Council as Steward, 1874; Captain of Guard, 1873, 1881, and 1882; Principal Conductor of Work, 1884; Deputy Master, 1875, 1883, and 1885; and Thrice Illustrious Master, 1886.

He received the chivalric degrees in Cyprus Commandery, No. 10, Knights Templar: Red Cross, September 10, 1872, and the Knights Templar and Malta degrees, September 17, 1872, continuing a member of this organization during its existence, and later affiliating with Cyrene Commandery.

He died April 17, 1903, and was buried in Greenwood Cemetery.

The installation of officers was held on January 7, the ceremonies being performed by M ∴ W ∴ Bro. S. Stacker Williams, of Newark, Most Worshipful Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Ohio, assisted by Bro. John Hartmeyer as Grand Marshal.

On behalf of Bro. Jacob Diehl, a Past Master of Doric Lodge, No. 172, the Grand Master presented the Lodge with a beautiful trowel, which was duly accepted by the Worshipful Master.

Fifteen meetings were held during the year, and no degrees were conferred. Strife and discord were manifest among the members, and many were suspended for nonpayment of dues. The annual return again showed a loss, with a total membership of seventy-eight.

The sixty-second election of officers was held December 2, and resulted in the choice of the following Brethren: Bro. Abraham E. Allman, Worshipful Master; Bro. Thomas Swan, Senior Warden; Bro. Benjamin F. Urban, Junior Warden; Bro. John P. Ford, Treasurer; Bro. Samuel R. Moore, Secretary; Bro. Jacob Hinig, Senior Deacon; Bro. Daniel H. Gaumer, Junior Deacon, and Bro. Jacob Diehl, Steward and Tyler.

BRO. ABRAHAM E. ALLMAN
Worshipful Master

Brother Allman was born at Wheeling, West Virginia, September —, 1841. At an early age his family moved to Clarksville, Pennsylvania, where he received his education in the public schools. He came to Zanesville from Brownsville, Ohio, in 1874, and opened a grocery store and meat market, in which business he was engaged until the time of his death.

On August 27, 1862, he was united in marriage to Miss Harriet Allman, a young lady of the same name, but unrelated, and to this union seven children were born, viz.: Anna, Emma, Sadie, Hattie, Mary, Grace, and Fletcher Allman.

Brother Allman was made a Mason in Clarksville, Pennsylvania, affiliating with La Fayette Lodge, July 3, 1879, on a dimit from Jackson Lodge, No. 85, of Brownsville, Ohio.

He served the Lodge as Junior Deacon, 1880 and 1881; Junior Warden, 1882; Senior Warden, 1883, and again in 1886; Worshipful Master, 1887, 1888, 1889, 1890, and 1892; Treasurer, 1899 to 1903 inclusive, and from 1907 until his death.

He was a member of Zanesville Chapter, No. 9, Royal Arch Masons, receiving the Mark Master degree, July 10, 1882; Past and Most Excellent, July 26, 1882, and Royal Arch, July 31, 1882.

He served as Principal Sojourner, 1889 and 1898; Scribe, 1899 and 1900, and King, 1890 and 1891.

He received the cryptic degrees in Zanesville Council, No. 12, Royal and Select Masters, August 14, 1882, and the Super-Excellent Master degree, November 23, 1882, serving the Council as Captain of Guard, 1888, 1889, and 1890; Recorder, 1896 to 1903 inclusive; Deputy Master, 1891 and 1892, and Thrice Illustrious Master, 1893 and 1895.

He was a Scottish Rite Mason of the Thirty-second degree, being a member of the Scioto Consistory, S. P. R. S., of the Valley of Columbus.

He died February 5, 1912, and was buried in Greenwood Cemetery.

A public installation of officers was held on January 6, Bro. John Hartmeyer acting as installing officer, assisted by Bro. Samuel Elliott as Grand Marshal. The principal address was made on this occasion by Bro. Loren L. Magee, D.D., while the music was furnished by the Bauer band. Following the installation, a banquet was served to the Brethren and their ladies at the Grand Hotel.

The Lodge held twenty-three meetings in 1887, and the Master Mason degree was conferred upon seven candidates.

The Sixty-third Annual Communication and election of officers was held on December 1, but immediately preceding the ballot a circular letter, issued by the Most Worshipful Grand Master S. Stacker Williams, was read to the Lodge by the Worshipful Master. In this communication the Grand Master stressed the grave danger which threatened the Craft, through the invasion of clandestine Masonry, and issued a solemn admonition regarding the election and installation of any member to office who was allied with any so-called Masonic organization declared by the Grand Lodge of Ohio to be clandestine. Ballots were then taken upon each of the several offices, resulting in the election of Bro. Abraham E. Allman, Worshipful Master; Bro. Thomas Swan, Senior Warden; Bro. Benjamin F. Urban, Junior Warden; Bro. John P. Ford, Treasurer; Bro. Samuel R. Moore, Secretary; Bro. Charles H. Hoopes, Senior Deacon; Bro. Jerry Williams, Junior Deacon, and Bro. Jacob Diehl, Tyler. Provision having been made for Senior and Junior Stewards, the Worshipful Master-elect appointed Bro. August W. Hartmeyer and Bro. H. J. Smith, respectively, to fill these stations. Bro. Loren L. Magee was appointed Chaplain.

BRO. ABRAHAM E. ALLMAN
WORSHIPFUL MASTER

On January 5, the officers were installed by Bro. Homer C. Waterman, assisted by Bro. Daniel Hattan as Grand Marshal.

January 15, the Lodge conducted the funeral services of Bro.

William H. Holden, formerly Mayor of Zanesville and a very prominent member. The services were held at the Second Street Methodist Episcopal Church, after which the long cortege composed of his Masonic Brethren, Company B and Battery C of the Ohio National Guard, together with scores of sorrowing friends and relatives, marched to Greenwood Cemetery, where the remains were interred. Twenty-eight meetings were held during this year, and eleven were raised to the Master Mason degree.

The annual returns showed a gain of eight members over the preceding year, with a total membership of ninety-six.

The sixty-fourth election was held December 6, and immediately preceding the ballot a second communication was read by the Worshipful Master, relative to the election of Cerneau Masons to office. This second letter to the Lodge was issued by order of the Grand Lodge under date of October 27, 1888, and contained in detail the decision of the Grand Lodge at its last Annual Grand Communication, concerning Bodies claiming themselves to be Masonic and which the Grand Lodge declared to be irregular, illegal, and unmasonic; and also notified the Lodge that the charters of Bucyrus Lodge, No. 139, and Crawford Lodge, No. 443, of Bucyrus, and Ahiman Lodge, No. 492, of Newark, had been arrested in consequence of their failure to comply with the provisions of the edict of the Grand Master, made the preceding year regarding these same irregular Bodies. The election then proceeded, resulting in the choice of the following officers: Bro. Abraham E. Allman, Worshipful Master; Bro. William H. Bolin, Senior Warden; Bro. Jerry Williams, Junior Warden; Bro. John P. Ford, Treasurer; Bro. Samuel R. Moore, Secretary; Bro. Will T. Lewis, Senior Deacon; Bro. Lorenzo D. Abell, Junior Deacon, and Bro. Jacob Diehl, Tyler.

Bro. August W. Hartmeyer was appointed Senior Steward; Bro. W. Marshall Lane, Junior Steward, and Bro. Loren L. Magee, Chaplain.

BRO. ABRAHAM E. ALLMAN

Worshipful Master

A public installation of officers was held January 3, the ceremonies being in charge of Bro. C. C. Frazier and Bro. Ike M. Robinson. The program consisted of an address by the Rev. Bro. Loren L. Magee; a poem by Bro. Ike M. Robinson, and music, which in turn was followed by a banquet.

On July 2, the Lodge conducted the funeral services of Bro. Daniel Hattan. The funeral was held at the late residence on Woodlawn Avenue, after which the cortege moved to Woodlawn Cemetery, where the body was laid to rest in the family mausoleum.

Nineteen meetings were held during the year and six were raised to the degree of Master Mason.

The sixty-fifth election was held on December 5, and the following officers were chosen to serve for the ensuing year: Bro. Abraham E. Allman, Worshipful Master; Bro. William H. Bolin, Senior Warden; Bro. Charles B. Tomlinson, Junior Warden; Bro. John P. Ford, Treasurer; Bro. Samuel R. Moore, Secretary; Bro. Will T. Lewis, Senior Deacon; Bro. Lorenzo D. Abell, Junior Deacon; Bro. J. J. Patterson, Tyler. The Master-elect appointed Bro. J. Parker Bolin, Senior Steward; Bro. Frank Myers, Junior Steward; Bro. H. D. Comer, Organist, and Bro. Loren L. Magee, Chaplain.

This was one of the most eventful years in the history of La Fayette Lodge and Masonry in general throughout the entire State. Nine members of La Fayette Lodge and twenty-five members of Amity Lodge were expelled for unmasonic conduct, because they had refused to sever their membership with the Cerneau Scottish Rite of Freemasonry, declared by the Grand Lodge of Ohio to be clandestine.

Chapter IV

CLANDESTINE MASONRY

"IMITATIVE SOCIETIES" have existed from time immemorial, and for a pattern of imitation, Freemasonry has occupied the predominant place in their regard. During the last century scores of these societies sprang into being, imitating the Freemasons in outward appearance by wearing collars, aprons, and jewels; adopting as a secret means of identification, signs, grips, and passwords; and also calling their place of meeting by a strange misnomer, a Lodge. This class of secret societies claim no connection with Freemasonry, nor do they practice any deception upon their candidates concerning it. Their aims and teachings are similar to our own, and, having been promoted for the betterment of society in general, are entitled to our admiration and support. There is another class of these "imitative societies," however, who have appropriated the rites and ceremonies and even the name of Freemasons. They have been established under no legal authority, nor for any laudable purpose, being promoted purely for pecuniary gain. These spurious Rites masquerade under various names and titles, but are classified by the Masonic student under the general head of illegal or clandestine Masonry. These systems are a dangerous foe to our Institution, using our time-honored name as a cloak to cover their nefarious schemes; selecting as their legitimate prey the credulous and unwary, upon whom they confer their worthless degrees for a very nominal fee. Following the introduction of Scottish Rite Masonry in both Europe and America, imitators busied themselves in the invention of a number of spurious Rites, most of which were of French derivation. The most important of these on the continent of Europe were the Rites of Mizraim and Memphis.

The Rite of Mizraim originated at Milan, Italy, in 1805, being the invention of a number of Scottish Rite Masons who were denied membership in the Supreme Council, then located in that city. The Rite flourished for a time, both in Italy and France, but dissension soon arose, and although its organized bodies continued in existence for a number of years, the Supreme Council was dissolved in 1817. In 1839, two Frenchmen invented the Rite of Memphis, which was probably copied from the extinct Rite of Mizraim, each being identical in character and consisting of ninety degrees, including the Symbolic and Scottish Rite degrees of Freemasonry, with scarcely a change of name. The Rite was not at first recognized by the Grand Orient of France; but in 1862, it was absorbed by the Grand Orient, its Grand Hierophant taking a solemn obligation, divesting himself and his associates of all authority. The Symbolic Lodges under its authority were permitted to continue only on condition that they acknowledge the Grand Orient as the supreme power, and it was decreed that no degrees above that of Master Mason be conferred. In consequence of bad faith on the part of the Grand Hierophant, however, a Sovereign Sanctuary of the Rite of Memphis was founded in New York City, in 1866, by Harry J. Seymour. The Rite of Memphis gained considerable strength in New England and some of the Western States, and special legislation was enacted by the Grand Lodge of Massachusetts in 1881, and the Grand Lodge of Illinois in 1884, for its suppression.

While other Grand Lodges were wrestling with their problems concerning these bogus Rites, it remained for the Grand Lodge of Ohio to take the decisive step in the extermination of "Cerneau Scottish Rite Masonry," one of the oldest and most dangerous systems in the history of pseudo Masonry. The action taken by our own Lodge in this matter was merely an echo of the strife, which for more than five years raged throughout the Masonic Fraternity of Ohio, and threatened our Institution with demoralization, if not complete destruction.

Following the ratification of the agreement, known as the "Grand Constitution," on May 1, 1786, by Frederick the Great, King of Prussia, recognized as Grand Master of the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite of the world, his high powers and prerogatives were transmitted to Supreme Councils, which were composed of nine Brethren in each nation. This authority was, in turn, transmitted to the American continent on May 31, 1801, by Stephen Morin, who, by virtue of a patent issued by the Grand Sovereign Lodge of St. John of Jerusalem, in Paris, France, established a Supreme Council of the Rite at Charleston, South Carolina.

In the course of a few years, all other Supreme Councils throughout the world having ceased to function, this Supreme Council became known as the "Mother Council of the World," and all Scottish Rite Bodies of the present time have indirectly received their authority from it. In 1813, the Jurisdiction of the United States was divided—the States east of the Mississippi and north of the Ohio Rivers being designated Northern Jurisdiction, while the Southern and Western States remained under the authority of the "Mother Council," and have since been known as the Southern Jurisdiction. The Grand East of the Northern Jurisdiction at the present time is at Boston, Massachusetts, while that of the Southern Jurisdiction is at Washington, D. C.

In 1807, a rival Scottish Rite organization was perfected in New York City by Joseph Cerneau, a French jeweler, who was born at Villeblerin, France, in 1763, and emigrated to this country about 1800. It is impossible to say where Cerneau received the degrees of the Scottish Rite, but we know for a certainty that the Supreme Council for the United States, at their meeting at Charleston, South Carolina, in 1813, denounced him and expelled him from the Order.

The Supreme Council of the Cerneau Rite was designated by its founder, under the title of "The Sovereign Grand Consistory of the United States of America, its Territories and Dependencies." Unlike the Rite of Memphis, it claimed no jurisdiction over the three Symbolic degrees of Masonry, conferring from the third to the thirty-second degree upon Master Masons for an insignificant fee. The Cerneau Council ceased its labors in 1827, at the beginning of the anti-Masonic excitement, and resumed work again in 1832. It continued in a somewhat torpid state until 1881, when it was revived by Hopkins Thompson and others, under its old title. From this time forward its growth was phenomenal, especially in Ohio, enlisting under its banner Masons of high moral standing—officers of Lodges, Chapters, Councils, and Commanderies, and even threatening a breach in the official family of the Grand Lodge. It soon became apparent to those in authority that some drastic action must soon be taken to stamp out this monstrosity which menaced the ancient landmarks of our Institution. Practically nothing was done, however, until 1886, when M.·.W.·.Bro. S. Stacker Williams, the Grand Master, in his Annual Address to the Grand Lodge, directed their attention to this vital question in the following statement:

During the winter and spring, the question came to me from many sources with reference to the force, scope, or meaning of Rule 79 of our Code, the question being specially asked if the Bodies styled by their members, Bodies of the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite of Freemasonry subordinate to the Supreme Council of the United States of America, their Territories and Dependencies (so styled), but better known as the Cerneau Bodies, came within the rule. In this, as in all other cases, I took the rule as I found it, without any disposition to give it a meaning or construction other than that given it by the Grand Lodge, and in arriving at my conclusions I took into consideration the conditions which existed at the time of the adoption of that part of the rule, together with the well-known position of this Grand Lodge with reference to an important principle, which enters into the discussion of this question, viz.: the sovereignty and exclusive right to jurisdiction of a governing Masonic Body in territory occupied by it.

After quoting Rule 79, the Grand Master further stated:

"That this Grand Lodge is committed to the doctrine of exclusive jurisdiction, and guards her rights with zealous care. She would be unjust if she did not accord to other governing Masonic Bodies the same rights, with reference to their Subordinates that she claims for herself. Now, as to other Masonic Bodies (exclusive of the Chapter, Council, and Commandery), this rule was given substantially in its present shape in 1875, at which time there were in existence in this State Bodies classed as Masonic under the name of the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite, on the roll of the Supreme Council of the Northern Masonic Jurisdiction of the United States of America." "As Bodies of that Rite, they were then and had been since 1853 the sole occupants of this territory, and for this time in different parts of the State had occupied halls jointly with our Lodges; this, too, with the full knowledge of the Grand Lodge, hundreds of her members, including Grand Masters and other Grand Officers, having received the degrees in those Bodies, and in halls thus jointly occupied." "In deciding the case, then, I applied the same rule that I applied in the case of the Chapter, Council, and Commandery, and held that, as the Grand Lodge had for many years permitted a joint occupancy of her halls by Lodges with Bodies subordinate to one Masonic power, I could not commit her to the power of granting a like privilege to a rival of that power, and hence that Rule 79 of our Code barred Lodges in this Jurisdiction from occupying halls jointly with such rival; and issued my orders to the Lodges throughout the State to that effect."

The action taken by the Grand Master met with the approval of the Committee on Jurisprudence, and received a like endorsement from the Grand Lodge.

In his Annual Address to the Grand Lodge the following year (1887), M.·.W.·.Bro. S. Stacker Williams made the following announcement regarding the decisions made by him during the year:

Inquiries have been made by a large number of Brethren as to the legality of certain Bodies in this Jurisdiction claiming to be Masonic, which go under the name of Cerneau Bodies of the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite. A reference to my decision, made last year and approved by the Grand Lodge, has, in most cases, been a sufficient answer. But a more specific answer has been requested by some who are members of such Bodies, and who desire a direct answer to the question, "Are they regular and legal or irregular and illegal"? To such the answer has been as definite as could be desired, viz.: that they are irregular, illegal, and unmasonic, and ought not to be countenanced or recognized in any manner by Brethren under obedience to this Grand Lodge.

The Committee on Jurisprudence having moved the adoption of this and all other decisions made by the Grand Master, an amendment was offered by Bro. Stoddard, of Columbus:

"To recommit to the Committee on Jurisprudence the fourth decision of the Grand Master, and recommend that this Grand Body take no action in regard to the contending Scottish Rites."

A point of order was then called, which was overruled by the Grand Master, and an appeal being made to the Grand Lodge, the Grand Master was sustained. Bro. J. L'H. Long, of Newark, then took the floor and urged the adoption of the amendment, but owing to the lateness of the hour, further action was postponed until the following day.

On the following morning the Stoddard amendment was debated, pro and con, by members of the Grand Lodge, its principal supporters being Brothers Stoddard and Long. A yea and nay vote was taken of all members present, resulting in 230 being in favor of the adoption of the amendment, and 544 against it. The representatives of La Fayette Lodge voted against the Stoddard amendment.

Early in 1888, the Grand Secretary mailed to each Subordinate Lodge a pamphlet, entitled, "Important Action of the Grand Lodge, Free and Accepted Masons of Ohio." "Published and Distributed by Order of the Grand Master." This pamphlet was headed, "As to Grand Lodge Sovereignty," and was largely composed of two speeches made by R.·.W.·.Bro. Allen Andrews, Grand Orator, before the Grand Lodge of Ohio. The pamphlet stated:

"That at the Annual Communication of the Grand Lodge, held at Cleveland, Ohio, 1886, and at Dayton, Ohio, in 1887, decisive action was taken on the vital question of Masonic Sovereignty." "The integrity of our Order and the power of the Grand Lodge to decide what is and what is not Masonry, was questioned. The right and power of the Grand Lodge to protect itself against fraudulent Bodies claiming to be Masonic was also denied."

Quoting from another page:

"This is not the question of merit between the regular and "Cerneau" Scottish Rite Masons. It does not involve the origin, antiquity, legitimacy, regularity, or supremacy of either organization." "It is not a mere question of superiority in birth, rite, ceremony, influence, power, or numbers between these Bodies. As Master Masons we are not interested in the slightest degree in any controversy that may prevail over these points. Still, however, this is a question of great moment to us—it is a question of Masonic Sovereignty."

Quoting from another page:

"The mercenary peddlers of cheap degrees have invaded the territory of Ohio, and set up these 'Cerneau' Societies; they claim to be Masonic—regular and legitimate Masonry—and are beguiling many good men."

The Cerneau Masons did not take well to this idea of "Grand Lodge Sovereignty," as expounded by Brother Andrews; and, while they made the three Symbolic degrees of legitimate Masonry a prerequisite to their own Rite, they took the position that the "Cerneau Rite" was not a Masonic Body, but merely a Body of Masons. In retaliation for the action of the Grand Lodge, a twenty-four-page circular was issued by order of the "Cerneau Council," which, in turn, was mailed to all Lodges in the State. In this circular, entitled, "A Reply," the author endeavored to refute the statements made by Brother Andrews, and ridiculed the action taken by the Grand Lodge of Ohio.

A meeting of the Sovereign Grand Consistory, Orient of Ohio (Cerneau), was held at Columbus, November 14, 1888, and as a result of it a four-page leaflet was mailed to all Cerneau Masons, stating:

"That being assured by lawyers that the Grand Lodge has exceeded its authority, as above mentioned, and rendered itself subject to the jurisdiction of the civil courts."

It was, therefore, resolved:

"That expulsion on account of membership in this Consistory, or any Bodies subordinate thereto, shall not affect his standing as a member of any of the Bodies of this Rite."

Resolved, That it is the sense of this Consistory that active work should be carried on in every valley of this Rite and Jurisdiction of Ohio; and we renew our pledge of January 11, 1888, "to promote the interests of this Rite and, by lawful efforts, increase its membership and enlarge its influence."

Resolved, That to obtain a more speedy final decision of the legal rights of our members as Master Masons, proceedings in quo warranto and by injunction be at once commenced, and trials had as soon as possible; and that a Committee be appointed, consisting of three members in the Valley of Columbus and one member each in the other Valleys of Ohio, to institute and have charge of such litigation wherever instituted.

The seriousness of the situation can be readily comprehended from the following statements of M.·.W.·.Bro. S. Stacker Williams, Grand Master, made to the Grand Lodge at their Annual Communication of 1888, in which he said:

"The Grand Lodge at its last session said in plain words that certain organizations claiming to be Masonic were irregular, illegal, and unmasonic. It also warned the Craft in this Jurisdiction not to countenance or recognize them in any manner; and that the Brethren throughout the State might know what the Grand Lodge did, it ordered, by unanimous vote, that this information be furnished each Lodge on our roll, prior to its annual meeting, and to be read thereat. To carry this order into effect I had printed in circular form the action of the Grand Lodge, and mailed a copy to every Lodge in the State. The order of the Grand Lodge was that it be furnished, 'prior to their annual meetings,' with instructions to read it at those meetings.

"The clear intent of the order was that the circular letter be read to the Brethren before the election of officers, and in nearly every case this was done, as certificates received by me show. I heard of a couple of cases where the election and all other business was over, and just before the Lodge was closed, when many of the Brethren had retired, it was read. In one or two cases the officers were elected and installed, and the circular read afterwards."

The object of the Grand Lodge in furnishing Lodges with this information in time to be read previous to the election of officers was clear enough. The Grand Lodge, in the plainest manner, admonished the Brethren that they ought not to embarrass a Brother or a Lodge by electing one to office who could not, with a clear conscience and without a suspicion of Masonic perjury, take the customary vow administered before installation. That the above view was generally accepted there can be no doubt, and not only by those who did not belong to the interdicted organizations, but by those who did. I note a few facts. A number of the Brethren, who were members of those organizations, were elected to office in their Lodges; and feeling that while they retained such membership, they were disqualified from serving in the face of the action of the Grand Lodge, fraternally asked their respective Lodges to excuse them. Others, upon their election to Lodge offices, renounced their allegiance to the interdicted Bodies, renewed their vows to their Lodges and to this Grand Lodge, and were installed. I firmly believe that nothing of an unpleasant character would have occurred had it not been for the emissaries or agents of the interdicted Bodies, aided by a few others, who prefer strife to harmony.

These mischief-makers were busy, from the very day the Grand Lodge closed, in instructing their members to secure, if possible, the principal offices in their Lodges, and also instructing them to demand installation. They further instructed them, that in the event they were refused installation, to immediately withdraw from the Lodge room, and report to their Body; and every member was requested, and every representative was required, to be present at a meeting on a given day, when, as the circular said, "action can be taken to provide all Masons with a Masonic home."

It was about the time of the distribution of this rebellious circular that the newspapers teemed with accounts of a forthcoming "Independent Grand Lodge," naming the towns whence the material would be furnished.

At this Communication of the Grand Lodge, the following resolution was presented by Bro. Charles T. Lewis:

"WHEREAS, This Grand Lodge, at its Annual Communication in October, 1887, declared the Bodies calling themselves 'The Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite, its Territories and Dependencies,' and commonly called the 'Cerneau Rite,' to be 'irregular, illegal, and unmasonic,' and that they 'ought not to be countenanced or recognized in any manner by Brethren under obedience to this Grand Lodge;' and,

"WHEREAS, Brethren subordinate to the authority of this Grand Lodge are still selling and conferring the Cerneau and other degrees, pronounced to be irregular, to Master Masons in this Jurisdiction, and are thereby violating the laws of this Grand Body; therefore, be it

"Resolved, That any Mason subordinate to the authority of this Grand Lodge, who shall hereafter take, or receive, or communicate, or be present at, or assist anyone to take or apply for said degrees, or any of them, shall be subject, after due trial under the Code, to expulsion from all the rights and privileges of Masonry."

This resolution was adopted by the Grand Lodge by a large majority. At this same session, the Grand Lodge ordered the charters of Bucyrus Lodge, No. 139, and Crawford Lodge, No. 443, of Bucyrus; and Ahiman Lodge, No. 492, of Newark, arrested and their names stricken from the roll.

In 1888, a third circular was mailed by the Cerneaus, to the Subordinate Lodges of Ohio, containing a portion of the Annual Address of the Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Tennessee, H. H. Ingersoll (Cerneau), made before his Grand Lodge, regarding the appointment of a Grand Representative from the Grand Lodge of Tennessee to and near the Grand Lodge of Ohio.

The "bone of contention" in this case was in the recommendation of Bro. James W. Iredell, Jr., by the Grand Master of Ohio, for the appointment above mentioned, which failed to meet with the approval of the Grand Master of Tennessee.

Considerable space would be required to give a more detailed account of the discord which prevailed in a large number of the Masonic Bodies of Ohio, as a result of the introduction of Cerneau Masonry. Suffice to say that practically every Lodge, Chapter, Council, and Commandery in the larger towns was divided into two factions, each endeavoring, with might and main, to lend victory to the cause they espoused. This era of turmoil was experienced in some of our own Masonic Bodies, especially in Cyprus Commandery, No. 10, Knights Templar, where rebellion existed to such an extent as to cause the revocation of its charter.

Our own Lodge was particularly fortunate throughout the entire affair, only a small minority of our membership being in sympathy with the insurgents. In the list of nine members expelled for disloyalty to the Grand Lodge, all but with few exceptions repented of their actions, and were restored to membership.

BRO. ABRAHAM E. ALLMAN

Worshipful Master

On January 2, a public installation of officers was held, the ceremonies being performed by Bro. John Hartmeyer, assisted by Bro. Ike M. Robinson, of Chandlersville. The ceremonies were followed by a banquet.

On June 24, a celebration was held by the Lodge at Gant Park, in honor of the birth of St. John the Baptist.

On August 25, the funeral ceremonies of Bro. Benjamin F. Urban, a former officer, were conducted by the Lodge in conjunction with the Scottish Rite Masons. The services were held at the Central Methodist Episcopal Church, and burial was made in Woodlawn Cemetery.

Twenty-four meetings were held during the year, seven received the degree of Master Mason, and four were admitted to membership. The names of ninety-seven members were returned to the Grand Lodge.

On December 4, the sixty-sixth annual election was held and Bro. William H. Bolin was elected Worshipful Master. Other officers were: Bro. John L. Mercer, Senior Warden; Bro. Will T. Lewis, Junior Warden; Bro. John P. Ford, Treasurer; Bro. Samuel R. Moore, Secretary; Bro. Michael Liston, Senior Deacon; Bro. W. Marshall Lane, Junior Deacon, and Bro. George K. Harris, Tyler.

The Master-elect appointed Bro. Willard F. Crozier Senior Steward; Bro. Charles W. Truesdell, Junior Steward; Bro. H. D. Comer, Organist, and Bro. T. C. Reed, Chaplain.

BRO. WILLIAM HARVEY BOLIN

Worshipful Master

Brother Bolin was born September 26, 1851, in Hopewell Township, Muskingum County, Ohio. His youth and early manhood were spent in attending the township schools, and working upon the farm. In 1880 he came to this city, where he has since been engaged in farming and merchandising, with the exception of four years—from 1888 to 1892, during which time he was Sheriff of Muskingum County. On November 24, 1872, he was united in marriage to Miss Nancy Emaline Smith, and to this union were born the following children: Gershom M., Fred H., Barton T., Emma L., and Helen M. Bolin.

Brother Bolin was initiated an Entered Apprentice in La Fayette Lodge July 16, 1885; passed to the degree of Fellow Craft August 20, 1885, and raised to the degree of Master Mason October 15, 1885.

He served the Lodge as Senior Steward, 1887; Senior Deacon, 1886; Senior Warden, 1889 and 1890, and Worshipful Master, 1891.

Brother Bolin is now the oldest living Past Master of the Lodge, and resides at 361 West Main Street.

These officers were installed on New Year's Day by Bro. Abraham E. Allman, assisted by Bro. Jacob Diehl.

On June 4, a notice was received from the Grand Secretary, that New England Lodge, No. 4, of Worthington, had seceded from the Grand Lodge, a majority of its members being affiliated with the Cerneau Scottish Rite.

On August 6, permission was granted to a number of Brethren residing in Roseville for the organization of a Lodge of Masons at that place to be known as Roseville Lodge, No. 566. Nineteen meetings were held during 1891, and seven were raised to the degree of Master Mason. The annual return showed a membership of one hundred.

The sixty-seventh election was held December 3, and resulted in the choice of the following officers: Bro. Abraham E. Allman, Worshipful Master; Bro. John L. Mercer, Senior Warden; Bro. Will T. Lewis, Junior Warden; Bro. John P. Ford, Treasurer; Bro. Samuel R. Moore, Secretary; Bro. Charles H. Hoopes, Senior Deacon; Bro. W. Marshall Lane, Junior Deacon, and Bro. Samuel Linton, Tyler.

The appointed officers were: Bro. W. F. Crozier, Senior Steward; Bro. Joseph B. Phillips, Junior Steward; Bro. H. D. Comer, Organist, and Bro. Loren L. Magee, Chaplain.

On December 16, Bro. Samuel Linton, the Tyler-elect, died, and a special dispensation was secured for the election of his successor.

1892

BRO. ABRAHAM E. ALLMAN

Worshipful Master

On January 7, Bro. J. A. Filler was elected Tyler, and the officers were then installed by Bro. William H. Bolin, assisted by Bro. John Hartmeyer.

Fourteen meetings were held during the year, while the annual return showed a loss of three members. The Master Mason degree was conferred but twice.

On December 1, the sixty-eighth election was held, and Bro. John L. Mercer was elected Worshipful Master. The other officers were: Bro. Will T. Lewis, Senior Warden; Bro. W. Marshall Lane, Junior Warden; Bro. John P. Ford, Treasurer; Bro. Samuel R. Moore, Secretary; Bro. C. H. Sebaugh, Senior Deacon; Bro. J. Parker Bolin, Junior Deacon, and Bro. J. A. Filler, Tyler.

BRO. JOHN L. MERCER

Worshipful Master

Brother Mercer was born March 30, 1852, in Wayne Township, Muskingum County, Ohio. He remained upon the home farm until twenty-three years of age, attending the township schools and later teaching school. He came to Zanesville in 1875, and launched in the grocery business, continuing in this until 1898, when he removed to Trinway and entered the contracting business. He served as Councilman of Zanesville and also Commissioner of Muskingum County. On October 9, 1873, he was united in marriage to Miss Sarah E. Warne, of Chandlersville, and to this union were born the following children: Ethel, Rose, Mary A., James L., and Pearl E. Mercer. His first wife died June 2, 1894, and two years later he was united in marriage to Miss Melissa Swope, of Trinway, who still survives.

Bro. Mercer was initiated an Entered Apprentice in La Fayette Lodge May 3, 1873; passed to the degree of Fellow Craft June 9, 1873, and raised to the degree of Master Mason July 17, 1873. He served the Lodge as Senior Warden, 1891 and 1892, and Worshipful Master, 1893, 1894, and 1896.

He was a member of Zanesville Chapter, No. 9, Royal Arch Masons, receiving the Mark Master degree May 2, 1892; Past Master, May 2, 1892; Most Excellent Master, June 6, 1892, and Royal Arch, August 12, 1892.

He received the chivalric degrees in Cyrene Commandery, No. 10, Knights Templar, receiving the Illustrious Order of the Red Cross May 24, 1893, and the Orders of the Temple and Malta, June 20, 1893.

He died October 23, 1923, and was buried in Greenwood Cemetery.

The officers were installed on January 5 by Bro. John Hartmeyer, assisted by Bro. Jacob Diehl.

On March 7, the Lodge conducted the funeral services of Bro. Homer C. Waterman, a former Secretary, the remains being interred in Woodlawn Cemetery.

On June 15, Bro. Ike M. Robinson, of Chandlersville, inspected the Lodge and instructed the officers in the work of the newly revised Ritual.

Twenty meetings were held during this year, seven were raised to the Master Mason degree, and four were admitted to membership. The Lodge now had a membership of one hundred and two.

The sixty-ninth election was held December 7, and Bro. John L. Mercer was re-elected Worshipful Master. Other officers elected were: Bro. J. Parker Bolin, Senior Warden; Bro. W. Marshall Lane, Junior Warden; John P. Ford, Treasurer; Bro. Samuel R. Moore, Secretary; Bro. Edward F. Grimsley, Senior Deacon; Bro. John N. Hamilton, Junior Deacon, and Bro. J. A. Filler, Tyler.

The following officers were appointed by the Master-elect:

Bro. J. B. Griswold, Senior Steward; Bro. C. H. Wines, Junior Steward; Bro. E. C. Bolin, Organist, and Bro. Loren L. Magee, Chaplain.

1894

BRO. JOHN L. MERCER
Worshipful Master

A public installation of officers was held on January 4, and one hundred and eighty people enjoyed the program and the banquet, which followed it. The installing officers were Bro. John R. Stonesipher, of Amity Lodge, and Bro. William H. Bolin.

On March 20, the Lodge conducted the funeral of Bro. J. A. Filler, the Tyler, whose remains were buried in Greenwood Cemetery.

Twenty-four meetings were held during the year 1894, and eight were raised to the degree of Master Mason. The membership had increased to one hundred and seven.

On December 6, the seventieth election was held, resulting in the election of the following officers: Bro. J. Parker Bolin, Worshipful Master; Bro. Edward F. Grimsley, Senior Warden; Bro. J. E. McNeal, Junior Warden; Bro. John P. Ford, Treasurer; Bro. Samuel R. Moore, Secretary; Bro. W. H. Fluke, Senior Deacon; Bro. C. H. Wines, Junior Deacon, and Bro. Jacob Diehl, Tyler.

Bro. U. W. McGee was appointed Senior Steward; Bro. C. H. Heckman, Junior Steward; Bro. E. C. Bolin, Organist, and Bro. Loren L. Magee, Chaplain.

BRO. JOHN PARKER BOLIN
Worshipful Master

Brother Bolin was born in Hopewell Township, Muskingum County, Ohio, February 25, 1863. He received his education in the schoolhouse of District No. 4, Hopewell Township, coming to Zanesville while still a young man. He was a traveling salesman for the W. W. Harper Wholesale Grocery Company for many years, later becoming the junior partner in the merchandising firm of Fowler-Bolin Company. In 1924, he removed to Cleveland, where he engaged in business with his son, continuing in this until his death.

On February 25, 1885, he was united in marriage with Miss Mary Sibald, of Newark, Ohio, and to this union two children were born—Glen O. and Ruth Bolin.

Brother Bolin was initiated an Entered Apprentice in La Fayette Lodge July 19, 1888; passed to the degree of Fellow Craft August 9, 1888, and raised to the degree of Master Mason September 17, 1888.

He served the Lodge as Senior Steward, 1890; Senior Warden, 1894, and Worshipful Master, 1895.

He died at Cleveland, September 19, 1925, and was buried in Woodlawn Cemetery, this city.

A public installation of officers was held on January 3, Bro. John L. Mercer being the installing officer, assisted by Bro. William H. Bolin as Marshal. The ceremonies were followed by a banquet.

On August 1, Zanesville Chapter, No. 52, Order of Eastern Star, was granted permission to meet in the Lodge room.

Fifteen meetings were held this year, and two received the degree of Master Mason. The Lodge again showed a loss of membership, with one hundred and two names upon the roll.

On December 5, the seventy-first election was held and Bro. John L. Mercer was selected to serve a third term as Worshipful Master. Other officers elected were: Bro. Edward F. Grimsley, Senior Warden; Bro. Charles N. Bainter, Junior Warden; Bro. John P. Ford, Treasurer; Bro. Samuel R. Moore, Secretary; Bro. Charles H. Sebaugh, Senior Deacon; Bro. J. T. Hanrahan, Junior Deacon, and Bro. Jacob Diehl, Tyler.

Bro. Edwin E. Power was appointed Senior Steward; Bro. Charles W. Truesdell, Junior Steward; Bro. E. C. Bolin, Organist, and Bro. Loren L. Magee, Chaplain.

BRO. JOHN L. MERCER
WORSHIPFUL MASTER

The officers were publicly installed January 2, the ceremonies being followed by a banquet. The officers were inducted in their stations by Bro. Abraham E. Allman, while Bro. J. Parker Bolin acted as Marshal.

On July 2, the Lodge received a gavel from the Chaplain, Rev. Bro. Loren L. Magee, who was sojourning in the Holy Land. The gavel had been presented to Bro. Magee by St. John's Lodge of Jerusalem. Twenty-three meetings were held this year, but only four received the Master Mason degree. The annual return again showed a loss of membership, with but ninety-seven in good standing.

The Seventy-second Annual Communication was held December 3, and at this meeting a communication from the Grand Lodge was read, making it mandatory for Lodges to examine candidates in the Master Mason degree. The officers elected at this meeting were: Bro. Edward F. Grimsley, Worshipful Master; Bro. Charles N. Bainter, Senior Warden; Bro. Charles H. Sebaugh, Junior Warden; Bro. John P. Ford, Treasurer; Bro. Samuel R. Moore, Secretary; Bro. Will T. Lewis, Senior Deacon; Bro. Perry P. Howser, Junior Deacon, and Bro. James Whitworth, Tyler.

The Master-elect appointed Bro. Edward Charnetzky Senior Steward; Bro. W. D. Matthews, Junior Steward; Bro. E. C. Bolin, Organist, and Bro. Loren L. Magee, Chaplain.

BRO. EDWARD FRANKLIN GRIMSLEY

WORSHIPFUL MASTER

Bro. Grimsley was born in Rappahannock County, Virginia, June 12, 1867. He attended the public school near his home, coming to Zanesville in 1887, where he secured employment with the Oakland Pressed Brick Company. In 1899, he was made manager of this company and continued in this capacity for ten years, when he resigned to accept a similar position with the Hanover Brick Company, of Hanover, Ohio, with which, until recently, he has been identified. On November 18, 1888, he was united in marriage to Miss Fannie B. Gaines, and for many years they resided at 166 Hamline Avenue. In 1926, they removed to Washington, D. C., where they are now located.

Brother Grimsley was initiated an Entered Apprentice in La Fayette Lodge June 4, 1891; passed to the degree of Fellow Craft August 13, 1891, and raised to the degree of Master Mason September 11, 1891.

He served the Lodge as Senior Steward, 1893; Senior Deacon, 1894; Senior Warden, 1895 and 1896; Worshipful Master, 1897, 1898, and 1899.

He is a member of Zanesville Chapter, No. 9, Royal Arch Masons, receiving the Mark Master degree June 19, 1905; Past and Most Excellent degrees, June 26, 1905, and the Royal Arch degree, July 10, 1905.

The officers were installed, January 7, by Bro. Ike M. Robinson, of Chandlersville, assisted by Bro. J. Parker Bolin as Marshal.

Twenty-one meetings were held during the year, five received the Master Mason degree, and one was admitted to membership. The Lodge now showed a gain in membership, with one hundred and two names upon the roster.

The seventy-third election was held on December 2, and Bro. Edward F. Grimsley was re-elected Worshipful Master. Other officers elected were: Bro. Charles N. Bainter, Senior Warden; Bro. Charles H. Sebaugh, Junior Warden; Bro. John P. Ford, Treasurer; Bro. Samuel R. Moore, Secretary; Bro. Will T. Lewis, Senior Deacon; Bro. Perry P. Howser, Junior Deacon, and Bro. James Whitworth, Tyler. Bro. Edward Charnetzky was appointed Senior Steward; Bro. W. Marshall Lane, Junior Steward; Bro. E. C. Bolin, Organist, and Bro. Loren L. Magee, Chaplain.

A public installation was held January 6, and the officers were installed by Bro. John Hartmeyer, assisted by Bro. Abraham E. Allman. A banquet followed the ceremonies.

On June 2, the Lodge attended the dedication ceremonies of the new Lodge room at Dresden, Ohio.

Twenty-nine meetings were held this year. Eight received the Master Mason degree and three were admitted to membership. One hundred and seven names were returned to the Grand Lodge.

On December 1, the seventy-fourth election was held, and Bro. Edward F. Grimsley was elected Worshipful Master a third time. Bro. Charles N. Bainter was chosen Senior Warden; Bro. Richard Nicklin, Junior Warden; Bro. Abraham E. Allman, Treasurer; Bro. Samuel R. Moore, Secretary; Bro. Charles H. Hoopes, Senior Deacon; Bro. Perry Howser, Junior Deacon, and Bro. James Whitworth, Tyler.

Bro. Edward S. Parshall was appointed Senior Steward; Bro. Charles H. Booz, Junior Steward; Bro. P. W. Lilienthal, Organist, and Bro. Loren L. Magee, Chaplain.

BRO. EDWARD FRANKLIN GRIMSLEY

WORSHIPFUL MASTER

The officers were publicly installed, January 5, by Bro. John L. Mercer, assisted by Bro. James B. Carson as Marshal.

On February 2, Bro. Herman F. Achauer, of Amity Lodge, addressed the Lodge regarding the possibility of securing a suitable location for the erection of a new Masonic temple.

On June 22, the Lodge conducted the funeral of Bro. John P. Ford, the veteran Treasurer, who was laid to rest in Greenwood Cemetery. Twenty-four meetings were held in 1899. Eight were admitted to membership by degrees and four to membership by dimit. The total had now increased to one hundred and seventeen.

The seventy-fifth election was held December 7, and resulted in the choice of the following officers: Bro. Charles N. Bainter, Worshipful Master; Bro. Richard Nicklin, Senior Warden; Bro. John Rowe, Junior Warden; Bro. Abraham E. Allman, Treasurer; Bro. Samuel R. Moore, Secretary; Bro. Harry C. Meyer, Senior Deacon; Bro. Robert D. Linn, Junior Deacon; Bro. James Whitworth, Tyler.

The officers appointed were: Bro. E. Hillis Talley, Senior Steward; Bro. F. Leslie Tilton, Junior Steward; Bro. Harry C. Meyer, Organist, and Bro. Loren L. Magee, Chaplain.

BRO. CHARLES NEWTON BAINTER

Worshipful Master

Brother Bainter was born near Otsego, Muskingum County, Ohio, November 30, 1850. He received his early education at the Buker School, near his home, and, upon attaining his majority, located at Norwich, where he conducted an undertaking establishment, and also did cabinet work. He later became the proprietor of a general store in Otsego, coming to Zanesville in 1888 as a Deputy Sheriff under Bro. William H. Bolin. He was later elected Sheriff of Muskingum County, serving one term. He also served as City Auditor of Zanesville.

In 1903, he moved to Portland, Oregon, where he engaged in the general contracting business. On November 11, 1875, he was united in marriage to Miss Anna E. Abbott, and to this union three children were born: Blanche M., Ernest C., and Emmet O. Bainter.

Brother Bainter was initiated an Entered Apprentice in La Fayette Lodge July 7, 1891; passed to the degree of Fellow Craft August 13, 1891, and raised to the degree of Master Mason September 11, 1891. He served the Lodge as Junior Warden, 1896; Senior Warden, 1897, 1898, and 1899, and Worshipful Master, 1900.

He died at Willamina, Oregon, September 29, 1911, and was buried at New Hope Cemetery, two miles north of Adamsville.

The installation was held January 4, the officers being installed by Bro. Edward F. Grimsley, assisted by Bro. John Hartmeyer as Marshal.

On April 5, the Lodge contributed twenty-five hundred dollars toward the erection of a new Temple.

On May 3, the following Committee was named by the Worshipful Master to sell stock in the proposed Masonic Temple: Bros. Charles N. Bainter, Abraham E. Allman, Elmer A. Evans, Charles H. Hoopes, Jefferson C. Crossland, William S. Frazier, Fred E. Hook, John Rowe, and Richard Nicklin.

On June 7, the Lodge voted to increase their stock in the new Temple from twenty-five hundred to four thousand dollars, and in order to encourage the members in the purchase of stock, a three per cent dividend was guaranteed, providing that the Lodge be given an option, whereby it could repurchase this stock at par value, at the expiration of a term of years to be decided upon by the Trustees of the Lodge.

On June 19, the Lodge conducted the funeral of Bro. Samuel Elliott, a Past Master, and the remains were interred in Greenwood Cemetery.

Thirty meetings were held during this year, and twelve received the Master Mason degree. At the end of the fiscal year, the Lodge had a membership of one hundred and twenty-nine.

The Seventy-sixth Annual Communication and election of officers was held December 6, and the officers elected were: Bro. Richard Nicklin, Worshipful Master; Bro. John Rowe, Senior Warden; Bro. Elmer A. Evans, Junior Warden; Bro. Abraham E. Allman, Treasurer; Bro. Samuel R. Moore, Secretary; Bro. Harry E. Hollister, Senior Deacon; Bro. Frank A. Kelly, Junior Deacon, and Bro. James Whitworth, Tyler.

The Master-elect appointed Bro. Caleb B. Powell Senior Steward; Bro. H. W. Totten, Junior Steward; Bro. P. W. Lilienthal, Organist, and Bro. Loren L. Magee, Chaplain. The Trustees were Bro. Richard Nicklin and Bro. Abraham E. Allman.

BRO. RICHARD NICKLIN

WORSHIPFUL MASTER

Brother Nicklin was born at Broseley, Shropshire, England, December 14, 1862. He attended school until sixteen years of age, when he secured employment in the designing department of Maw and Company, encaustic tile manufacturers.

In October, 1888, he came to America and located at Indianapolis, Indiana, where he took charge of the designing department of The United States Encaustic Tiling Company. On October 14, 1889, he came to Zanesville as the chief designer of the American Encaustic Tiling Company, with which company he has since been employed.

On July 3, 1890, he was united in marriage with Miss Alice Oliver, of Broseley, Shropshire, England, the ceremony being performed in the St. George Episcopal Church at New York City. Eight children were born to this union, three of whom still survive.

Brother Nicklin was initiated an Entered Apprentice in La Fayette Lodge December 16, 1897; passed to the degree of Fellow Craft May 12, 1898, and raised to the degree of Master Mason June 23, 1898.

He served the Lodge as Junior Warden, 1899; Senior Warden, 1900, and Worshipful Master, 1901.

He resides at 758 Amelia Street.

The officers were installed, January 3, by Bro. John Hartmeyer, assisted by Bro. Charles N. Bainter as Marshal.

On June 6, the Trustees were authorized by the Lodge to enter into an agreement with Bro. John Rowe, wherein he was to loan to La Fayette Lodge five hundred and fifty dollars for the use of members of the Lodge in the purchase of stock in the new Masonic Temple Company; and three thousand dollars for the use of the Lodge (if desired), all at six per cent interest, for which he was to receive as security eighty-two shares of stock in the old Masonic Hall Association and thirty-five shares of stock in the new Masonic Temple Company, to be formed.

The following is a copy of the resolution adopted by the Lodge regarding the transaction:

RESOLUTION

WHEREAS, La Fayette Lodge, No. 79, F. & A. M., of Zanesville, Ohio, has subscribed for thirty-five share of the capital stock of The Masonic Temple Company of Zanesville, Ohio; and,

WHEREAS, It is necessary, in order to pay the assessments upon the same up to the present date, for this Lodge to borrow the sum of five hundred and fifty dollars ($550.00); and,

WHEREAS, this Lodge is the owner of eighty-two (82) shares of the stock of the Masonic Hall Association; and,

WHEREAS, John Rowe has agreed to loan to sundry members of the Lodge, upon their joint note, the sum of five hundred and fifty dollars ($550.00), payable in one year, from the twenty-second day of May, 1901, with interest at six per cent (6%) per annum, payable annually; and,

WHEREAS, Said members are borrowing said money for the benefit of this Lodge in the manner aforesaid; and,

WHEREAS, It is the desire of this Lodge to secure the said John Rowe, and to protect the signers of said note against any loss by reason of their signatures; and,

WHEREAS, It is the intention of the said John Rowe, in the same manner, to loan for the benefit of this Lodge a sum of money not exceeding three thousand dollars ($3,000.00); and,

WHEREAS, It is the desire of this Lodge to protect all of said parties in like manner; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Trustees of this Lodge are hereby authorized and empowered to transfer and assign, to the said John Rowe, as collateral security for this loan and any sum hereafter made, the eighty-two (82) shares of the Masonic Hall Association, and together with the receipts for all payments by the Trustees of this Lodge upon the stock of the said Masonic Temple Company, which receipts shall be deemed and held; and are intended to assign to the said John Rowe, as collateral security, all rights, title, and interest of this Lodge, in said thirty-five (35) shares of the capital stock of The Masonic Temple Company; and the Trustees are hereby authorized and empowered by an instrument in writing to empower the said John Rowe, upon default in the payment of said money to him by the subscribers of said note, to sell all of said stocks at public or private sale upon ten (10) days' notice to the Trustees of this Lodge, for the best price obtainable for the same in the market, and to apply the proceeds of such sale to the payment of said note. And it is hereby intended to secure the signers of said note, as well as the said John Rowe, by the pledge of said stock against loss.

The note for five hundred and fifty dollars, given by the Lodge, was signed by the following Brethren: Richard Nicklin, Elmer A. Evans, Abraham E. Allman, Harry E. Hollister, and John Hartmeyer.

AGREEMENT

We, the undersigned, Trustees of La Fayette Lodge, No. 79, F. & A. M., of Zanesville, Ohio, in pursuance of authority to us granted by resolution of said Lodge, duly passed on the sixth day of June, 1901, a copy of which is hereto attached, do hereby authorize and empower John Rowe (the pledges of the stock hereto attached and receipts also attached, evidencing the subscription of said Lodge to the stock of The Masonic Temple Company) to sell the stock hereto attached, to-wit, eighty-two (82) shares of the stock in the Masonic Hall Association, and thirty-five (35) shares of the stock of The Masonic Temple Company, at public or private sale at the best price obtainable therefor in the market, upon ten (10) days' written notice to the Trustees of the said Lodge; and we empower him to transfer said stock on the books of said companies, and when sold to receive and receipt for same and apply same on the payment of the note for five hundred and fifty ($550.00) dollars, dated May 22, 1901, hereby attached, provided, however, that no sale of said stock shall be made prior to the maturity of said note. It is hereby agreed that the said John Rowe shall return said stock to the said Trustees or to such persons as shall pay said note to him.

The officers were installed, January 2, by Bro. Richard Nicklin, assisted by Bro. Edward F. Grimsley as Marshal. The installation ceremonies were followed by a banquet.

Chapter V

OUR MASONIC TEMPLE

FOR several years the Craft had agitated the question of erecting a new building to replace the old Temple at Fourth and Market Streets, as its shabby and antiquated appearance had become painfully apparent. This agitation did not take tangible form, however, until February 16, 1900, when a circular was issued by the five Masonic Bodies, signed by Bro. William H. Goodlive, Worshipful Master of Amity Lodge, No. 5; Bro. Charles N. Bainter, Worshipful Master of La Fayette Lodge, No. 79; Bro. James N. Wilson, High Priest of Zanesville Chapter, No. 9; Bro. Benjamin F. Templeton, Thrice Illustrious Master of Zanesville Council, No. 12, and Bro. Tileston F. Spangler, Eminent Commander of Cyrene Commandery, No. 10, calling the Masons of Zanesville together for the purpose of taking definite action toward the fruition of their long-expressed desires of securing new quarters.

Bro. Herman F. Achauer, Secretary of the Masonic Hall Association, presided over this meeting, and Bro. Robert H. McFarland acted as Secretary. By a rising vote of the Brethren present, it was unanimously decided to seek new quarters. After considerable deliberation regarding the advisability of purchasing the Pinkerton Building on Fourth Street (Peoples' Bank Building) and remodeling it to suit the requirements of the various Bodies, and which was declared impractical, it was decided to take the necessary steps toward securing a central site for the erection of a new building.

Bro. William H. Goodlive then secured an option upon the Anna J. Goddard office building and the adjoining lot, which was the property of H. C. Van Voorhis, while Bro. Elmer A. Evans secured an option on the corner lot, belonging to the estate of John W. King.

After securing these options, Bros. William H. Goodlive, Elmer A. Evans, and John Hartmeyer solicited subscriptions for the new enterprise, meeting with more or less indifference upon the part of the Craft. On July 12, 1900, a meeting was held by a number of Masons and a Committee appointed, consisting of Bro. John B. Hunter, Bro. Uri H. Brown, Bro. Orville N. Townsend, Bro. O. F. McKinney, Bro. George W. McCormick, and Mr. William B. Cosgrave, to secure articles of incorporation. This Committee was empowered to name additional members, if deemed necessary, and selected Bro. William H. Goodlive as Secretary, and Bro. Herman F. Achauer as attorney. On March 2, 1901, articles of incorporation were filed with the Secretary of State, fixing the capital stock of The Masonic Temple Company at one hundred thousand dollars, divided into one thousand shares, with a par value of one hundred dollars.

On March 6, 1901, Bros. John B. Hunter, George W. McCormick, and William H. Goodlive purchased the John W. King property, and three days later the Van Voorhis and Goddard properties, which occupied the site of the present Masonic Temple. The books of the new Masonic Temple Company were then opened for subscriptions, and on April 9 the first meeting of the stockholders was held.

At this meeting the first Board of Directors was chosen, consisting of Bro. John B. Hunter, Bro. O. F. McKinney, Bro. Uri H. Brown, Bro. John Hartmeyer, Bro. William H. Goodlive, Bro. J. Kirk Smith, Bro. Herman F. Achauer, Bro. George W. McCormick, Bro. Orville N. Townsend, Bro. James K. Geddes, and Mr. William B. Cosgrave, who was selected to represent the stockholders outside the Craft.

This Board organized by electing Bro. John B. Hunter President; Bro. O. F. McKinney, Vice-president, and Bro. William H. Goodlive, Secretary and Treasurer.

On July 27, the firm of Oscar Cobb & Son, Architects, of Chicago, Illinois, who designed the Schultz Opera block, were selected to draw the plans for the new Temple, and on March 25, 1902, the contract was awarded to Robert H. Evans & Company, of this city, at their bid of $114,433.00.

On Tuesday, June 24, 1902, the corner-stone was laid by the Grand Lodge of Ohio with solemn and impressive ceremonies. The Grand Lodge was opened at 9.30 A. M., with the following

At ten o'clock, the parade was formed on Market and the adjacent streets as follows: Bro. Andrew J. Brown, Tyler, with drawn sword; Bauer's Band; Bro. J. Frank Knowlton and Bro. Frank A. Kelly, Stewards, with white rods; Master Masons; Masters of Lodges; Past Masters; Tomlinson's Band; Grand Tyler, with drawn sword; Grand Stewards, with white rods; Bro. Edward F. Grimsley, Past Master, with golden vessel containing corn; Bro. Oscar Cobb, Architect, with square, level, and plumb; Bro. Elbert S. Ferrell and Bro. Herman F. Achauer, Past Masters, with silver vessels, one containing wine, the other oil; R.·.W.·.Grand Treasurer and R.·.W.·.Grand Secretary; Bro. Charles N. Bainter, Past Master, with large light; Bro. Samuel Rutledge, bearing Holy Bible, square and compasses, supported on either side by the Deacons, Bro. Elmer A. Evans and Bro. John H. Curtis, with black rods; Bro. Abraham E. Allman and Bro. Sanford H. England, Past Masters, bearing two large lights; R.·.W.·.Grand Chaplain; R.·.W.·.Grand Orator; R.·.W.·. Senior and Junior Grand Wardens; R.·.W.·.Deputy Grand Master; W.·.Senior and Junior Grand Deacons, with black rods, and M.·.W.·.Grand Master.

The escort consisted of sixty Knights Templar from Cyrene Commandery, No. 10, Knights Templar.

The line of march was up Market Street to Underwood; out Underwood Street to Main; down Main Street to Fourth, and out Fourth Street to the site of the new Temple.

The corner-stone weighed four tons and was taken from the quarries at Bedford, Indiana. It was laid in the southwest corner of the building, and in the hollow square beneath it was deposited a leaden box containing white lambskin aprons from Lodge of Amity and La Fayette Lodge; aprons of the Chapter and Council; histories of Lodge of Amity, Chapter, Council, and Commandery (none having been written of La Fayette Lodge); copies of various By-laws; Masonic directories; Zanesville directory; Zanesville newspapers; souvenirs of Templar conclaves; postage stamps; postal cards; government envelopes; Chapter marks; coin to the value of ninety-six cents; a loving cup; photographs; copy of Scientific American; curriculum of city schools, and the canceled checks used in the purchase of the site.

On St. John's Day, June 24, 1903, the keys of the city were again presented to the Masonic Fraternity, and the populace once more entered into the spirit of the occasion, endeavoring, to the best of their ability, to make the dedication of the new Masonic Temple in Zanesville a glorious success.

Elaborate preparations had been made for the reception of the visiting Lodges, the armory having been donated for this purpose, while the Probate Courtroom of the courthouse was reserved as headquarters for the various officers.

The Grand Lodge of Ohio assembled in the old Masonic Temple, on Market Street, and its personnel was as follows: M ∴ W ∴ Bro. William A. Belt, Kenton, M ∴ W ∴ Grand Master; R ∴ W ∴ Bro. Orion P. Sperra, Ravenna, R ∴ W ∴ Deputy Grand Master; R ∴ W ∴ Bro. C. G. Ballou, Toledo, R ∴ W ∴ Senior Grand Warden; R ∴ W ∴ Bro. Lewis P. Schaus, Newark, R ∴ W ∴ Junior Grand Warden; R ∴ W ∴ ————————, R ∴ W ∴ Grand Treasurer; R ∴ W ∴ Bro. Jacob H. Bromwell, Cincinnati, R ∴ W ∴ Grand Secretary; R ∴ W ∴ Bro. Horace A. Irvin, Dayton, R ∴ W ∴ Grand Orator; R ∴ W ∴ Bro. George D. Copeland, Marion, R ∴ W ∴ Grand Marshal; W ∴ Bro. J. D. Miller, Franklin, W ∴ Senior Grand Deacon; W ∴ Bro. Charles S. Hoskinson, Zanesville, W.·.Junior Grand Deacon; W.·.Bro. H. C. Jeremiah, Probasco, Grand Tyler.

A Lodge of Master Masons was opened by La Fayette Lodge with the following officers: Bro. John Rowe, Worshipful Master; Bro. Elmer A. Evans, Senior Warden; Bro. E. Hillis Talley, Junior Warden; Bro. Abraham E. Allman, Treasurer; Bro. Samuel R. Moore, Secretary; Bro. Frank A. Kelly, Senior Deacon; Bro. Herbert C. Bone, Junior Deacon, and Bro. James Whitworth, Tyler.

The parade moved promptly at two o'clock from the old Temple on Market Street. The Marshals were Bro. Richard Nicklin, Bro. Edward F. Grimsley, and Bro. J. Parker Bolin, of La Fayette Lodge, and Bro. John Curtis and Bro. Charles V. Paul, of Lodge of Amity. The parade was headed by the Bauer and Seventh Regiment Bands, followed by Cyrene Commandery, No. 10, Knights Templar. The visiting Lodges then came next; then La Fayette Lodge, Lodge of Amity, Grand Tyler with drawn swords; carpet carried by four Past Masters; Grand Stewards, with white rods; Grand Treasurer and Grand Secretary; Past Master, with Holy Bible, square, and compasses; Grand Chaplain; Past Grand Officers carrying three lighted tapers; Junior Grand Warden with golden vessel containing corn; Senior Grand Warden with silver vessel containing wine, Deputy Grand Master with silver vessel containing oil; Past Grand Masters, Grand Deacons, and Grand Master. The procession moved up Market Street to Fifth, out Fifth Street to Main, down Main Street to Third, out Third Street to Market, up Market Street to Seventh, out Seventh Street to Main, down Main Street to Fifth, out Fifth Street to South, down South Street to Fourth, and out Fourth to the new Masonic Temple.

The Grand Lodge officers were presented by Bro. Smith T. Brown, Worshipful Master of Lodge of Amity, No. 5, after which the ceremonies of dedication were performed.

As the new Temple neared completion, it was evident to the officers of the various Masonic Bodies that some method must be devised to meet the expenditure of furnishing the new Lodge rooms, as the furniture of the old Temple was as shabby as the building itself. In order to meet this emergency, an indoor carnival, known as the "Masonic Guild Fair," was held on the first floor of the new building. This Fair lasted two weeks, from June 22 to July 4, the proceeds of which amounted to two thousand, three hundred and seventy-two dollars and ninety-six cents, and this amount was divided equally between the two Lodges, the Chapter, and the Commandery.

It was planned to open this Fair with a monster parade, but owing to the inclemency of the weather this part of the program was postponed until the following day. Accordingly, on Tuesday evening an immense crowd thronged the streets, which, according to the testimony of competent judges, was the largest concourse of people that had ever assembled in Zanesville on an occasion of a similar nature. The parade formed on Market Street, moving promptly at seven-thirty o'clock. The line of march being up Market Street to Seventh, out Seventh Street to Main, down Main Street to First, then counter marching up Main and out Fourth to the Masonic Temple. The Bauer and Seventh Regiment Bands were consolidated for this occasion. The procession was headed by uniformed candle-bearers and mounted buglers, followed by the entire city police force. Bro. Tileston F. Spangler, Grand Marshal, came next with his aides, consisting of Bro. Charles A. Sullivan (Chief of Staff), Bro. Charles A. Rosa, Bro. J. Parker Bolin, Bro. James B. Anderson, Bro. R. R. Twiggs, Bro. William C. Handschy, Bro. Sanford H. England, Bro. Charles T. Atwell, Bro. A. M. Templeton, and Bro. Alexander Robertson, all of whom were mounted. These were followed by a carriage containing Bro. William B. Deacon, Mayor of Zanesville; Colonel Noble F. Martin, Manager of the Fair, and Bro. W. F. Woodward. Next came the bands, followed by King Solomon's float, with Bro. James Benjamin, one of the oldest members of the Craft, assuming the rôle of King Solomon, to the entire satisfaction of the spectators. Canton Nova, Patriarchs Militant, of the I. O. O. F., came next, while the Second Division was composed of the B. P. O. Elks, preceded by a red fire float. Following the Elks came the uniformed ranks of the Knights of Pythias and the Modern Woodmen. The Zavi Club, Nobles of the Mystic Shrine, was next in line, followed by the Master Masons, and lastly, the Knights Templar.

At the conclusion of the parade, thousands rushed to the Temple to attend the Fair, the result being an indescribable jam. The crowd around the building became so dense that the musicians were sent to the sixth floor, where dancing was enjoyed until a late hour.

On September 19, memorial services were held by the Lodge in honor of our martyred President, Bro. William McKinley, who was a member of Eagle Lodge, No. 431, Canton, Ohio. Suitable resolutions of respect were drafted and mailed to the widow, and were by her gratefully acknowledged.

Thirty-one meetings were held. Thirteen received the Master Mason degree and three were admitted to membership. The annual return showed a membership of one hundred and thirty-nine.

The seventy-seventh election was held December 5, and resulted in the selection of the following officers: Bro. John Rowe, Worshipful Master; Bro. Elmer A. Evans, Senior Warden; Bro. E. Hillis Talley, Junior Warden; Bro. Abraham E. Allman, Treasurer; Bro. Samuel R. Moore, Secretary; Bro. Frank A. Kelly, Senior Deacon; Bro. Roy R. Nowell, Junior Deacon, and Bro. James Whitworth, Tyler.

Bro. John Rowe and Bro. William H. Bolin were appointed Trustees for one year. Bro. Caleb B. Powell was appointed Senior Steward; Bro. Andrew J. Fouts, Junior Steward; Bro. W. P. Lilienthal, Organist, and Bro. Frank W. Bope, Chaplain.

BRO. JOHN ROWE

WORSHIPFUL MASTER

Brother Rowe was born in Germany, September 24, 1855. His parents emigrated to this country when he was a very small boy and settled in Syracuse, New York, where he attended school. Practically all of his working career has been devoted to some branch of tile or pottery business, and in following this vocation he has worked in various cities throughout the country.

In 1894, he became superintendent of the glaze department of The American Encaustic Tiling Company, continuing in this capacity for sixteen years.

In 1910, he located in Los Angeles, California, where he organized the Empire China Company, at Burbank, California, and later the Mission China Company, at Los Angeles, in which company he is interested at the present time.

On December 29, 1875, he was united in marriage to Miss Hannah Robinson, the marriage taking place at Smith's Ferry, Pennsylvania. This union has been blessed with ten children, eight of whom still survive. The children are: John (Jr.), Alice, Elizabeth, Sarah, William, George, Clara, Harry, Charles, and James Rowe.

Brother Rowe was initiated an Entered Apprentice in La Fayette Lodge September 15, 1898; passed to the degree of Fellow Craft December 15, 1898, and raised a Master Mason January 18, 1899. He served the Lodge as Junior Warden, 1900; Senior Warden, 1901, and Worshipful Master, 1902, 1903, 1904, and 1908.

He received the Capitular degrees in Zanesville Chapter, No. 9, Royal Arch Masons, as follows: Mark Master, April 3, 1899; Past and Most Excellent Masters, April 10, 1899, and Royal Arch, April 17, 1899.

He passed the Circle of Perfection in Zanesville Council, No. 12, Royal and Select Masters, January 18, 1900.

He received the degrees of Chivalry in Cyrene Commandery, No. 10, Knights Templar, as follows: Illustrious Order of the Red Cross, May 30, 1899; Orders of the Temple and Malta, June 27, 1899. He served the Commandery as Standard Bearer, 1903-1905; Junior Warden, 1905-06; Senior Warden, 1906-07: Captain-General, 1907-08; Generalissimo, 1908-09, and Eminent Commander, 1909-10.

He resides at Burbank, California.

On November 6, a new set of jewels was purchased by the Lodge at a cost of forty-six dollars and fifteen cents. Our old jewels, which were originally the property of Friendship Lodge, No. 89, of Barnesville, were, at the written request of that Lodge, returned to them. The amount received for them was two dollars and fifty cents.

Thirty-four meetings were held; twenty-nine were admitted to membership by degrees, and one by affiliation.

The membership had now increased to one hundred and fifty-seven.

The seventy-eighth election was held December 4, and Bro. John Rowe was re-elected Worshipful Master. Other officers chosen were: Bro. Elmer A. Evans, Senior Warden; Bro. E. Hillis Talley, Junior Warden; Bro. Abraham E. Allman, Treasurer; Bro. Samuel R. Moore, Secretary; Bro. Frank A. Kelly, Senior Deacon; Bro. Roy R. Nowell, Junior Deacon, and Bro. James Whitworth, Tyler.

Bro. John Rowe and Bro. Elmer A. Evans were chosen Trustees for the year. Bro. Caleb B. Powell was appointed Senior Steward, and Bro. William H. Matheney, Junior Steward.

BRO. JOHN ROWE
WORSHIPFUL MASTER

At a meeting held on New Year's night, Bros. Albert Adams, Elmer A. Evans, and John Hartmeyer were appointed a Committee to confer with the Committees from the other Bodies regarding the organization and maintenance of a Masonic Club in Zanesville.

On January 15, a joint public installation was held by the two Lodges, with M.·.W.·.Bro. E. L. Lybarger, Past Grand Master, acting as installing officer, while M.·.W.·.Bro. Ike M. Robinson, Past Grand Master, performed the duties of Grand Marshal. The books of both Lodges were inspected at this meeting by M.·.W.·.Bro. William Cunningham, Past Grand Master.

On March 5, the annual dues were raised from two to three dollars per year, and the fee for membership from one to five dollars, effective at once; and the fee for degrees was raised from thirty to forty dollars, effective June 4.

On April 9, the funeral ceremonies of Bro. Lewis Moore, Past Master, were conducted by the Lodge, with Cyrene Commandery, No. 10, Knights Templar, acting as escort. Burial was made in Greenwood Cemetery.

On June 25, the first meeting was held in the new Temple by La Fayette Lodge.

On October 1 the Order of the Eastern Star was granted the use of the Lodge room on Tuesday nights, providing they paid seventy-five dollars per year for janitor service.

Forty meetings were held this year, and twenty-five received the Master Mason degree.

At the close of the fiscal year, the Lodge had increased its membership to one hundred and eighty-seven.

The seventy-ninth election was held December 3, and the following officers were elected: Bro. John Rowe, Worshipful Master; Bro. Elmer A. Evans, Senior Warden; Bro. E. Hillis Talley, Junior Warden; Bro. John Hartmeyer, Treasurer; Bro. Samuel R. Moore, Secretary; Bro. Frank A. Kelly, Senior Deacon; Bro. Robert G. Bowden, Junior Deacon, and Bro. James Whitworth, Tyler.

The Trustees were Bro. John Rowe and Bro. Elmer A. Evans. Bro. William H. Mathena was appointed Senior Steward; Bro. H. C. Bone, Junior Steward; Bro. Frank W. Bope, Chaplain, and Bro. W. P. Lilienthal, Organist.

BRO. JOHN ROWE

WORSHIPFUL MASTER

The officers were installed, January 7, by Bro. Richard Nicklin, assisted by Bro. William H. Bolin as Marshal. At this meeting the salary of the Secretary was increased from one dollar and fifty cents to two dollars per meeting.

Thirty-two meetings were held this year. Fourteen were admitted to membership by degrees and one by affiliation. One hundred and ninety-eight names were returned to the Grand Lodge.

BRO. ELMER ANDERSON EVANS

Worshipful Master

Brother Evans was born in Zanesville, April 9, 1868. After completing his studies in the schools of this city he learned the trade of brick and stone mason. The Evans family have been prominently identified with the building trade of this city for many years. Bro. Robert Evans, the father of Elmer, in partnership with Daniel Hattan, constructed the Masonic Temple on the corner of Fourth and Market Streets, and with his two sons, Robert H. and Elmer A., in the firm of Robert H. Evans and Company, erected our present Temple.

Brother Evans has been engaged in the sale of building materials for many years, and was the founder of the Zanesville Builders' Supply Company of this city. In 1913, in partnership with Ray Tanner and T. P. Perkins, he organized the Zanesville Washed Gravel Company, one of the largest industries of its kind in Ohio, and a few years later became the sole owner, continuing in this capacity until August 7, 1925, when it was sold.

In civic affairs, Brother Evans served two years as Service Director of the city of Zanesville. In 1917, at the beginning of the World War, he was appointed by President Wilson as chairman of the Draft Board for this county, and for the greater part of two years devoted most of his time to the discharge of this patriotic duty.

On October 21, 1891, he was united in marriage to Miss Anna L. Werner, and to this union two children were born, Russell R. and Helen W. Evans.

Brother Evans was initiated an Entered Apprentice in La Fayette Lodge July 21, 1898; passed to the degree of Fellow Craft August 18, 1898, and raised to the degree of Master Mason September 29, 1898.

He served the Lodge as Junior Warden, 1901; Senior Warden, 1902, 1903, and 1904; Worshipful Master, 1905.

He was active in the organization of the Masonic Club, and served one year as its President. After the Lodges assumed control of it, he was again appointed a member of the Board of Governors, and served five consecutive years as Vice-President.

He served four years as Lecturer of the Eighteenth Masonic District of Ohio, and while serving in this capacity was mainly responsible for the organization of the Past Masters' Association of this district, in which organization he holds the honorary title of President-emeritus.

He is a member of Zanesville Chapter, No. 9, Royal Arch Masons, receiving the degree of Mark Master November 21, 1898· Past and Most Excellent Masters, December 9, 1898, and Royal Arch, December 26, 1898.

He received the Cryptic degrees in Zanesville Council, No. 12, Royal and Select Masters, April 13, 1899, and was greeted a Super-Excellent Master November 14, 1907.

He received the Illustrious Order of the Red Cross in Cyrene Commandery, No. 10, Knights Templar, April 4, 1899, and the Orders of the Temple and Malta, May 9, 1899, serving the Commandery as Warder, 1905-06; Standard Bearer, 1906-07; Junior Warden, 1907-1909; Generalissimo, 1909-10, and Eminent Commander, 1910-11.

Brother Evans is a Scottish Rite Mason of the Thirty-second degree, being affiliated with Cambridge Lodge of Perfection; Cambridge Council, Princes of Jerusalem; Cambridge Chapter, Rose Croix de H. R. D. M.: all of the Valley of Cambridge, and Scioto Consistory Sublime Princes of the Royal Secret, Valley of Columbus.

He is a member of Aladdin Temple, A. A. O. N. M. Shrine, of Columbus, and Amrou Grotto, No. 45, M. O. V. P. E. R.

He is a director of the Masonic Temple Company, and is now serving as its President.

He resides at 919 Brighton Boulevard.

The installation was held January 5, the ceremonies being performed by Bro. John Rowe, assisted by Bro. Richard Nicklin.

On September 7, the Lodge voted to increase their loan to sixty-five hundred dollars, in order to liquidate their indebtedness to The Masonic Temple Company.

At this meeting, a resolution was introduced to amend the By-laws, whereby a certificate of life membership might be obtained upon payment of a stipulated amount of dues, said amount to be based upon the age of the member. At the next Stated Communication this resolution was referred to a Committee, who, after two months' deliberation, reported that the proposed amendment was incompatible with the Code of the Grand Lodge, and asked that further action be deferred, which recommendation was adopted.

Thirty-one meetings were held during the year, and fifteen new members were received on degrees. The annual return showed a list of two hundred and ten members.

At the close of the year, the Lodge owned ten thousand dollars worth of Masonic Temple Company stock, with liabilities amounting to sixty-nine hundred dollars, consisting of notes to the amount of forty-two hundred dollars held by the Dresden National Bank, and for twenty-seven hundred dollars held by the Security Trust and Savings Bank of this city.

The eighty-first election was held December 7, resulting in the choice of the following officers: Bro. E. Hillis Talley, Worshipful Master; Bro. Frank A. Kelly, Senior Warden; Bro. Roy R. Nowell, Junior Warden; Bro. John Hartmeyer, Treasurer; Bro. Samuel R. Moore, Secretary; Bro. W. W. Clements, Senior Deacon; Bro. Herbert C. Bone, Junior Deacon, and Bro. James Whitworth, Tyler.

BRO. FRANK LEONARD D. FERREL

WORSHIPFUL MASTER

Brother Ferrel was born in Zanesville, May 22, 1878. The early years of his life were divided between Columbus and Zanesville, and he attended school at both places. After leaving school, he secured employment at the J. B. Owens Pottery Company, and since then his entire life has been spent in the pottery business—first, as a decorator, but for the past sixteen years a designer of art pottery. During his thirty years' experience he has been identified with the J. B. Owens Pottery, S. A. Weller Pottery, Zanesville Art Pottery, Peters and Reed, and lastly the Roseville Pottery, where for the past six years he has served in the capacity of art director.

Brother Ferrel was initiated an Entered Apprentice in La Fayette Lodge March 19, 1908; passed to the degree of Fellow Craft April 16, 1908, and raised to the degree of Master Mason May 21, 1908. He served as Junior Deacon, 1909; Senior Deacon, 1910; Junior Warden, 1911; Senior Warden, 1912, and Worshipful Master, 1913.

He received the Capitular degrees in Zanesville Chapter, No. 9, Royal Arch Masons, as follows: Mark Master, April 12, 1909; Past and Most Excellent Masters, April 19, 1909, and Royal Arch, May 10, 1909. He served the Chapter as Principal Sojourner in 1911.

He received the Cryptic degrees in Zanesville Council, No. 12, Royal and Select Masters, September 15, 1915, and was greeted a Super-Excellent Master, November 18, 1915.

He is a member of Cyrene Commandery, No. 10, Knights Templar, receiving the Illustrious Order of the Red Cross, April 18, 1911; Knights Templar and Knight of Malta, May 2, 1911.

Brother Ferrel is a Scottish Rite Mason of the Thirty-second degree, and is affiliated with Cambridge Lodge of Perfection; Cambridge Council, Princes of Jerusalem; Cambridge Chapter, Rose Croix de H. R. D. M., of the Valley of Cambridge, and Scioto Consistory, Sublime Princes of the Royal Secret, of the Valley of Columbus. He is a member of the Muskingum County Association, Ancient Accepted Scottish Rite Masons, and served as Secretary in 1920.

He is affiliated with Aladdin Temple, A. A. O. N. M. Shrine, of Columbus, and Amrou Grotto, No. 45, M. O. V. P. E. R., of this city. He is Secretary of the Zavi Shrine Club.

He is unmarried and lives, with his mother, on the west pike, near Zanesville.

The officers were installed, January 2, by Bro. Walter L. Powell, assisted by Bro. Roy R. Nowell as Marshal. Following the installation, Past Master jewels were presented to Bro. E. Hillis Talley, Bro. John Rowe, Bro. Frank A. Kelly, Bro. Elmer A. Evans, Bro. Roy R. Nowell, and Bro. Walter L. Powell. The presentation was made by M.·.W.·.Bro. Charles S. Hoskinson.

On March 6, a beautiful jewel was presented to Bro. Samuel R. Moore as a token of esteem for his long and faithful service as Secretary.

On March 20, the Miami, Scioto, and Muskingum River valleys were swept by a disastrous flood, and thousands of the Brethren were rendered homeless by high water and the fire resulting from it. Immediate assistance was necessary, and the proclamation issued by M.·.W.·.Bro. Edwin S. Griffiths, Grand Master, in the name of the Grand Lodge of Ohio, that "Masonry stood ready to supply a million dollars, if need be, to relieve the distressed," was not only ratified by every Subordinate Lodge in Ohio, but also by every Grand Lodge in the United States.

On Thursday afternoon, April 3, the Lodge held its first Stated Communication following the flood, and five hundred dollars were appropriated for the immediate relief of our members who had suffered from the flood. Fifty dollars were also received from Cambridge Lodge, No. 66, to be used for the same purpose, and a Committee was appointed consisting of Bro. Frank L. D. Ferrel, Bro. Zon L. Snyder, Bro. Leroy H. Talley, Bro. Charles F. Spence, Bro. Wilber J. Mendenhall, and Bro. Samuel R. Moore to distribute this money to the best of their judgment.

Bros. Harry E. Hollister and Wilber J. Mendenhall were appointed to represent the Lodge on a Committee of Relief, consisting of representatives of the Grand Lodge of Ohio, and Bros. Isaac P. Humphrey and Henry J. Knoedler, of the Lodge of Amity.

Contributions made to the Grand Lodge of Ohio for flood relief amounted to ninety-four thousand, one hundred and twenty-four dollars, and ninety-two cents. The Masons of Ohio donated thirty-one thousand, one hundred dollars and forty-three cents of this amount, while contributions from other Grand Jurisdictions amounted to sixty-three thousand, twenty-four dollars and forty-nine cents. The Committee in Zanesville distributed sixteen thousand dollars of this amount.

On June 24, the Lodge met in conjunction with the Lodge of Amity for the purpose of celebrating St. John's Day. The Masons, headed by Bauer's band, paraded over the principal streets, after which they took cars to Moxahala Park, five miles south of Zanesville, where amusements of various kinds were provided for their entertainment.

On July 2, the Lodge conducted the funeral of Bro. Oliver G. Davis, a Past Master. Brother Davis was a musician and all the members of the Bauer and Seventh Regiment bands assembled to do him honor. The services was conducted at the home, on Forest Avenue, and the body was interred in Greenwood Cemetery.

Forty meetings were held during the year, and twenty-six were raised to the degree of Master Mason. Two were admitted to membership. The annual return showed a list of three hundred and thirty-seven members.

The Lodge owned one hundred shares of stock in the Masonic Temple Company, while its liabilities amounted to twenty-five hundred dollars, composed of notes held by the State Security Bank and Christina Stark.

On December 4, the eighty-ninth election was held and the following officers were elected: Bro. Zon L. Snyder, Worshipful Master; Bro. Cecil W. Tanner, Senior Warden; Bro. William C. Dawson, Junior Warden; Bro. Wilber J. Mendenhall, Treasurer; Bro. Samuel R. Moore, Secretary; Bro. Harry S. McClelland, Senior Deacon; Bro. Walter J. Carson, Junior Deacon, and Bro. James Whitworth, Tyler.

The Master-elect appointed Bro. Leo C. Hufford Senior Steward; Bro. Harley W. Frame, Junior Steward; Bro. Charles F. Spence, Organist, and Bro. Harry E. Hollister, Chaplain. The Trustees were: Bro. Elmer A. Evans, Bro. E. Hillis Talley, and Bro. Richard Nicklin.

BRO. ZON L. SNYDER

Worshipful Master

Brother Snyder was born at Sarahsville, Noble County, Ohio, March 14, 1885. The family came to Zanesville, in 1892, when Zon was seven years of age. After attending the public schools of this city until seventeen years of age, he entered the employ of the Bailey Drug Company, where he learned the rudiments of the drug business. He continued in this line of endeavor, working for various stores, until June, 1918, when he entered the employ of the Ohio Truss Company, of Cincinnati, as traveling salesman. In February, 1919, he removed to Los Angeles, California, as the representative of this concern, where he still resides.

On January 28, 1914, he was united in marriage to Miss Grayce Fields, of this city, and to this union a daughter, Margaret Estell Snyder, was born.

Brother Snyder was initiated an Entered Apprentice in La Fayette Lodge June 11, 1908; passed to the degree of Fellow Craft July 16, 1908, and raised to the degree of Master Mason August 20, 1908. He served the Lodge as Senior Steward, 1909; Junior Deacon, 1910; Senior Deacon, 1911; Junior Warden, 1912; Senior Warden, 1913, and Worshipful Master, 1914.

He received the Capitular degrees in Zanesville Chapter, No. 9, Royal Arch Masons, as follows: Mark Master, March 13, 1911; Past and Most Excellent Master, March 20, 1911, and Royal Arch, March 27, 1911. He served the chapter as Scribe in 1912.

He received the Chivalric degrees in Cyrene Commandery, receiving the Illustrious Order of the Red Cross February 27, 1912; Orders of the Temple and Malta, April 2, 1912.

The officers were installed, on New Year's night, by M.·.W.·. Bro. Ike M. Robinson, Past Grand Master, assisted by Bro. Frank M. Ransbottom, District Lecturer, as Grand Marshal. Preceding the installation, a banquet was served to the members and their ladies.

At the meeting held February 5 the Trustees were appointed a Committee to consider the question of taking over the Masonic Club, which, up to this time, had been under the exclusive control of its individual members.

On March 5, the following report was submitted by Bros. Elmer A. Evans, Richard Nicklin, and E. Hillis Talley, of La Fayette Lodge, and Harry W. Ross, John O. Pennington, and Henry J. Knoedler, from Amity, regarding the Masonic Club of Zanesville:

To the Officers and Members of La Fayette and Amity Lodges, F. & A. M.:

We, the undersigned Committees, jointly recommend that the two Blue Lodges take over the Masonic Club and divide the expense of conducting the Club, according to the membership of each Lodge.

We feel that, as Masons, we owe the young men of our community who are, or may become, members of the Order a place where they may meet in a social way to improve and amuse themselves.

The expense of conducting the Club, and maintaining the quarters in good repair, the furnishing of the necessary papers, magazines, etc., together with the carekeeper for same, should not exceed $2,400.00 per year. For the small sum of four cents per week for each one of us, this additional expense can be met, and every Mason of the city can feel that he has contributed to the welfare of our young men even should he not avail himself of the privileges the Club would afford.

We recommend that the expense be divided as follows: On the first day of April, July, October, and January next, Amity Lodge pay into the Club treasury $375.00, and La Fayette Lodge $225.00, and each succeeding year thereafter they pay pro rata according to their membership.

We suggest the management of the Club be vested in a Board of Control, selected as follows: The Master of each Lodge to appoint three, the six selecting one more, and the seven, with the two Masters, constituting the Board.

We feel sure the Directors of The Masonic Temple Company will cancel the debt for rent due from the Club, provided the Lodges take control of it. This will give the Club to the Lodges free from debt.

A rising vote of those present was taken, which resulted in thirty-six members voting in favor of the recommendation of the Committee and thirty-nine against it.

After considerable debate, it was Resolved, That La Fayette Lodge, in conjunction with the Lodge of Amity, assume control of the Masonic Club, and that the question of financing the same be left to the discretion of the Joint Committee, who were to report their action at the next Stated Communication.

This resolution carried by a vote of forty-five to twenty-one. On April 2, the following report was submitted by the Trustees:

To the Worshipful Master, Officers, and Brethren of La Fayette Lodge:

Brethren—Your Committee appointed to report on the advisability of the Blue Lodges taking over the Masonic Club, having made a report at the last regular meeting, and being ordered to make further investigation and again report, be requested to submit the following:

First, The Committee of both Lodges met in joint conference and, after full discussion, it was the unanimous opinion that it will be for the best interests of the Masons of Zanesville for the two Blue Lodges to take over and control the Masonic Club jointly.

Further, It would be unmasonic for either of the Blue Lodges to attempt to control it independent of the other, and, unless both can and will act in harmony, Amity Lodge should rescind her action taken at the last regular meeting, keeping in mind always the teachings of our Order, "Harmony being the strength and support of all institutions, especially this."

Second, From the Secretary's books, Brother Mendenhall has prepared a financial statement, which convinces us that La Fayette Lodge can successfully assume her share of the burden of taking over the Club.

We recommend that, beginning with the next fiscal year, the dues be raised to $5.00 per year, which increase will enable La Fayette Lodge to meet her share of the expense incident to maintaining a Masonic Club.

Third, We have endeavored, so far as possible, to ascertain from those members who would be the least likely to derive a direct pleasure or benefit from the Club, how they feel toward the proposition, and, with but two or three exceptions, they have expressed themselves as heartily in favor of the project—some for the good it may do others, especially the younger members, and others because it will afford an opportunity for all Masons of the community to meet together in a social way.

Fourth, We again endorse the plan submitted, to-wit: Amity Lodge to pay $375.00, La Fayette to pay $225.00 into the Club treasury, quarterly in advance, for the maintenance and running expenses. That the present Board of Governors turn over to the Blue Lodges, or their representatives, all the Club furniture and fixtures, free of cost, and free from any back rent.

Your Committee understands that the rent for the quarters for the balance of the fiscal year will be $100.00 per month.

Respectfully submitted,

E. A. Evans,
R. Nicklin,
E. H. Talley.

This report was adopted by a vote of seventy-six to eight. The Worshipful Master appointed Bro. Wilber J. Mendenhall, Bro. Elmer A. Evans, and Bro. Cecil W. Tanner to serve as members of the Board of Governors.

On June 4, the annual dues were raised from three to five dollars.

On St. John's Day, June 24, a joint celebration of Amity and La Fayette Lodges was held. The Lodge was opened at nine o'clock in the morning. A procession was then formed, composed of the two Lodges and Cyrene Commandery, No. 10, Knights Templar, headed by the Bauer band. After parading over the principal streets of the city, the Brethren took cars to Moxahala Park, where a basket picnic was held. The principal speakers of the day were: M.·.W.·.Bro. Charles J. Pretzman, Grand Master, of Columbus; M.·.W.·.Bro. Edwin S. Griffiths, Past Grand Master, of Cleveland, and M.·.W.·.Bro. Ike M. Robinson, Past Grand Master, of Chandlersville.

Fifty-seven meetings were held during this year. Fifty-two were raised to the degree of Master Mason and two were admitted by dimit. This was by far the largest number of candidates to receive the degrees in one year. The annual return showed a list of three hundred and eighty members.

On December 3, the ninetieth Annual Communication was held and the following officers were elected for the coming year: Bro. Cecil W. Tanner, Worshipful Master; Bro. William C. Dawson, Senior Warden; Bro. Harry S. McClelland, Junior Warden; Bro. Wilber J. Mendenhall, Treasurer; Bro. Samuel R. Moore, Secretary; Bro. Charles E. Zimmer, Senior Deacon; Bro. Orrin Pearson, Junior Deacon, and Bro. Leo C. Hufford, Tyler.

BRO. CECIL W. TANNER

WORSHIPFUL MASTER

Brother Tanner was born in Zanesville, August 1, 1888. He is a graduate of the Zanesville High School and the Meredith Business College. After completing his business course, he accepted a position in the office of the Zanesville and Western Railway, at Fultonham, where he remained until 1913. In 1914, he was appointed Deputy Auditor of Muskingum County, under Auditor John O. Pennington, and continued in this office for two years. He was Auditor of the city of Zanesville for two years, and upon his retirement from this office, in 1918, was appointed Auditor of the First National Bank and has continued in this capacity until September, 1926, when he was elected Assistant Cashier.

On September 17, 1913, he was united in marriage to Miss Helen L. Ludman, of this city, and to this union a daughter, Eleanor Ludman Tanner, was born. His wife died November 20, 1923.

Brother Tanner was initiated an Entered Apprentice in La Fayette Lodge, August 12, 1909; passed to the degree of Fellow Craft September 9, 1909, and raised to the degree of Master Mason October 14, 1909.

He is a member of Zanesville Chapter, No. 9, Royal Arch Masons, receiving the Capitular degrees as follows: Mark Master, February 13, 1911; Past and Most Excellent Masters, February 20, 1911, and Royal Arch, March 27, 1911. He served the Chapter as Principal Sojourner in 1912.

He received the Cryptic degrees in Zanesville Council, No. 12, Royal and Select Masters, November 17, 1915, and was greeted a Super-Excellent Master November 18, 1915.

He received the Illustrious Order of the Red Cross and Knight of Malta in Cyrene Commandery, No. 10, Knights Templar, April 28, 1914, and the Order of the Temple, June 2, 1914.

He is a member and former Secretary of Amrou Grotto, No. 45, M. O. V. P. E. R.

He resides at 386 Fairmont Avenue.

On January 7, the officers were installed by M.·.W.·.Bro. Lewis P. Schaus, Past Grand Master, assisted by Bro. Frank M. Ransbottom, District Lecturer, as Grand Marshal. Six hundred and eighty-seven persons partook of the banquet which preceded the ceremonies. This was probably the largest gathering of this kind that every assembled in the Masonic Temple. The banquet commenced at six o'clock and lasted until after ten—as soon as the tables were vacated, they were immediately filled. Everywhere there was an indescribable jam, and not until after ten o'clock did the installation ceremonies begin. Bro. Frank L. D. Ferrel acted as the toastmaster, and among the speakers were M.·.W.·.Bro. Ike M. Robinson and M.·.W.·.Bro. Charles S. Hoskinson, both Past Grand Masters of the Grand Lodge.

On June 24, the members of Amity and La Fayette Lodges, escorted by Cyrene Commandery, No. 10, Knights Templar, participated in the parade incident to the dedication of the new Masonic Temple at Newark, Ohio. The journey was made by a special train over the Pennsylvania Railroad.

On Sunday, August 8, a Special Communication of La Fayette and Amity Lodges was held in connection with the laying of the corner-stone of the new Bethesda Hospital by the Grand Lodge of Ohio.

The program for the day consisted of a joint meeting of Amity and La Fayette Lodges at 8.30 A. M., at which time a Lodge of Master Masons was opened. A Commandery of Knights Templar was opened immediately afterwards by Cyrene Commandery, No. 10, Knights Templar.

The entire morning was spent in meeting the various incoming trains and escorting the visiting Masons to their headquarters, the high school, Grace Methodist Episcopal and Central Presbyterian Churches having been secured for this purpose. The Reception Committee from the Lodges was composed of the officers, with Bro. William E. Deacon acting as chairman. A Committee was appointed by Cyrene Commandery, No. 10, Knights Templar, consisting of Sir Knights Frank L. D. Ferrel, Orrin Pearson, and Harry W. Ross.

The visiting delegations were composed of four commanderies and more than twenty Lodges, many of whom were accompanied by bands, the most famous of which was the women's band of Chicago Junction.

The parade, which was headed by Bro. John J. Frick as Grand Marshal, was composed of six sections, and, but for a driving rain which continued during most of the afternoon, would have been the largest of its kind ever held in the city.

The personnel of the Grand Lodge on this occasion was as follows: Bro. Frank H. Marquis, Acting M.·.W.·.Grand Master; Bro. Ike M. Robinson, Acting R.·.W.·.Deputy Grand Master; Bro. Mort C. Ransbottom, Acting R.·.W.·.Senior Grand Warden; Bro. Lewis P. Schaus, Acting R.·.W.·.Junior Grand Warden; Bro. Ralph R. Rickley, R.·.W.·.Grand Treasurer; Bro. J. W. Darrah, Acting R.·.W.·.Grand Secretary; Bro. Hugh Wayt, Acting R.·.W.·.Grand Chaplain; Bro. C. A. Stolberg, Acting R.·.W.·.Grand Orator; Bro. Edward R. Meyer, Acting R.·.W.·.Grand Marshal; Bro. R. J. Kunkle, Acting W.·.Senior Grand Deacon; Bro. B. Frank Murphy, W.·.Junior Grand Deacon; Bro. Charles D. Cussins, Acting Senior Grand Steward; Bro. Charles S. Hoskinson, Acting Junior Grand Steward; Bro. W. C. Meyers, Grand Architect; Bro. Chester H. Steele, Bearer of Great Lights; Bro. D. W. Kennon, Bearer of Light; Bro. L. B. Pennelley, Bearer of Light; Bro. William H. Webster, Bearer of Light; Bro. E. G. Chamberlain, Bearer of Symbol; Bro. John H. Snoots, Bearer of Symbol; Bro. Edgar M. Brown, Bearer of Symbol, and Bro. R. A. Mulligan, Acting Grand Tyler.

Fifty-three meetings were held during the year and forty-four were raised to the degree of Master Mason. Four others were admitted to membership by dimit.

The ninety-first election was held December 2, and resulted in the selection of the following officers: Bro. William C. Dawson, Worshipful Master; Bro. Harry S. McClelland, Senior Warden; Bro. Charles E. Zimmer, Junior Warden; Bro. Wilber J. Mendenhall, Treasurer; Bro. Samuel R. Moore, Secretary;

Bro. Orrin Pearson, Senior Deacon; Bro. Paul R. Perry, Junior Deacon, and Bro. Leo C. Hufford, Tyler.

Bro. Henry Sprague was appointed Senior Steward; Bro. Ward W. Weiss, Junior Steward; Bro. Charles F. Spence, Organist, and Bro. Harry E. Hollister, Chaplain.

The Trustees, which up to this time had been appointed for each year, were elected for the first time, and the term of service was lengthened to three years. Bro. Cecil W. Tanner was elected for three years, Bro. Frank L. D. Ferrel for two years, and Bro. Harry E. Hollister for one year.

On December 30, a public installation of officers was held in the Weller Theatre, a special dispensation having been secured for the occasion. A Lodge of Master Masons was opened in the Lodge room, after which the Brethren formed in procession and marched to the theater. R.·.W.·.Bro. Frank M. Ransbottom, Senior Grand Deacon of the Grand Lodge, installed the officers, with the assistance of Bro. Robert Holliday, Lecturer of the Thirteenth District, as Grand Marshal. All officers were installed with the exception of Bro. Charles E. Zimmer, the Junior Warden-elect, who was confined to his home with a broken hip.

A special telephone was installed from the bedside of Bro. Zimmer to the stage of the theater, while Bro. Charles F. Lewellyn acted as his proxy. Music was furnished by an orchestra and a quartet. The principal address of the evening was given by Rev. E. C. Coil, of American Union Lodge, No. 1.

BRO. WILLIAM CLYDE DAWSON

WORSHIPFUL MASTER

Brother Dawson was born in Zanesville, September 25, 1877. He attended the public schools until sixteen years of age, when he entered the employ of the Brasæmle Five-and-Ten-Cent Store, continuing with this concern for six years. After leaving them, he became identified with the American Encaustic Tiling Company and, by diligent attention to duty, soon rose to the position of general foreman of the entire third floor. He continued in this capacity for eighteen years, retiring to accept the position of city salesman with the Mercantile Wholesale Grocery Company, which position he still holds. On November 29, 1905, he was united in marriage to Miss Blanche Gertrude O'Toole, and to this union a son, Bernard A. Dawson, was born.

Brother Dawson was initiated an Entered Apprentice in La Fayette Lodge, October 20, 1910; passed to the degree of Fellow Craft, November 10, 1910, and raised to the degree of Master Mason February 16, 1911. He served the Lodge as Senior Steward, 1912; Senior Deacon, 1913; Junior Warden, 1914; Senior Warden, 1915, and Worshipful Master, 1916.

He is a member of Zanesville Chapter, No. 9, Royal Arch Masons, receiving the Mark Master degree November 30, 1914; Past Master, February 8, 1915; Most Excellent Master, March 22, 1915, and Royal Arch, March 29, 1915.

He is a member of Amrou Grotto, No. 45, M. O. V. P. E. R.

He resides at 248 Ridge Avenue.

On May 4, the Lodge voted to pay one-third of the cost of purchasing and erecting a granite stone over the grave of Bro. Calvin Conant, our first elective Master. The remainder of the cost was borne by Amity Lodge and Zanesville Chapter.

A Special Dispensation having been secured from the Grand Master, the installation of Bro. Charles E. Zimmer as Junior Warden was held on August 3. The Worshipful Master performed the ceremonies with the assistance of Bro. Richard Nicklin as Grand Marshal.

Forty-seven meetings were held during the year. Twenty-four were raised to the degree of Master Mason and three were admitted to membership. The annual return showed a membership of four hundred and forty-seven.

On December 7, the ninety-second Annual Communication was held, and the following officers were elected: Bro. Harry S. McClelland, Worshipful Master; Bro. Charles E. Zimmer, Senior Warden; Bro. Orrin Pearson, Junior Warden; Bro. Wilber J. Mendenhall, Treasurer; Bro. Samuel R. Moore, Secretary; Bro. Charles F. Lewellyn, Senior Deacon; Bro. Ward W. Weiss, Junior Deacon, and Bro. Leo Hufford, Tyler.

Bro. William E. Decker was appointed Senior Steward; Bro. J. Sherman White, Junior Steward, and Bro. Charles C.

Warrington, Chaplain. Bro. William C. Dawson was elected Trustee for three years.

The Trustees reported that they had borrowed eight thousand dollars from the First National Bank at five per cent interest, which amount had been expended in the purchase of additional stock in The Masonic Temple Company, as authorized by previous vote of the Lodge.

On December 28, a public installation of officers was held in the Lodge room. Bro. Elmer A. Evans, District Lecturer, performed the ceremonies of installation, assisted by Bro. Cecil W. Tanner as Grand Marshal.

BRO. HARRY SHERMAN McCLELLAND

WORSHIPFUL MASTER

Brother McClelland was born in North Platte, Nebraska, January 14, 1884. The family came to Zanesville when Harry was five years of age. He attended the public schools of this city and the Zanesville High School, from which he graduated in 1903. While attending high school, his summer vacations were spent at the Peters and Reed Pottery, where he learned the rudiments of the pottery business. After his graduation, he accepted the position of shipping clerk with this concern, and a short time after was promoted to the position of bookkeeper. In 1909, he was elected Secretary and continued in this capacity until the reorganization, in January, 1922, under the name of the Zane Pottery Company, when he was elected President, Treasurer, and General Manager, which positions he now holds.

On June 21, 1916, he was united in marriage to Miss Mabel Hall, of this city, and to this union a son, Robert Sherman McClelland, has been born.

Brother McClelland was initiated an Entered Apprentice in La Fayette Lodge February 9, 1911; passed to the degree of Fellow Craft March 16, 1911, and raised to the degree of Master Mason April 27, 1911. He served the Lodge as Junior Deacon, 1913; Senior Deacon, 1914; Junior Warden, 1915; Senior Warden, 1916, and Worshipful Master, 1917.

He served two years on the Board of Governors of the Masonic Club.

The Capitular degrees were received in Zanesville Chapter, No. 9, Royal Arch Masons, as follows: Mark Master, May 5, 1913; Past and Most Excellent Masters, May 12, 1913, and Royal Arch, June 9, 1913.

He received the Cryptic degrees in Zanesville Council, No. 12, Royal and Select Masters, November 26, 1913, and was greeted a Super-Excellent Master the same evening.

He is a member of Cyrene Commandery, No. 10, Knights Templar, and received the Illustrious Order of the Red Cross, Knight of Malta, and the Order of the Temple on the same evening, December 1, 1914. He served the Commandery for one year as Warden.

He is a Scottish Rite Mason of the Thirty-second degree, and is affiliated with Cambridge Lodge of Perfection; Cambridge Council, Princes of Jerusalem; Cambridge Chapter, Rose Croix de H. R. D. M., of the Valley of Cambridge, and Scioto Consistory, Sublime Princes of the Royal Secret, Valley of Columbus. He is a member of Muskingum County Association, Ancient Accepted Scottish Rite Masons, and served as its President in 1920.

He is affiliated with Aladdin Temple, A. A. O. N. M. S., of Columbus, and Amrou Grotto, No. 45, M. O. V. P. E. R., of this city.

He has served as President of the Zavi Shrine Club since December, 1919.

He resides at 606 Laurel Avenue.

On January 30, the Lodge conducted the funeral services of Bro. Thomas Swan, a former officer, whose remains were laid to rest in Woodlawn Cemetery.

On June 7, the dues of all members serving in either the army or navy during the World War were ordered remitted during their term of service.

On June 21, a picnic in honor of St. John the Baptist was held at the Fair grounds. The program consisted of a parade over the principal streets, a flag-raising at the Fair grounds, and a basket picnic. Bro. Tileston F. Spangler made the principal address of the afternoon. Following the patriotic service, games and contests of various kinds were enjoyed by the large number of Brethren and their families who were present.

On Sunday, June 24, a joint Communication of Amity and La Fayette Lodges was held for the purpose of dedicating a statue of Bro. George Washington in the Memorial Park at Black Run. A special train over the Pennsylvania Railroad was used to convey the two Lodges and Cyrene Commandery, No. 10, Knights Templar, to their destination. The principal address was made by R.·.W.·.Bro. Henry M. Hagelbarger, Deputy Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Ohio. The statue was the work of Bro. Brice Baughman, of Black Run. Following the unveiling, the Brethren returned to this city and proceeded to the Pilgrim Evangelical Church, Seventh and South Streets, where Bro. Richard R. Fillibrandt, the pastor, delivered an appropriate sermon in keeping with St. John's Day.

On September 6, the time for holding the Annual Communication, was changed from December to November.

At this meeting a Committee was appointed to investigate and report to the Lodge upon the question of purchasing from the family of J. Hope Sutor a history of the Lodge. This Committee failed to make a report.

Fifty-four meetings were held this year and twenty-nine were raised to the degree of Master Mason. Three were admitted to membership by dimit. The annual return showed a membership of four hundred and sixty-one.

On November 1, the ninety-third election of officers was held, and the following officers were selected for the ensuing year: Bro. Charles E. Zimmer, Worshipful Master; Bro. Orrin Pearson, Senior Warden; Brother Charles F. Lewellyn, Junior Warden; Bro. Wilber J. Mendenhall, Treasurer; Bro. Samuel R. Moore, Secretary; Bro. Ward W. Weiss, Senior Deacon; Bro. J. Sherman White, Junior Deacon, and Bro. Leo C. Hufford, Tyler.

Bro. Clarence E. O'Neal was appointed Senior Steward; Bro. Clarence S. Lucas, Junior Steward; Bro. Charles F. Spence, Organist, and Bro. Charles C. Warrington, Chaplain. Bro. Harry S. McClelland was elected Trustee for three years.

These officers were installed publicly, on December 27, by Bro. Elmer A. Evans, District Lecturer, assisted by Bro. Cecil W. Tanner as Grand Marshal.

BRO. CHARLES E. ZIMMER
Worshipful Master

Brother Zimmer was born at Adamsville, Muskingum County, Ohio, June 4, 1872. He attended the public schools of Adamsville, and the School of Pharmacy at Scio, Ohio. He came to Zanesville in 1902, and after two years in the employ of the Baird Drug Store he entered the drug business for himself at Putnam Avenue and Pierce Streets, where he is now located.

On November 6, 1906, he was united in marriage to Miss Anna L. Moore, and to this union one daughter, Bernice Zimmer, was born.

Brother Zimmer was initiated an Entered Apprentice in La Fayette Lodge March 20, 1913; passed to the degree of Fellow Craft June 12, 1913, and raised to the degree of Master Mason July 24, 1913. He served the Lodge as Senior Deacon, 1915; Junior Warden, 1916; Senior Warden, 1917, and Worshipful Master, 1918.

He is a member of Zanesville Chapter, No. 9, Royal Arch Masons, and received the degrees as follows: Mark Master, March 23, 1914; Past Master, April 13, 1914; Most Excellent Master, April 20, 1914, and Royal Arch, April 22, 1914.

He is a member of Zanesville Council, No. 12, Royal and Select Masters, receiving the Cryptic degrees October 8, 1914, and was greeted a Super-Excellent Master March 9, 1915.

He received the Chivalric degrees in Cyrene Commandery, No. 10, Knights Templar, as follows: Illustrious Order of the Red Cross and Knight of Malta, July 27, 1915, and the Order of the Temple, August 3, 1915.

He is a Scottish Rite Mason of the Thirty-second degree, being affiliated with Cambridge Lodge of Perfection; Cambridge Council, Princes of Jerusalem; Cambridge Chapter, Rose Croix de H. R. D. M., of the Valley of Cambridge, and Scioto Consistory, Sublime Princes of the Royal Secret, of the Valley of Columbus.

He is also affiliated with Amrou Grotto, No. 45, M. O. V. P. E. R.

He resides at 120 Pierce Street.

On May 7, a complete set of dishes were procured by the Masonic Bodies of Zanesville at a cost of one hundred and sixty-two dollars and twenty-five cents.

Forty-two meetings were held during the year, and twenty-two were raised to the degree of Master Mason. Two were admitted to membership by dimit. The annual return showed a list of four hundred and eighty-two members.

This was a very prosperous year for the Lodge, considering the fact that fifty-five of its members were serving with the army or navy in the World War, and others were expecting the call at any moment. The entire country was swept by an epidemic of influenza and, although the Lodge lost very few members from this source, hardly a family existed but what some member of it was afflicted by this scourge.

On November 7, the ninety-fourth election was held and resulted in the choice of the following officers: Bro. Orrin Pearson, Worshipful Master; Bro. Charles F. Lewellyn, Senior Warden; Bro. J. Sherman White, Junior Warden; Bro. Wilber J. Mendenhall, Treasurer; Bro. Samuel R. Moore, Secretary; Bro. Ward W. Weiss, Senior Deacon; Bro. Clarence E. O'Neal, Junior Deacon, and Bro. Leo C. Hufford, Tyler.

Bro. Charles E. Zimmer was elected Trustee for three years. Bro. Harrie C. Atherton was appointed Senior Steward; Bro. Harry C. Smith, Junior Steward, and Bro. Frank L. D. Ferrel, Chaplain.

On December 30, a public installation was held, with R ∴ W ∴ Bro. Frank M. Ransbottom, Junior Grand Warden, presiding, assisted by Bro. Elmer A. Evans, District Lecturer, as Grand Marshal. At this time a service flag was dedicated, with fifty-five stars representing the members of the Lodge who were then in service. The principal address was made by Bro. Milton Turner, of Cambridge, District Lecturer of the Twenty-third District.

Brother Pearson was born at Chandlersville, Muskingum County, Ohio, January 8, 1889. He attended the grade and high school of that place, coming to Zanesville on August 4, 1904. On Christmas day of that year he entered the mailing room of the Zanesville Signal, and with the exception of about three years, his entire life since then has been spent in some branch of newspaper work. At the present time he is connected with the office of the Zanesville Publishing Company, in the capacity of bookkeeper.

On May 28, 1917, he was united in marriage to Miss Emma E. Speed, of near Zanesville, and to this union three children have been born: Anita Beverly, William Howard, and Marguerite Phyllis Pearson.

Brother Pearson was initiated an Entered Apprentice in La Fayette Lodge July 11, 1912; passed to the degree of Fellow Craft August 13, 1912, and raised to the degree of Master Mason September 19, 1912. He served the Lodge as Junior Deacon, 1915; Senior Deacon, 1916; Junior Warden, 1917; Senior Warden, 1918, and Worshipful Master, 1919.

He has served six years on the Board of Governors of the Masonic Club, and during this time has served one year as Vice-President, and is serving his fourth year as President.

He has served as Secretary of the Past Masters' Association of the Eighteenth District since its organization, in 1920.

He received the Capitular degrees in Zanesville Chapter, No. 9, Royal Arch Masons, as follows: Mark Master, January 23, 1913; Past Master, February 10, 1913; Most Excellent Master, February 17, 1913, and Royal Arch, February 24, 1913. He served as Grand Master of the Second Veil by appointment during the remainder of 1913; Principal Sojourner, 1914; Scribe, 1915; King, 1916, and High Priest, 1917. Upon the retirement of Bro. J. Allen Hunter as Secretary, in July, 1918, he was appointed to that office, and has been re-elected each succeeding year. He was anointed and set apart to the Holy Order of High Priesthood at Toledo, October 3, 1917.

He received the Cryptic degrees in Zanesville Council, No. 12, Royal and Select Masters, June 12, 1913, and was greeted a Super-Excellent Master November 26, 1913. He served the Council as Deputy Master, 1915, and Thrice Illustrious Master, 1916. He has served the Council as Recorder since December, 1918.

On September 1, 1917, he was appointed and commissioned Grand Representative of the Grand Council of Colorado, near the Grand Council of Ohio.

He is a member of Cyrene Commandery, No. 10, Knights Templar, receiving the Illustrious Order of the Red Cross and Knight of Malta June 30, 1914, and Order of the Temple, July 7, 1914.

He is a Scottish Rite Mason of the Thirty-second degree, and is affiliated with Cambridge Lodge of Perfection; Cambridge Council, Princes of Jerusalem; Cambridge Chapter of Rose Croix, de H. R. D. M., of the Valley of Cambridge, and Scioto Consistory, Sublime Princes of the Royal Secret, of the Valley of Columbus.

On April 15, the Lodge conducted the funeral services of Bro. Samuel R. Moore, who at the time of his death was the oldest living member and had served the Lodge thirty-three consecutive years as Secretary. Services were conducted at the home, on McIntire Avenue, with burial in Greenwood Cemetery.

Our Centennial

On Thursday, May 21, 1925, the centenary of La Fayette Lodge was celebrated in a manner befitting the occasion. Although not held on the anniversary of its institution, no effort was spared by the Committee-in-charge to make the day one long to be remembered in the annals of the Lodge. The weather was perfect; and early in the day a Committee, composed of the wives of the officers of the Lodge, assembled in the ballroom of the Masonic Temple, in readiness to register the visiting ladies. These ladies were later entertained by an automobile tour of the city, and a visit to the Zane Pottery, at South Zanesville, where suitable souvenirs had been provided. Upon their return, they were entertained with a theater party at the Liberty Theater.

At one-thirty o'clock a Lodge of Entered Apprentices was opened by the officers of the Lodge, and following the introduction of distinguished visitors and the initiation of one candidate, a Masonic address was delivered by M∴W∴Bro. Ike M. Robinson, Past Grand Master, of Chandlersville. At the conclusion of this address, a reception was held for the visiting Brethren.

At six o'clock a banquet was served at the Grace Methodist Episcopal Church for the Brethren and their ladies, and more than six hundred persons were served.

Instrumental music was furnished by an orchestra, under the leadership of Bro. Ward Ansel, while a number of vocal numbers were rendered by the Rotary Quartet, composed of Bro. Herbert E. Mercer, Bro. Charles H. Duvall, Bro. Clyde Reasoner, and Bro. Ralph R. Hanlon.

Bro. Elmer A. Evans presided as toastmaster, and short addresses were given by the following Brethren: M∴W∴Bro. James B. Ruhl, Grand Master, representing the Grand Lodge of Ohio; Bro. Henry Gruen, representing the Grand Chapter of Ohio; Bro. Edward C. Rector, representing the Grand Council of Ohio, and M∴W∴Bro. Frank M. Ransbottom, Past Grand Master, representing the Grand Commandery of Ohio. Bro. Harvey C. Smith, former Secretary of State, spoke upon the history and achievements of La Fayette Lodge, and a short historical sketch was read by Bro. Frank L. D. Ferrel.

Among the distinguished visitors present were: M.·.W.·.Bro. James B. Ruhl, Cleveland, Grand Master of the Grand Lodge; M.·.W.·.Bro. Ike M. Robinson, Chandlersville, Past Grand Master; M.·.W.·.Bro. Charles S. Hoskinson, Zanesville, Past Grand Master; M.·.W.·.Bro. Frank M. Ransbottom, Zanesville, Past Grand Master; Bro. Edward C. Rector, Williamsport, Past Grand Master of the Grand Council of Ohio; Bro. Henry Gruen, Cambridge, Grand Master of the First Veil of the Grand Chapter of Ohio; Bro. C. E. Hill, Williamsport, Lecturer of the Eighth Masonic District; Bro. Alger R. Vosper, Crooksville, Past Lecturer of the Thirteenth District; Bro. William H. Maddox, Roseville, Past Lecturer of the Eighteenth District, and Bro. Lloyd G. Ditzler, Lecturer of the Eighteenth District.

The celebration was concluded by a ball at Gold Hall, which lasted until midnight.

The Committees in charge of the affair were composed of the following Brethren: General Committee—Bro. Orrin Pearson, Chairman; Bro. Clarence E. O'Neal, Secretary; Bro. Paul R. Perry, Bro. Clarence S. Lucas, and Bro. Samuel R. Torrance. Reception—Bro. Elmer A. Evans, Chairman; Bro. John Hartmeyer, Bro. William H. Bolin, Bro. J. Parker Bolin, Bro. Edward F. Grimsley, Bro. Richard Nicklin, Bro. E. Hillis Talley, Bro. Frank A. Kelly, Bro. Roy R. Nowell, Bro. Walter L. Powell, and Bro. J. Sherman White. Visitors—Bro. Clarence E. O'Neal, Chairman; Bro. Frank L. D. Ferrel, Bro. William C. Dawson, Bro. Charles E. Zimmer, and Bro. Charles F. Lewellyn. Invitations—Bro. Wilber J. Mendenhall, Chairman; Bro. Cecil W. Tanner, Bro. Harry S. McClelland, Bro. William O. Dunn, and Bro. Joseph R. Collins. Banquet—Bro. Henry Sprague, Chairman; Bro. Paul R. Perry, Bro. Wilber J. Mendenhall, Bro. Otho R. Trace, and Bro. Edward M. Maneely. Entertainment—Bro. Clarence S. Lucas, Chairman; Bro. William A. Parshall, Bro. Roland Dickerson, Bro. Clarence W. Simpson, and Bro. Herbert Russell.

On Sunday afternoon, July 19, the Lodge participated in the laying of the corner-stone of the North Terrace Community Church of Christ, by the Grand Lodge of Ohio.

Invitations were issued to all surrounding Lodges, and more than three hundred visitors were present, representing forty Lodges, located in seven different States.

A Lodge of Master Masons was opened, at one o'clock, by the Grand Lodge, composed of the following Brethren: Bro. Frank M. Ransbottom, acting as M.·.W.·.Grand Master; Bro. Elmer A. Evans, acting as R.·.W.·.Deputy Grand Master; Bro. Lloyd G. Ditzler, acting as R.·.W.·.Senior Grand Warden; Bro. Frank L. D. Ferrel, acting as R.·.W.·.Junior Grand Warden; Bro. S. Heber England, acting as R.·.W.·.Grand Treasurer; Bro. William E. Stockdale, acting as R.·.W.·.Grand Secretary; Bro. Alfred Rowett, acting as R.·.W.·.Grand Chaplain; Bro. J. Quincy Biggs, acting as R.·.W.·.Grand Orator; Bro. Clarence E. O'Neal, acting as R.·.W.·.Grand Marshal; Bro. William H. Maddox, acting as W.·.Senior Grand Deacon; Bro. Alger R. Vosper, acting as W.·.Junior Grand Deacon; Bro. Orrin Pearson, acting as Senior Grand Steward; Bro. Homer E. Walters, acting as Junior Grand Steward; Bro. William Curtis, Bearer of Great Lights; Bro. Anson F. Kreager, Steward; Bro. Orville T. Atwell, Steward; Bro. J. Sherman White, Past Master with Light; Bro. Samuel R. Torrance, Past Master with Light; Bro. Isaac P. Humphrey, Past Master with Light; Bro. Roy R. Nowell, Past Master with golden vessel (Corn); Bro. Herbert M. Highfield, Past Master with silver vessel (Wine); Bro. Frank A. Kelly, Past Master with silver vessel (Oil), and Bro. Benjamin Hanlon, acting as Grand Tyler.

Bro. Clarence G. Swank was Grand Marshal of the parade, and was ably assisted by the following Brethren: Bro. Charles G. Young and Bro. Harry J. Richey, representing Cyrene Commandery, No. 10, Knights Templar, and Bro. Paul R. Perry, Bro. O. Glenn Mills, Bro. John A. Madden, Bro. Frank C. Felton, Bro. Clarence S. Parshall, and Bro. Clarence Jones, representing the Blue Lodges. The parade formed on Market Street, and the line of march was out Third to Main, up Main to Sixth, out Sixth to the Fifth Street bridge, across bridge and up Maple Avenue to the site of the church, on the Frazeysburg road, returning to the Temple at the conclusion of the ceremonies. Cyrene Commandery, No. 10, Knights Templar acted as escort, and the music was furnished by the Grotto band and quartet.

Forty-six meetings were held. Twenty-two were raised to the degree of Master Mason, and four were admitted to membership. The annual returns showed a membership of seven hundred and four.

The one hundred and first Annual Communication was held November 5, and the following officers were elected: Bro. William A. Parshall, Worshipful Master; Bro. Roland Dickerson, Senior Warden; Bro. Joseph R. Collins, Junior Warden; Bro. Paul R. Perry, Treasurer; Bro. Wilber J. Mendenhall, Secretary; Bro. Herbert Russell, Senior Deacon; Bro. Otho B. Trace, Junior Deacon, and Bro. Leo C. Hufford, Tyler. Bro. Clarence S. Lucas was elected Trustee for three years. The following officers were appointed by the Master-elect: Bro. Edward M. Maneely, Senior Steward; Bro. Gilbert F. McConnell, Junior Steward; Bro. George W. Barringer, Chaplain, and Bro. Albert H. Ungemach, Organist.

At this meeting, the Lodge voted to remit the annual dues of all members who had been affiliated with the Lodge for thirty-five consecutive years. The close of the year 1925 showed a list of twenty-one who were eligible for remission of dues.

On November 19, the officers were installed by Bro. Samuel R. Torrance, assisted by Bro. Charles F. Lewellyn as Grand Marshal.

1926

BRO. WILLIAM ALLEN PARSHALL

WORSHIPFUL MASTER

Brother Parshall was born in Zanesville, August 16, 1880. He received his education in the public schools of this city. He is a painter by trade, and for several years was in the employ of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad; but during the past ten years has been custodian of the Masonic Club.

On August 21, 1901, he was united in marriage to Miss Lulu E. Heinrich, and to this union a son, Clarence Stewart Parshall, was born.

Brother Parshall was initiated an Entered Apprentice in La Fayette Lodge July 23, 1903; passed to the degree of Fellow Craft August 13, 1903, and raised to the degree of Master Mason

September 24, 1903. He served the Lodge as Junior Steward, 1922; Senior Deacon, 1923; Junior Warden, 1924; Senior Warden, 1925, and Worshipful Master, 1926. He served one year on the Board of Governors of the Masonic Club, declining further service on account of his duties in the Club. He was made a member of the Masonic Veterans of Ohio, at their annual meeting in Columbus, October 21, 1925.

He is a member of Zanesville Chapter, No. 9, Royal Arch Masons, and received the degrees as follows: Mark Master and Past Master, July 11, 1910; Most Excellent Master, July 18, 1910, and Royal Arch, July 29, 1910. He served the Chapter as Grand Master of the Third Veil, 1911; Royal Arch Captain, 1912; Scribe, 1913, and Guard from 1914 to 1918 inclusive, and from 1920 to 1925 inclusive.

He received the Cryptic degrees in Zanesville Council, No. 12, Royal and Select Masters, February 11, 1915, and was greeted a Super-Excellent Master March 9, 1915. He served the Council as Steward, 1921; Conductor of Council, 1922; Captain of the Guard, 1923; Deputy Master, 1924, and Master, 1925.

He is a member of Cyrene Commandery, No. 10, Knights Templar, receiving the degrees as follows: Illustrious Order of the Red Cross and Knight of Malta, January 25, 1916, and Order of the Temple, February 1, 1916.

He is a Scottish Rite Mason of the Thirty-second degree, being affiliated with Cambridge Lodge of Perfection; Cambridge Council, Princes of Jerusalem; Cambridge Chapter, Rose Croix de H. R. D. M., in the Valley of Cambridge, and Scioto Consistory, Sublime Princes of the Royal Secret, Valley of Columbus.

He is a member of Aladdin Temple, A. A. O. N. M. Shrine, at Columbus, and is a member and Past Monarch of Amrou Grotto, No. 45, M. O. V. P. E. R., of this city.

He resides at 758 Moxahala Avenue.

Reapportionment of Club Dues

On February 4, in response to a communication from the Board of Governors of the Masonic Club, requesting some remedial action on the part of the Lodge in financing the Club, the following recommendation on the part of the Board was unanimously adopted by both Lodge of Amity and La Fayette Lodge:

That each Lodge pay into the treasury of the Club the sum of two dollars and seventy-five cents a member for each calendar year, payable quarterly, and that this computation be based upon the annual report made to the Grand Lodge.

On February 11, the Entered Apprentice degree was conferred upon two candidates, all stations being filled by Past Masters of the Lodge.

On March 11, the Entered Apprentice degree was conferred upon one candidate, the stations being filled by the Worshipful Masters of the eleven Lodges in Muskingum County, in the order of their seniority. Bro. Earle R. Probasco, Worshipful Master of the Lodge of Amity, No. 5, presided over the degree work. R.·.W.·.Bro. Harry S. Johnson, Grand Secretary of the Grand Lodge, was present on this occasion and gave a very interesting address on the Holy Bible and its relation to Masonry.

On Sunday, June 20, the Lodge attended the dedication of the Lodge-room at Adamsville, which had been used by Hubbard Lodge, No. 220, for many years without having been dedicated.

At 9 A. M., the visiting Lodges, accompanied by Cyrene Commandery, No. 10, Knights Templar, attended divine services at the Methodist Episcopal Church. A dinner was served at noon by the Brethren of Adamsville, and this was followed, at two o'clock, with the dedicatory services by the Grand Lodge, Free and Accepted Masons, of Ohio, with M.·.W.·.Bro. Frank M. Ransbottom, Past Grand Master, presiding. The Brethren then returned to their homes, and at seven o'clock a procession was formed in front of the Masonic Temple, composed of La Fayette Lodge and visiting members of other Lodges, and with Cyrene Commandery, No. 10, Knights Templar, acting as escort, marched to the First Methodist Episcopal Church, on Putnam Avenue, where an excellent sermon was delivered by Bro. John W. Danford, pastor of the church.

On July 1, the history of La Fayette Lodge was brought to a close and the following Committees were appointed to have charge of its publication and distribution: Executive—Bro.

Orrin Pearson, Bro. Elmer A. Evans, Bro. Roy R. Nowell, Bro. Charles E. Zimmer, Bro. Clarence E. O'Neal, Bro. Paul R. Perry, Bro. Clarence S. Lucas, Bro. William A. Parshall, and Bro. Wilber J. Mendenhall. Ways and Means—Bro. Elmer A. Evans, Bro. Wilber J. Mendenhall, Bro. William A. Parshall, Bro. Paul R. Perry, and Bro. Cecil W. Tanner. Bids and Publication—Bro. Roy R. Nowell, Bro. Elmer A. Evans, Bro. Sam R. Torrance, Bro. Clarence S. Lucas, and Bro. Orrin Pearson. Distribution—Bro. Wilber J. Mendenhall, Bro. Clarence E. O'Neal, Bro. J. Sherman White, Bro. William C. Dawson, and Bro. William H. Bolin.

In Retrospect

A SUMMARY of the foregoing history reveals to us many interesting events which have transpired since the birth of La Fayette Lodge, and we can feel justly proud in the realization of the important part played by our membership in the civil, industrial, political and fraternal welfare, not alone of Zanesville, but of the State and nation as well. Our roster reveals the names of many men of education, wealth, and political prominence, who have been proud to assemble about our altar, receiving the same instruction and admonition as that accorded to their less fortunate Brethren.

Isaac Van Horne and Samuel Herrick each served as representative in Congress, and each bore the military rank of General, the former having served in the War for Independence, and the latter in the War of 1812. John T. Arthur served throughout the Mexican War, and bore the rank of Brigadier-General in the Ohio National Guard. John Sharp, William H. Holden, and Daniel H. Gaumer served as State Senators, and John A. Blair, Thaddeus A. Reamy, and Daniel H. Gaumer as Representatives in the General Assembly.

Harvey C. Smith served two years as Secretary of the State of Ohio, and Samuel Herrick as District Attorney of Ohio.

In the list of county officers, William Blocksom was one of the early Associate Judges, and R. W. P. Muse, Harvey C. Smith, and Neil Starkey have each served as Probate Judge. Samuel Herrick was at various times Prosecuting Attorney of Muskingum, Guernsey, and Licking Counties.

Asa R. Cassady, William Ruth, William Hunter, William H. Bolin, Charles N. Bainter, and John J. Frick are listed among those who have served this county as Sheriff.

In the office of County Auditor, we have been represented by Richard I. Peach, Imri Richards, and Harry W. Heskett. Wilber J. Mendenhall, present Secretary of the Lodge, has served four years as County Treasurer, and Imri Richards and Frank Myers have served as County Recorder.

Prominent in the list of Mayors of Zanesville are the names of Asa R. Cassady, William Ruth, William H. Holden, Sr., and William E. Deacon.

In the list of our Postmasters are Asa R. Cassady, William Blocksom, and Daniel H. Gaumer, while Harry Safford and John Dixon served in a like capacity in Putnam.

Pre-eminent among the names of scores of ministers who have been affiliated with the Lodge is that of Leonidas L. Hamline, for many years a Bishop of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

Our most prominent physician was Dr. John G. F. Holston I, who was the personal physician of President Ulysses S. Grant.

In the Grand Lodge of Ohio, George James and Joshua Downer served as Deputy Grand Master; Isaac Van Horne and George James as Junior Grand Warden; John Fracker as Grand Treasurer; John T. Arthur as Grand Secretary; Cornelius Moore as Grand Orator; Robert H. Cotton and Elmer A. Evans as Grand Marshal; Rev. Robert H. Sedgwick and Rev. Thomas T. Crawford as Grand Chaplain; George D. Palmer as Grand Pursuivant and Junior Grand Deacon, and Cornelius Moore and Lewis Moore as Grand Steward.

In the Grand Chapter, Royal Arch Masons, of Ohio, Joshua Downer served as Grand King, and George D. Palmer and Thomas Bell as Grand Scribe.

In the Grand Council, Royal and Select Masters, of Ohio, we are represented by Clarence E. O'Neal, who has served as Grand Sentinel and Grand Marshal, and is now serving as Grand Steward.

In the Grand Commandery, Knights Templar, of Ohio, Thomas Bell served as Deputy Grand Commander; Robert H. Cotton as Grand Generalissimo; Rev. Robert H. Sedgwick as Grand Prelate; Cornelius Moore and Robert H. Cotton as Senior Grand Warden; Robert H. Cotton as Junior Grand Warden; John Redmond and George D. Palmer, as Grand Standard Bearer, and John Redmond as Grand Sword Bearer.

In the list of nine charter members of Cyprus Commandery,

No. 10, Knights Templar, all, except one, were members of La Fayette Lodge.

Many other interesting things might be said of this grand old Lodge if time and space would permit; but may it suffice to say that the Lodge will doubtless grow in membership and influence during the years to come, and be a lasting monument to our illustrious predecessors by the exercise of Brotherly Love, Relief, and Truth.

BIOGRAPHICAL

MARQUIS DE LA FAYETTE

MARIE JEAN PAUL ROCH YVES GILBERT MOTIER, MARQUIS DE LA FAYETTE, was born in Auvergne, France, September 6, 1757. Left an orphan with a princely fortune at the age of thirteen, he married, at the age of sixteen, a daughter of the Duc de Ayen, one of the most influential families in France.

In the choice of a career, a young man of his rank was limited to the court or the camp, so he chose the career of his father and entered the Guards.

La Fayette was but nineteen years of age and a Captain of Dragoons when the American colonies proclaimed their independence. Despite the protest of his friends, he immediately resolved to take a hand in the conflict, and finding his purpose unchangeable, the American agent in Paris concluded an arrangement, December 7, 1776, by which he was to enter the American service with the rank of Major-General.

About this time the news reached France of the grave disasters befalling the American troops, and the King forbade him to leave. La Fayette proceeded to purchase a ship at his own expense, and invited such friends as were willing to share his fortunes. The ship was seized and La Fayette was placed under arrest, but escaped in disguise, and after a tedious and dangerous voyage of two months, landed in Georgetown, South Carolina, with eleven of his chosen companions. He then made his way to Philadelphia and presented himself to the Continental Congress, with papers of authority from the agent in Paris, demanding a commission of the highest rank at that time, beneath that of Commander-in-chief.

In making such liberal demands, it is not surprising that his reception by Congress was not the most cordial; but, after the situation was explained to him, he wrote to the President of Congress, expressing a desire to serve in the American Army upon two conditions—that he should receive no pay, and that he should act as a volunteer. These terms were so different from those asked by other foreigners, and promised such substantial, indirect advantages on account of his family prestige, that Congress passed a resolution on July 31, 1777, accepting his services and commissioning him a Major-General in the Army of the United States. This commission was intended to be merely honorary, but, upon a recommendation from Washington to Congress, he was placed in charge of a division of troops, serving under General Washington. Of La Fayette's military career in the United States there is not much to be said; but, owing to his unselfish attachment to the cause, the many unnecessary privations he endured, and his unwavering championship of the American cause with the court of France, he is regarded as one of the heroes of the Revolution.

At the close of the war, he returned to France and, through the flattering testimonials of General Washington and the American Government, received the same military rank he had held with this Government.

La Fayette played an important part in the French Revolution, being one of the few aristocrats who was able to maintain his influence throughout the entire struggle. On July 11, 1789, he presented to the National Assembly a declaration of rights, modeled after our own Declaration of Independence. When a National Guard was organized, which soon embraced the entire kingdom and numbered over three million men, La Fayette was placed in command of it. During the three years that followed this, his life was beset with every conceivable responsibility and peril. He rescued the Queen from the murderous hands of the populace in 1789, not to mention hundreds of humbler victims who had been condemned to death. Disgusted with the enormities which he was powerless to prevent, he resigned his commission; but so impossible was it to replace him that he was finally induced to resume it. In the Constituent Assembly, of which he was a member, his influence was ever in favor of Republican principles, for the abolition of arbitrary imprisonment, for the establishment of trial by jury, for religious tolerance, for popular representation, for the gradual emancipation of slaves, for the abolition of titles of nobility, and the suppression of privileged orders. At the close of the Revolution he was induced by his friends to run for the office of Mayor of Paris, but was defeated. On account of his attacks upon the Jacobins, he was compelled to take refuge in the territory of Liege, where he was captured by the Austrians and held as a prisoner of state for five years. He was released by Napoleon, September 19, 1797, and returned to France. For many years following this he lived in retirement, but was appointed, by Louis XVIII, as Vice-president of the Assembly, preceding the battle of Waterloo. He then became a speaker on the subject of foreign politics and political economy. During the Revolution of 1834 he was again placed at the head of the National Guard, where he achieved success.

La Fayette twice visited America following the Revolutionary War, first in 1784, when he was the guest of the Government for five months, and again in 1824, forty years later, when he was overwhelmed with popular applause. On this visit Congress voted him $200,000 and a township of land.

He died in Paris, May 20, 1834.

The date of La Fayette's entrance into Freemasonry has been a question of much debate. Some authorities contend that he received the degrees in France, before coming to America. Robert Freke Gould, in his history of military Lodges, makes the following statement:

In December, 1777, the army retired to Valley Forge, and it was there—according to evidence which seems to be of trustworthy character—that General La Fayette was initiated. The French officer, though he had been received very warmly and kindly by General Washington, experienced much uneasiness from the circumstance that he had never been intrusted with a separate command. During the winter he learned that there was a Lodge working in the camp. Time hanging heavily on his hands, and the routine of duty being monotonous, he conceived the idea that he would like to be made a Mason. His wish, on being made known to the Lodge, was soon gratified, the Commander-in-chief being present and in the chair at the time of the initiation.

"After I was made a Mason," said La Fayette, "General Washington seemed to have received a new light. I never had from that moment any cause to doubt his entire confidence. It was not long before I had a separate command of great importance."

According to reference, "Masons as Makers of America," by Madison C. Peters, published by The Patriotic League, Brooklyn, New York, "La Fayette was made a Mason by Washington himself at the Old Freeman's Tavern, on the Green, at Morristown, New Jersey, in what was then Military Lodge, No. 19, now Montgomery Lodge of Philadelphia. And when, in after years, La Fayette returned to our land, the best token he could find of his grateful recollection to convey to his comrade-in-arms was the Mason's scarf and Mason's apron."

Probably no man ever owed more for his success in life to wealth and family prestige than did La Fayette, nor abused them less. He was born an aristocrat, but was a friend of the common people by choice. That he was esteemed by the American people of his day, second only to Washington, is attested by the number of towns, counties, postoffices, and Masonic Lodges which bear his name. There are six La Fayette and eleven Fayette counties. In the list of towns and postoffices there are: nineteen La Fayette, thirteen Fayette, twelve Fayettevilles, one Fayette City, one La Fayette Hill, one La Fayette Springs, besides La Fayette Station at St. Louis, Missouri.

Forty-two Lodges in the United States have been named for this illustrious Frenchman. Arranged alphabetically by States, they are:

No. 26, Greensboro, Alabama; No. 189, Helena, Arkansas; No. 126, Sebastopol, California; No. 91, La Fayette, Colorado; No. 100, Hartford, Connecticut; No. 14, Wilmington, Delaware; No. 19, Washington, D. C.; No. 213, Alton, Florida; No. 44, Cumming, Georgia; No. 23, Washington, Georgia; No. 657, Grand Tower, Illinois; No. 123, La Fayette, Indiana; No. 52, Montezuma, Iowa; No. 16, Manhattan, Kansas; No. 151, La Fayette, Kentucky; No. 87, Patterson, Louisiana; No. 48, Readfield, Maine; No. 111, Baltimore, Maryland; North Adams, Massachusetts; Roxbury, Massachusetts; No. 16, Jonesville, Michigan; No. 116, Brownsdale, Minnesota; No. 437, Corder, Missouri; No. 41, Manchester, New Hampshire; No. 27, Rahway, New Jersey; No. 64, New York City; No. 83, Jacksonville, North Carolina; No. 79, Zanesville, Ohio; No. 81, Cincinnati, Ohio; No. 3, Yamhill, Oregon; No. 652, Carnegie, Pennsylvania;

SAMUEL ROSS MOORE

No. 199, Lock Haven, Pennsylvania; No. 71, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania; No. 194, Sellinsgrove, Pennsylvania; No. 330, Gaffney, South Carolina; No. 543, La Fayette, Tennessee; No. 34, La Grange, Texas; No. 53, Proctorville, Vermont; No. 137, Luray, Virginia; No. 241, Seattle, Washington; No. 57, Fayetteville, West Virginia, and No. 265, Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

BRO. SAMUEL ROSS MOORE

Brother Moore was born on a farm near Urbana, Champaign County, Ohio, January 8, 1840. He worked upon the farm and attended the public school of that vicinity until he became of age, when he joined the Union Army in the War of the Rebellion. He enlisted in Company K, Thirteenth Regiment, Ohio Volunteer Infantry, April 22, 1861, and was mustered out August 21, 1861. He re-enlisted in Company G, Ninety-fifth Regiment, Ohio Volunteer Infantry, on August 8, 1862, serving throughout the remainder of the war. At the close of the war, he located in Zanesville, where he engaged in farming and gardening, entering the nursery business a short time later. At the time of his death, he was one of the best-known nurserymen in Ohio, and was considered an authority on all matters pertaining to horticulture. He was a widower and the father of two children, Lida E. and Daniel D. Moore. His wife died April 12, 1915, just ten years previous to his own death. He resided with his daughter at 537 McIntire Avenue.

Brother Moore was initiated an Entered Apprentice, July 19, 1862; passed to the degree of Fellow Craft September 10, 1862, and raised to the degree of Master Mason October 10, 1862, Harmony Lodge, No. 8, Urbana, Ohio. The latter degree was received while he was a paroled prisoner of war. He affiliated with La Fayette Lodge, November 1, 1866. He was elected Secretary of the Lodge, December 2, 1886, and served in that capacity for thirty-three consecutive years, relinquishing the office in 1920 on account of ill health. In his long service as Secretary, his every action was characterized by that love and respect that he bore his fellow men. He was methodical and exacting concerning all transactions of the Lodge, and in his minutes recorded the minutest detail with painstaking precision. Much of his time was devoted to this work, for which he received small remuneration; and even this was spent in deeds of charity, often going on foot and out of his way to serve some deserving Brother or his family. He was, without doubt, one of our greatest members and beloved by all who knew him. On retirement from the office of Secretary, he was elected Secretary-emeritus for life. He died on Sunday morning, April 12, 1925, from a complication of diseases incident to old age.

He sleeps in Greenwood Cemetery.

BRO. WILLIAM WRIGHT

Brother Wright was born in Harford County, Maryland, in 1792. He served throughout the War of 1812, retiring with the rank of Sergeant. In 1835, he settled in Licking County, Ohio, remaining there until 1838, when he removed to Zanesville and engaged in carpentry and boat building.

He was initiated an Entered Apprentice in La Fayette Lodge February 25, 1842; passed to the degree of Fellow Craft June 8, 1842, and raised to the degree of Master Mason September 23, 1842. He served the Lodge as Steward and Tyler, 1846, 1848, and from 1856 to 1873 inclusive, a period of twenty years.

He received the Capitular degrees in Zanesville Chapter, No. 9, Royal Arch Masons, as follows: Mark Master, February 3, 1846; Past Master, November 24, 1846; Most Excellent Master, September 10, 1847, and Royal Arch, November 7, 1849. He dimitted March 6, 1854, reaffiliating October 1, 1855. He served the Chapter as Steward and Guard, 1850, 1851, and from 1856 to 1873 inclusive, a period of twenty years.

He received the Cryptic degrees in Zanesville Council, No. 12, Royal and Select Masters, February 15, 1850, serving as Sentinel, 1851, and from 1857 to 1873 inclusive, a period of eighteen years.

He was a member of Cyprus Commandery, No. 10, Knights Templar, receiving the Illustrious Order of the Red Cross January 3, 1850; Knights Templar and Knight of Malta, January 5, 1850. He served the Commandery as Warder, 1851, and Sentinel from 1856 to 1873 inclusive, a period of eighteen years.

He died September 10, 1875, and was buried in Greenwood Cemetery.

BRO. THOMAS BELL

Brother Bell was an Englishman and conducted an extensive wholesale and retail liquor business on Market Street. In spite of this occupation, he was one of the most popular members of the Craft and was prominently identified with all the various Bodies of Masonry. He possessed the happy faculty of having honors thrust upon him without apparent effort, and although a presiding officer for seven years, was unable to learn the esoteric work, delegating the performance of it to his subordinates.

Brother Bell was initiated an Entered Apprentice in La Fayette Lodge, January 5, 1839; passed to the degree of Fellow Craft February 1, 1839, and raised to the degree of Master Mason March 15, 1839. He served as Junior Warden in 1844.

He received the Capitular degrees in Zanesville Chapter, No. 9, Royal Arch Masons, as follows: Mark Master and Past Master, September 10, 1839, and Most Excellent Master and Royal Arch, September 11, 1839. He served the Chapter as Grand Master of the Third Veil, 1840; Scribe, 1841, 1842, 1848, and 1849; and High Priest, 1843 to 1847 inclusive.

He was among the first candidates to receive the degrees in Zanesville Council, No. 12, Royal and Select Masters, receiving the Cryptic degrees March 12, 1844.

He received the Chivalric degrees in Mt. Vernon Commandery, No. 1, Knights Templar, at Columbus, September 13, 1847, and became a charter member and first Eminent Commander of Cyprus Commandery, No. 10, Knights Templar, serving in 1849 and 1850. He was unusually prominent in the Grand Commandery of Ohio, serving as Deputy Grand Commander in 1849.

He died near Utica, New York, in 1868.

BRO. WILLIAM DECATUR TERRY

Brother Terry was born at Oswego, New York, in 1818. He became the driver of a stage coach when sixteen years of age, and during the greater part of his active life he was prominently identified with the problem of transportation.

He came to Zanesville in 1836, and, after driving stage between Columbus and Wheeling for two years in the employ of the Ohio Stage Company, became conductor and later supervisor of the mail line. He continued with this company until 1850, when he entered the employ of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company as conductor, the road having been completed at that time as far west as Newark. In 1852, he established an omnibus line in Zanesville, and the following year, in Wheeling, was appointed ticket agent by the Railroad and Steamship Companies, and established a union ticket office. He remained in Wheeling until 1856, when he became one of the organizers of the Kansas Stage Company, and subsequently its Vice-president and General Manager. In 1865, this line was consolidated with the Southwestern, and he became land commissioner of the new corporation. From 1870 to 1874, he was President of the Shawnee County Bank at Topeka, Kansas, after which time he disposed of his banking and stage interests, retaining possession of the omnibus and stage lines at Topeka and Leavenworth. In 1876, he returned to Zanesville to make his future home.

In 1843, he was united in marriage to Miss Louvisa Lippett, of Zanesville, and to this union three children were born: Theodore, Frank, and William D. Terry.

Bro. Terry was initiated an Entered Apprentice in La Fayette Lodge November 10, 1843; passed to the degree of Fellow Craft November 24, 1843, and raised to the degree of Master Mason November 24, 1843. He was unusually active in all the affairs of the Lodge, but owing to his occupation was unable to serve in an official capacity.

He was a member of Zanesville Chapter, No. 9, Royal Arch Masons, receiving the degree of Mark Master February 5, 1844; Past Master, June 14, 1844, and Most Excellent and Royal Arch, June 19, 1844.

He received the Chivalric degrees in Cyrpus Commandery, No. 10, Knights Templar, as follows: Illustrious Order of the Red Cross, November 27, 1852, and Order of the Temple and Knight of Malta, February 1, 1853.

He died June 1, 1895, and was buried in Greenwood Cemetery.

BRO. WILBER J. MENDENHALL

Brother Mendenhall was born at Chesterhill, Morgan County, Ohio, January 22, 1880. He received his education in the Marion Township grade school and the high schools of Chesterhill and Pennsville; and, upon coming to Zanesville, January 1, 1901, entered the Meredith Business College. After completing a six-months' course in bookkeeping, he continued with this institution in the capacity of teacher until May, 1902, when he entered the office of Armour and Company as bill clerk. He remained with this concern for twelve years, during which time he rose from bill clerk to stock clerk, then cashier and credit man, relinquishing the latter position to accept one as office manager and bookkeeper of the Fowler Grocery and Baking Company. After continuing with this firm for two years, he became bookkeeper of the Zanesville Fruit Company, where he remained until September 1, 1917, when he became Deputy Treasurer of Muskingum County. He served four years as Deputy Treasurer, after which he was elected Treasurer for two successive terms of two years each, retiring from this office September 1, 1925, to again assume the position of bookkeeper with the Zanesville Fruit Company, where he is now employed.

On July 1, 1903, he was united in marriage to Althia M. Flesher-Miller, of this city, and they reside at 1117 Blue Avenue.

Brother Mendenhall was initiated an Entered Apprentice in La Fayette Lodge April 12, 1906; passed to the degree of Fellow Craft May 24, 1906, and raised to the degree of Master Mason July 19, 1906. He served the Lodge as Treasurer, 1912 to 1920 inclusive, and in November, 1920, upon the retirement of Bro. Samuel R. Moore, was elected Secretary, which position he still occupies.

He served as President of the Board of Governors of the Masonic Club for five years, from 1914 to 1919 inclusive.

He is a member of Zanesville Chapter, No. 9, Royal Arch Masons, receiving the degree of Mark Master November 9, 1908; Past and Most Excellent Masters, November 16, 1908, and Royal Arch, November 23, 1908.

He is a member of Zanesville Council, No. 12, Royal and Select Masters, receiving the degrees of Royal Master, Select Master, and Super-Excellent Master, June 10, 1909. He has served the Council as Treasurer since December, 1914, with the exception of one year.

He received the Chivalric degrees in Cyrene Commandery, No. 10, Knights Templar, as follows: Illustrious Order of the Red Cross and Knight of Malta, March 17, 1909, and Order of the Temple, April 6, 1909.

He is also affiliated with Amrou Grotto, No. 45, M. O. V. P. E. R., and served as its Treasurer from 1914 to 1924 inclusive.

Brother Mendenhall is eminently fitted for the office of Secretary, by virtue of his long experience as a bookkeeper and cashier. His books are models of neatness and efficiency, and, needless to say, the financial affairs of the Lodge rest in able hands.

BRO. WILLIAM T. LEWIS

Brother Lewis was born on a farm near Chandlersville, Muskingum County, Ohio, June 16, 1854. His mother died when he was six years old, and the family then removed to Mt. Sterling, Hopewell County. After attending the public schools of that vicinity until fifteen years of age, he left home and entered the drug store of Doctor Green, at Mt. Vernon, Ohio, where he remained two years. After leaving Mt. Vernon, he came to Zanesville and learned photography under the late J. R. Baird. In 1874 and 1875, he studied medicine under Doctor Oatley, of South Fourth Street. During his career as a photographer he has been in the employ of C. S. Cooper (successor to J. Q. A. Tresize), George W. Smith Gallery, H. M. Sedgwick, and the Ideal Art Company. In 1902, he entered the picture business for himself and his "Ping-Pong" gallery on Main Street, below Fifth, soon became an assured success. He is now located at 13½ North Fifth Street.

On August 15, 1874, he was united in marriage to Miss Jennie Woods, and to this union have been born two children, Gertrude A. and Warren P. Lewis.

Brother Lewis has been an active participant in the affairs of this Lodge for many years, serving faithfully in the several subordinate stations, but peremptorily declining the office of Worshipful Master.

He was initiated an Entered Apprentice in La Fayette Lodge May 3, 1888; passed to the degree of Fellow Craft June 11, 1888, and raised to the degree of Master Mason July 26, 1888. He served the Lodge as Senior Deacon, 1889, 1890, 1897, and 1898; Junior Warden, 1891 and 1892, and Senior Warden, 1893.

He received the Capitular degrees in Zanesville Chapter, No. 9, Royal Arch Masons, as follows: Mark Master, February 13, 1899; Past and Most Excellent Masters, February 20, 1899, and Royal Arch, March 27, 1899.

He received all the Cryptic degrees, including Royal Master, Select Master, and Super-Excellent Master, in Zanesville Council, No. 12, Royal and Select Masters, on November 14, 1907. He served the Council as Principal Conductor of Work, 1914 and 1915; Deputy Master, 1916, and Thrice Illustrious Master, 1917. He was again elected Principal Conductor of Work in November, 1924, and is now serving in that capacity.

He is a Scottish Rite Mason of the Thirty-second degree, and is a member of Cambridge Lodge of Perfection; Cambridge Council, Princes of Jerusalem, and Cambridge Chapter, Rose Croix de H. R. D. M., all in the Valley of Cambridge, and Scioto Consistory, Sublime Princes of the Royal Secret, in the Valley of Columbus. He is a member of Muskingum County Association, Ancient Accepted Scottish Rite Masons, and during the present year is serving as its Vice-president.

He resides at 121 South Seventh Street.

BRO. JOHN P. FORD

Brother Ford was born in Zanesville, July 1, 1829. He early learned the painting trade and for a few years worked as a journeyman painter. In 1854, he formed a partnership with G. W. Stark, which continued for two years, after which he dissolved partnership and continued in business for himself. Besides being a paper-hanger and painter, he also dealt in French plate glass, stained, cathedral, and crystal sheet glass. He was a stockholder in the Citizens' National Bank and a director of the Home Building and Savings Bank.

He was twice married, his first wife being Miss Lucinda Brookover, and to this union were born the following children:

Ella, Carrie, and Frank Ford. His second wife was Miss Mattie Lee, and to this union were born three children—Hattie, Lee, and John Ford.

Brother Ford was initiated an Entered Apprentice in La Fayette Lodge May 6, 1858; passed to the degree of Fellow Craft December 16, 1858, and raised to the degree of Master Mason January 6, 1859. He served the Lodge as Treasurer from 1862 to 1865, inclusive, and from 1873 to 1898, inclusive, a period of thirty years.

He received the Capitular degrees in Zanesville Chapter, No. 9, Royal Arch Masons, as follows: Mark Master, July 11, 1859; Past Master, August 22, 1859; Most Excellent Master, August 28, 1859, and Royal Arch, September 12, 1859. He served as Royal Arch Captain, 1875, and Treasurer from 1883 to 1899.

He was a member of Zanesville Council, No. 12, Royal and Select Masters, receiving the Cryptic degrees November 23, 1882. He served the Council as Treasurer from 1884 up to the time of his death, a period of more than fifteen years.

He received the Chivalric degrees in Cyprus Commandery, No. 10, Knights Templar, as follows: Illustrious Order of the Red Cross, November 22, 1859; Knights Templar and Knight of Malta, November 29, 1859. He served the Commandery as Treasurer in 1878.

He died May 31, 1899, and was buried in Greenwood Cemetery.

BRO. WILLIAM SHAFFER

Brother Shaffer was born in 1813, but the place of his birth is unknown. He followed the trade of saddler, which was a very profitable one seventy-five years ago. He was an excellent Secretary, and his records are models of neatness and thoroughness. He left Zanesville in 1864, and his remaining days were spent in the West.

He was initiated an Entered Apprentice in this Lodge March 15, 1849; passed to the degree of Fellow Craft, April 5, 1849, and raised to the degree of Master Mason May 5, 1849. He served the Lodge as Secretary for fourteen years, from 1851 to 1864 inclusive.

He received the Capitular degrees in Zanesville Chapter, No. 9, Royal Arch Masons, as follows: Mark Master, October 16, 1851; Past Master, January 6, 1852; Most Excellent Master, January 26, 1852, and Royal Arch, February 2, 1852. He served as Secretary of the Chapter for twelve years, from 1853 to 1864 inclusive.

He passed the Circle of Perfection in Zanesville Council, No. 12, Royal and Select Masters, December 9, 1852, serving as Recorder for twelve years, from 1853 to 1864 inclusive.

He received the Chivalric degrees in Cyprus Commandery, No. 10, Knights Templar, as follows: Illustrious Order of the Red Cross, November 27, 1852; Knights Templar and Knight of Malta, December 10, 1852, serving as Recorder for ten years, 1854, 1855, and from 1857 to 1864 inclusive.

He died August 21, 1886, and was buried in Greenwood Cemetery.
